

The beauty of Lake Toba, which is already famous abroad, can be enjoyed from Holbung Samosir Hill. The people in Holbung Hill sell food and drinks to serve tourists to the point where they want a view of Lake Toba. Visitors can enjoy Lake Toba's stunning beauty in this traditional cafe.

The people in Holbung Hill feel prosperous with the presence of tourists who come to enjoy the beauty of the evidence that borders Lake Toba. Through that place, visitors, simply by looking at nature, will feel peace. Visitors will adventure as far as the eye can see and paddle as far as the road stretches.

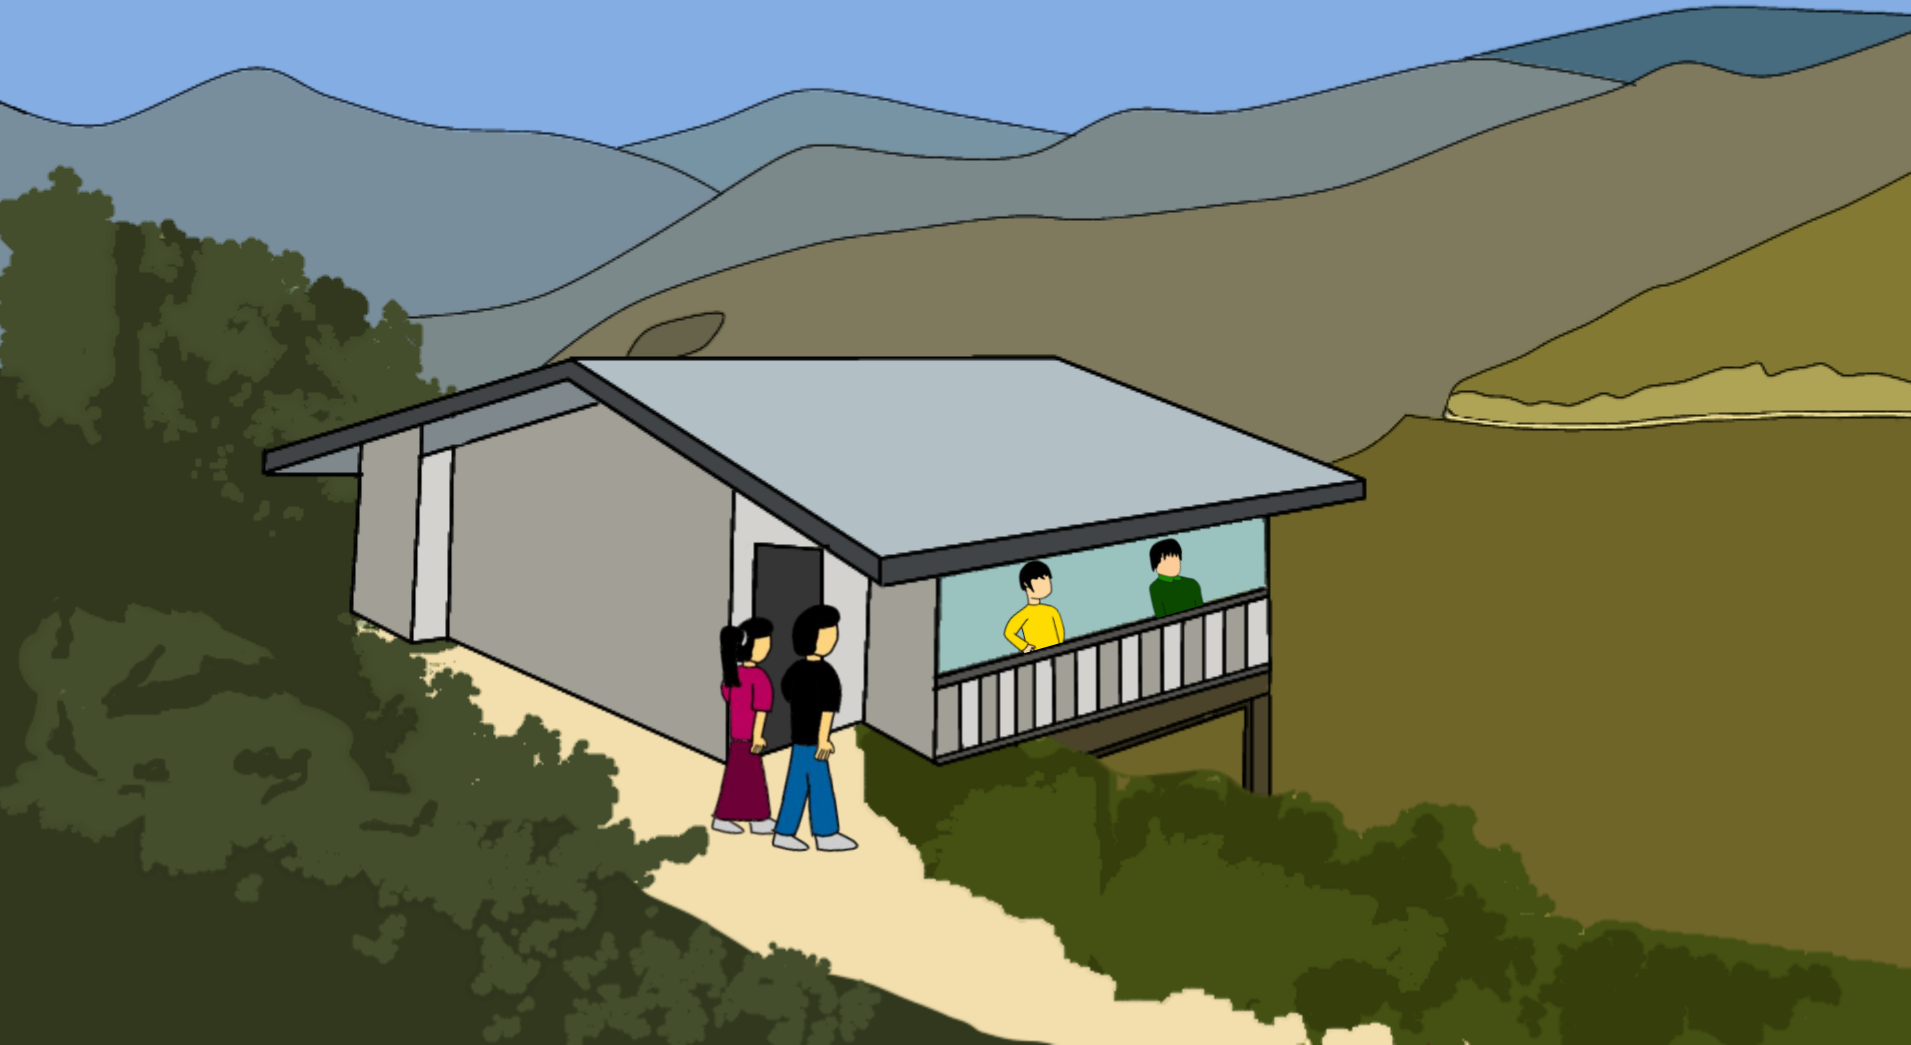

The existence of a traditional cafe in Holbung Hill is a place for millennial youth to gather and tell stories. Therefore, they feel happy because they can find a traditional restaurant in a natural travel situation. At the same time, visitors can enjoy coffee and tea drinks which help them recover their minds after high activities due to the demands of life.

This place is a traditional restaurant which is a community effort to serve visitors while enjoying the view of Lake Toba from Evidence Holbung. Visitors can enjoy the view of Lake Toba from the building.

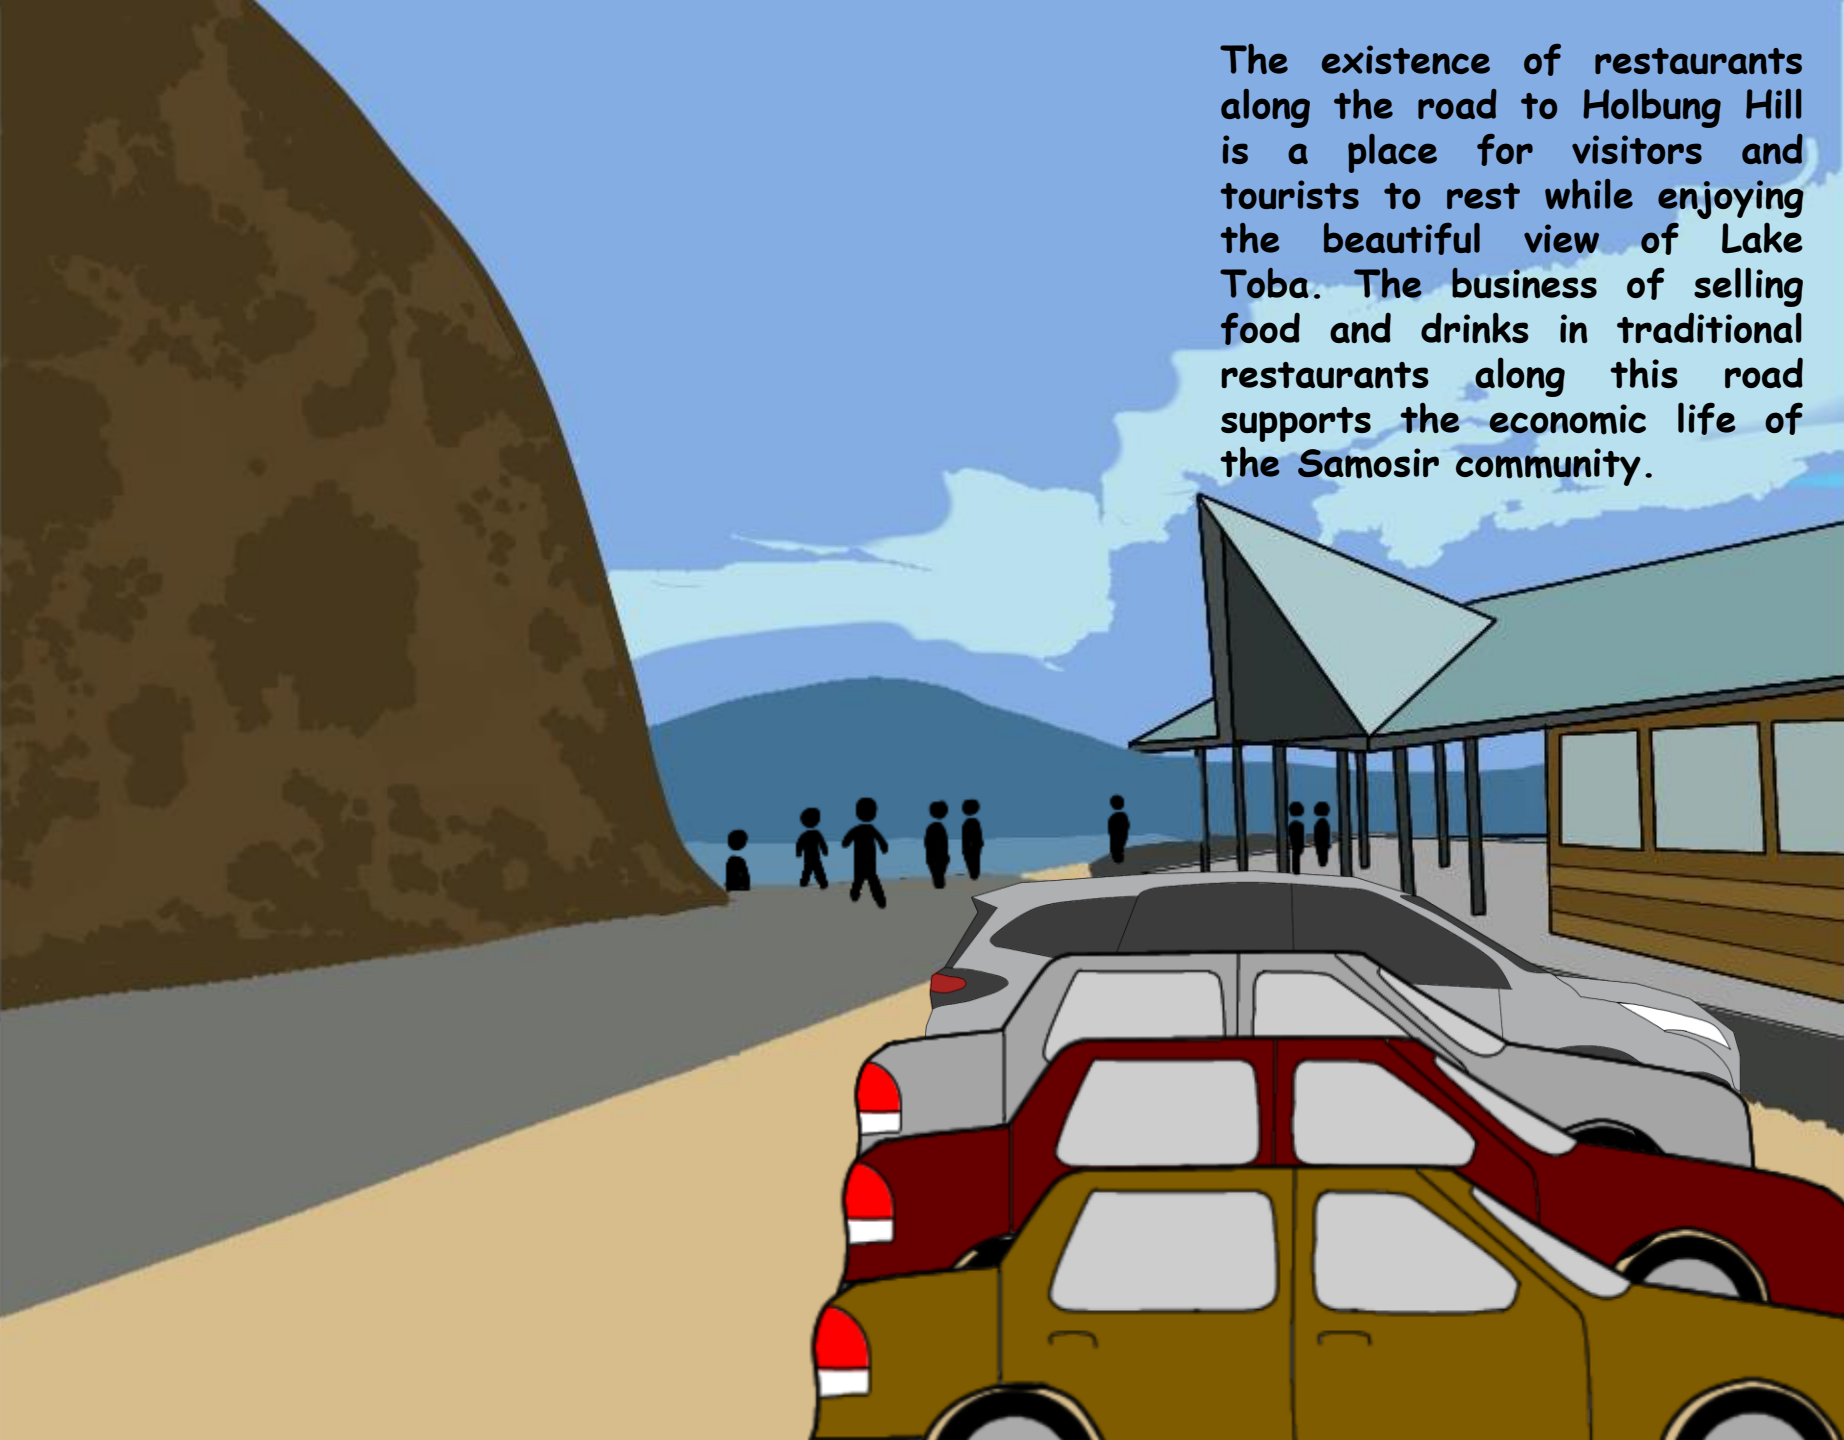

This small shop located in the valley of Holbung Hill is one of the community business activities in Holbung Hill. In a small cafe, visitors can enjoy the natural beauty of Lake Toba while eating roasted corn and warm drinks. The nature of Lake Toba from this place is one of the most beautiful gifts created by God. Through that place, visitors can enjoy mountains, lakes, steep valleys, and forests.

The small prayer room where Bukit Holbung is located equips the lives of the people and visitors always to be close to the God who created nature. Because God wants humans to live side by side with nature. God wants humans to take care of nature, contributing to providing a priceless legacy for future generations. By taking care of nature, humans can enjoy its beauty as well as get many lessons from the universe created by God.

The existence of restaurants along the road to Holbung Hill is a place for visitors and tourists to rest while enjoying the beautiful view of Lake Toba. The business of selling food and drinks in traditional restaurants along this road supports the economic life of the Samosir community.

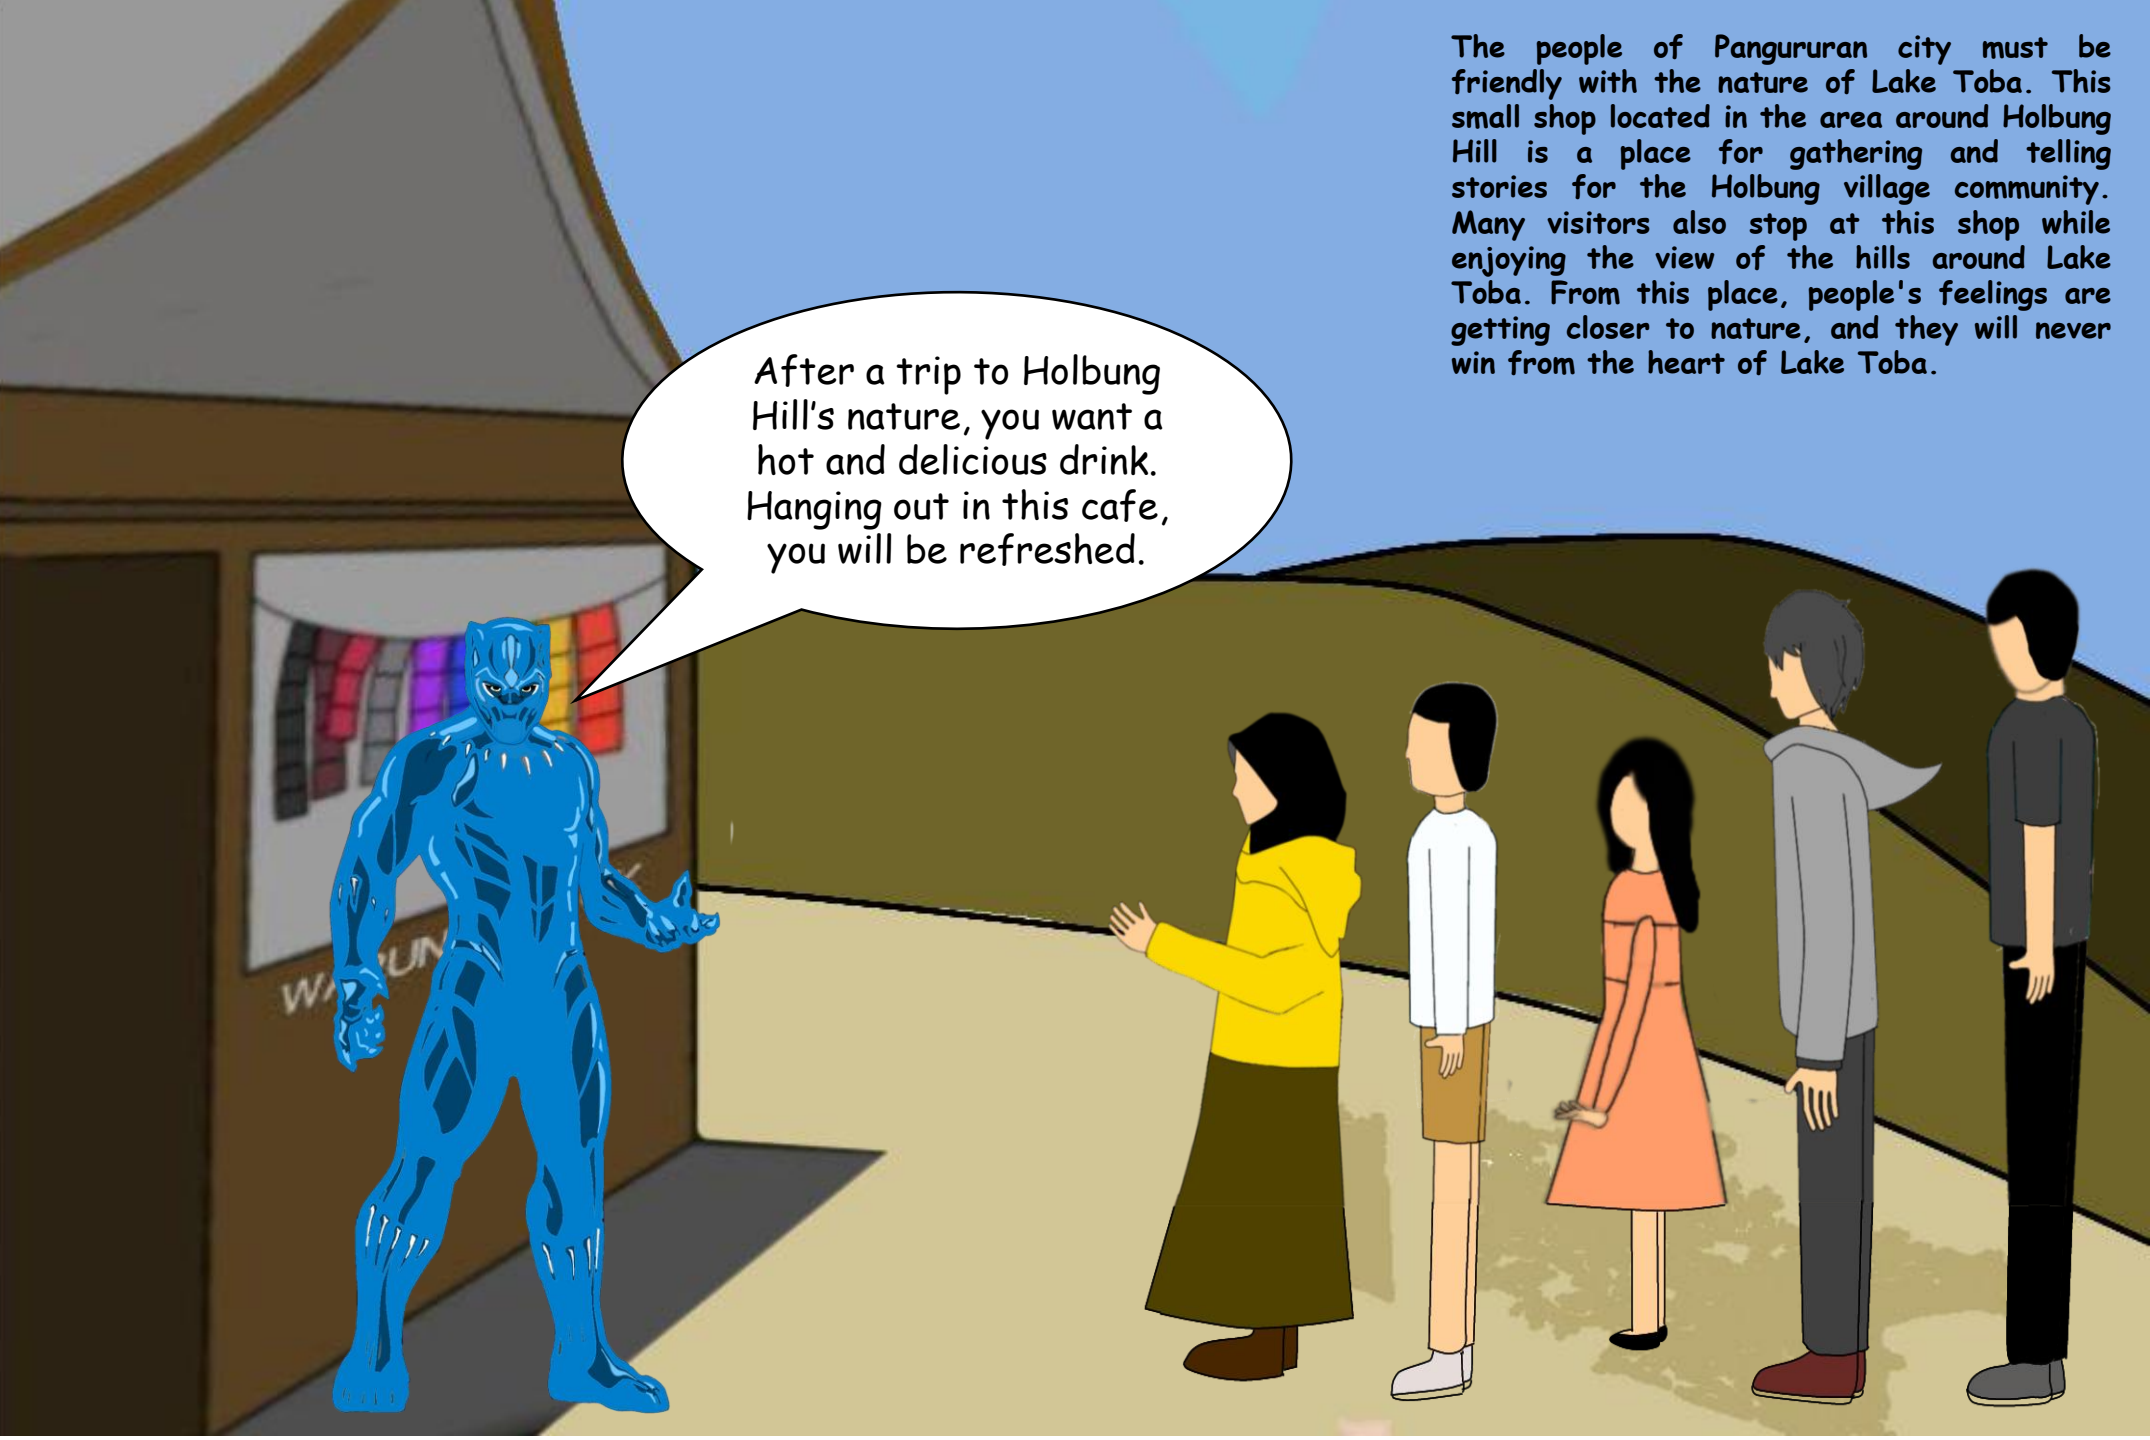

The selection of the right location for traditional restaurants along the road to Holbung Hill affects the success of the business activities of the Pangururan city community. From this place, visitors are happy because they can see beautiful mountains and lakes. The happiness felt by visitors is not perfect before they feel the pleasure that arises from enjoying the natural beauty of Lake Toba.

The people of Pangururan city must be friendly with the nature of Lake Toba. This small shop located in the area around Holbung Hill is a place for gathering and telling stories for the Holbung village community. Many visitors also stop at this shop while enjoying the view of the hills around Lake Toba. From this place, people's feelings are getting closer to nature, and they will never win from the heart of Lake Toba.

After a trip to Holbung Hill's nature, you want a hot and delicious drink. Hanging out in this cafe, you will be refreshed.

TICKET COUNTER & INFORMATION CENTER

There is a village in Holbung Hill directly adjacent to Lake Toba's view in Harian District, Samosir, North Sumatera, Indonesia. The settlement is Hariarapohan Village. The people of Hariarapohan village are involved in tourism activities, for example, as counter officers for selling entrance tickets and providing information on nature tourism.

People who go to Holbung hill will feel the existence of the beautiful sky when the day gets brighter. The atmosphere on Holbung hill has a blue color and is often used as a theoretical highest point where one can reach it. By looking up at the sky, people will not feel lonely. The whole universe is friendly with them and conspires only to provide the best for those who dream and work.