

The characteristics of this ulos motif are unique.

Weaving ulos cloth is a creative culture that is an activity in Huta Raja Village. The activity of weaving ulos cloth in Huta Raja Village is an activity carried out by women. Generally, from an early age, they are taught how to weave cloth into ulos. Yarn is used as a material to make traditional cloth and clothing. The weaving process is required in the formation. The threads that have been selected are joined together using conventional weaving tools made of wood.