

WE ARE HAPPY DOING NORMAL THINGS ...

We are also excited to go to The Inculcitative Church Museum

One day in a small family.

Honey, Anju Sitohang, you always have to be careful out there.
Because, as a detective, many want to harm you.
I will miss you so much, especially when you come home once a week.

Yes, calm down, my wife, Maria Simarmata. I'll be back as soon as possible when my work is done. Are you going to work this afternoon? As a researcher for the Environment Agency, my wife's enthusiasm for research and development is very tiring. You watch over our children Anggiat Sitohang, Tigor Sitohang, and Roma Sitohang, right? Forgive me, who is busy making a living and defending the truth.

It's okay, my husband. It is my responsibility to take care of our children. It's time for you to go. You'll be late.
Be careful on the road,
my husband.

Who is this call from?
It looks like this is an important call. Thank you for understanding my situation, dear. I go to work first. Bye honey!

Two days later in Maria's office at the Agency for The Environment, Research and Development.

Who is this call from?
I think this is an important call.

Kring kring kring

Hello. Good morning, with Maria Simarmata from the Agency for the Environment, Research, and Development.
Who am I talking to?

RSUD DR Hadrianus

Good morning Mrs. Maria.
I'm from the Dr. Hadrianus Hospital. A patient named Anju Sitohang, your husband, had a heart attack while conducting an investigation. He also caught the Covid-19 Virus. You may come to the hospital to talk more about your husband.

Huh?! Gosh?!

Oh my God.

Well, I will be there soon with my children.

RSUD DR Hadrianus

Doctor, what room is the patient in on behalf of Anju Sitohang? I am his wife Maria Simarmata.

Patients with heart disease and Covid-19. On behalf of Anju Sitohang, the patient is in the emergency room. At 15.45, 30 minutes before you arrived, he was declared dead. Because he is a Covid-19 patient, his family cannot visit him for fear of spreading the virus. The hospital will also carry out the funeral to ensure that the patient does not spread the Covid-19 virus. The funeral will be held in 1 hour at the particular Covid-19 cemetery. The family can only see from a distance.

I'm sorry, I can't do anything, because the doctor has determined it.

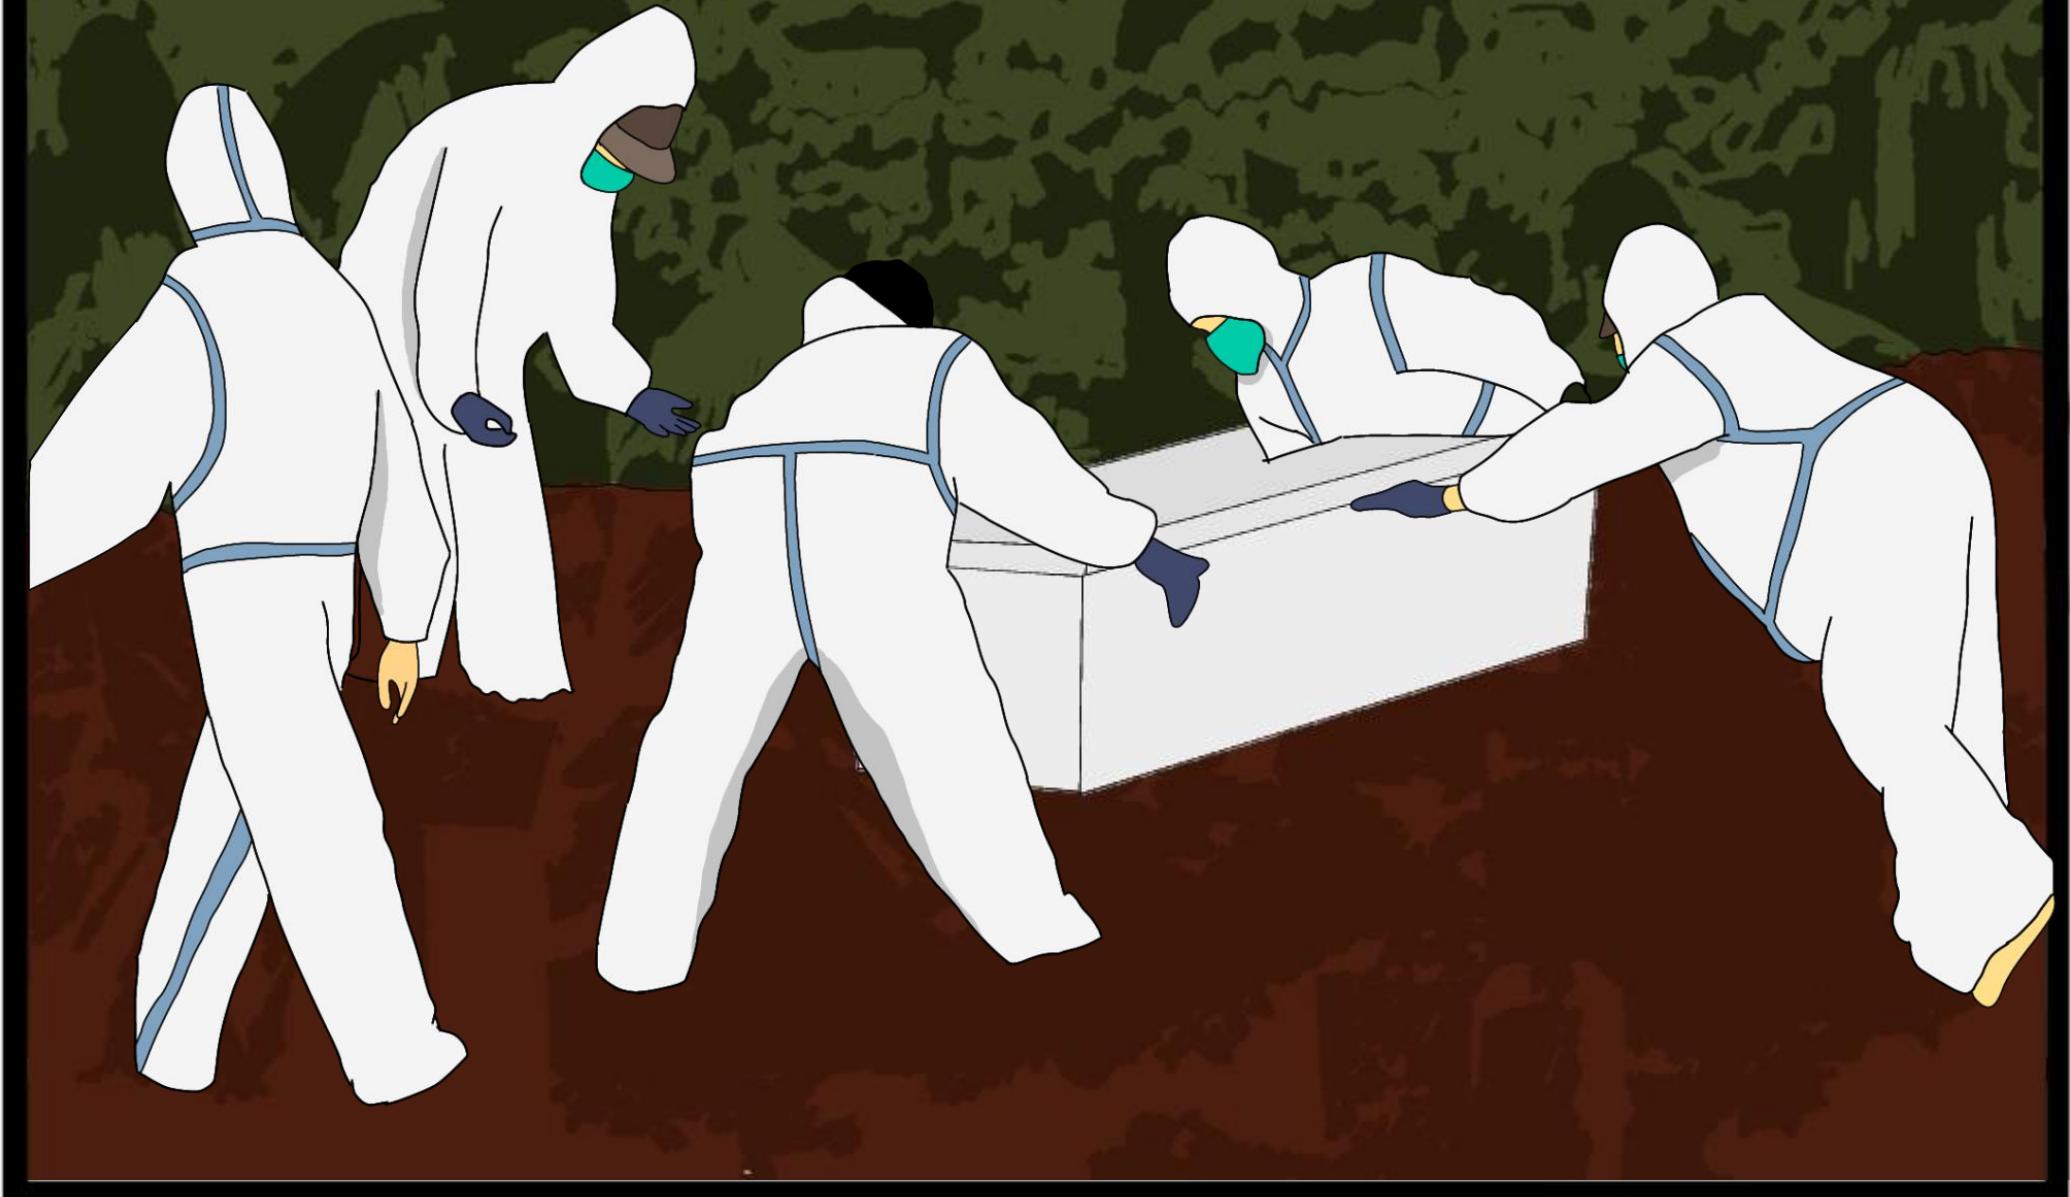

O-okay doctor...

Hiks,,, hiks,,,

Mom... Dad is passed away.

Bro,
Daddy is passed away.

At that time, Pangururan was being hit by the Covid 19 pandemic.
So many people were the victims.

My husband is passed away...

I really miss my husband, hiks.

His office still looks very neat.

Lots of work equipment.
Um, but what key is this?

Looks like this drawer lock.
Let's see what's in it.

Whose photo is this?
I don't know him.
Why is this photo cross-stitched and smells of blood?

On the other hand, there is "sip manga mate" which means shut up or die? What is this? I have to check the computer for any clues.

Are there locked files? What's in it?

I've tried all possible passwords.
His birth date, family's birth date, and our wedding date. What could be the possible passwords? I tried the date last night even though it's not possible.
I'm desperate.

Wow, it's open. What is this? Why is the password the date of my husband's death?
Did he already know
the date he died?.

Hmm. There is a photo of the child photographed earlier, biodata, and several other photos and videos. It turned out that the child was Abet Simamora. In this data, Abet is the son of the current Regent, Patar Hutabarat. However, aren't there only two children of the Regent, namely Lamhot Hutabarat and Maruli Hutabarat? And the child who was photographed is not one of the regent's children.

Wow, what terrible video is this? Abet was locked in a room and tortured by his two brothers. What? Why does the regent look happy that Abet is being tortured? Isn't he his son?

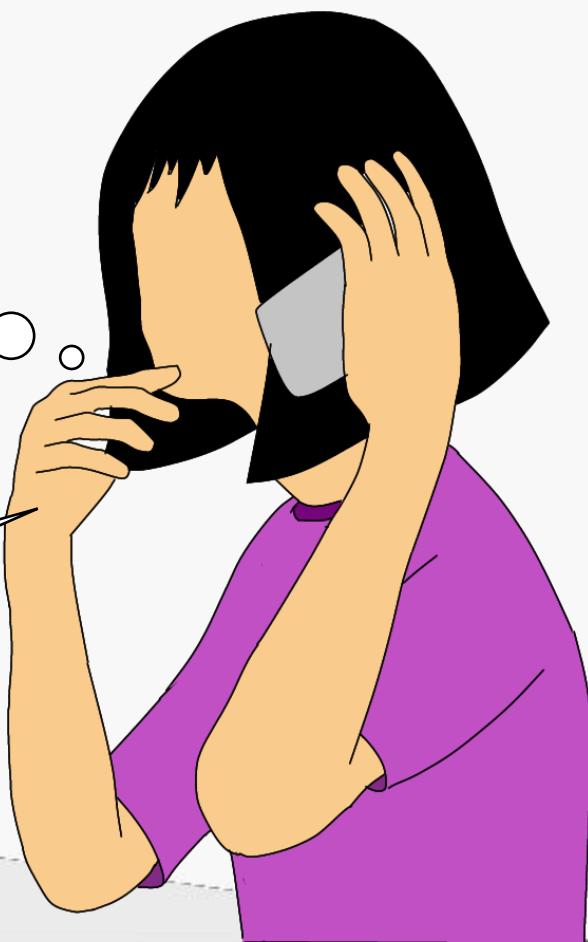

Even though so far, the regent looks very good and always smiles. How could he smile seeing his son being tortured? What if I share this publicly? I'm afraid the regent will bully my children. But it will be dangerous for my family. Moreover, the next period of the regent election will be held soon. And Patar nominates again to be the next regent. There will be a big commotion later if it is shared with the public. I have to save Abet first.

Anju met Thomas the day before Anju was pronounced dead.
This means that the case of the regent's son was a secret case because Thomas did not know about the case.

Okay, thank you,
Thomas. See you.

As I recall, one of the children of the Regent of Patar, Maruli, is a YouTuber, and he once showed his house through a Video House Tour of his home. I have to look at the floor plan and the house's interior.

In this video, a room is said to be a Warehouse painted red with blood. There was also the sound of someone crying from inside the room. However, Maruli explains that the room is Horror and a ghost exists. It must be Abet's room. Tonight I will immediately visit the Regent's residence to help Abet.

Then, by reflex, Roma swiftly hit the guard's head hard using the wood she had brought from her house to make a weapon.

Then once again, Roma hit the guard's head with the stick to make the guard faint.

This is the sopo that the guard was referring to. But how do you get under this sopo? There must be a secret passage that we don't know about.

I don't know... I'm so confused.

But what if we pray first to God in this Inculturative Church? May God give us a hint.

Alright, let's enter the Inculturative Church first to pray.

Brother do you want to carry me?
I'm so tired, hahaha.

A strong woman like you can't get tired, my sister. Don't taunt me to carry you. I won't be strong, hahaha

Never mind, bro...
Roma has been great at hitting the guardian of the heart. It's only natural that now he is tired of being afraid and expending great energy.

They also prayed. Then..

O, my Lord, You say... Ask...
Then we will receive.
Let your will be done. Amen.

Our God, give us the wisdom to walk. Please give us the right decision so that we can find Abet.

Uh, why is the sink clogged?

What's this? What happened? Why suddenly a mysterious door appears next to the sink? Is this the way to the underground Sopo? I have to call my sister, mother and brother.

Be careful, mother...

Tigor immediately called his mom, brother and sister to follow him into the room.

Who are you?
What are your needs here?
I'll finish you off!

Great detective,
Anju Sitohang...
His wife and children solved the mystery of her missing husband.

My wife and children are here.
They managed to find me.

My husband...
Oh God, Thankyou.
He still alive.

I just took down the first guard. Hmmm, it's my brother's turn to demonstrate martial arts skills.
Surely they can

Daddy!

Daddy!

In an instant the guard fell against Anggiat and Tigor.

BRAKK

BRUKK

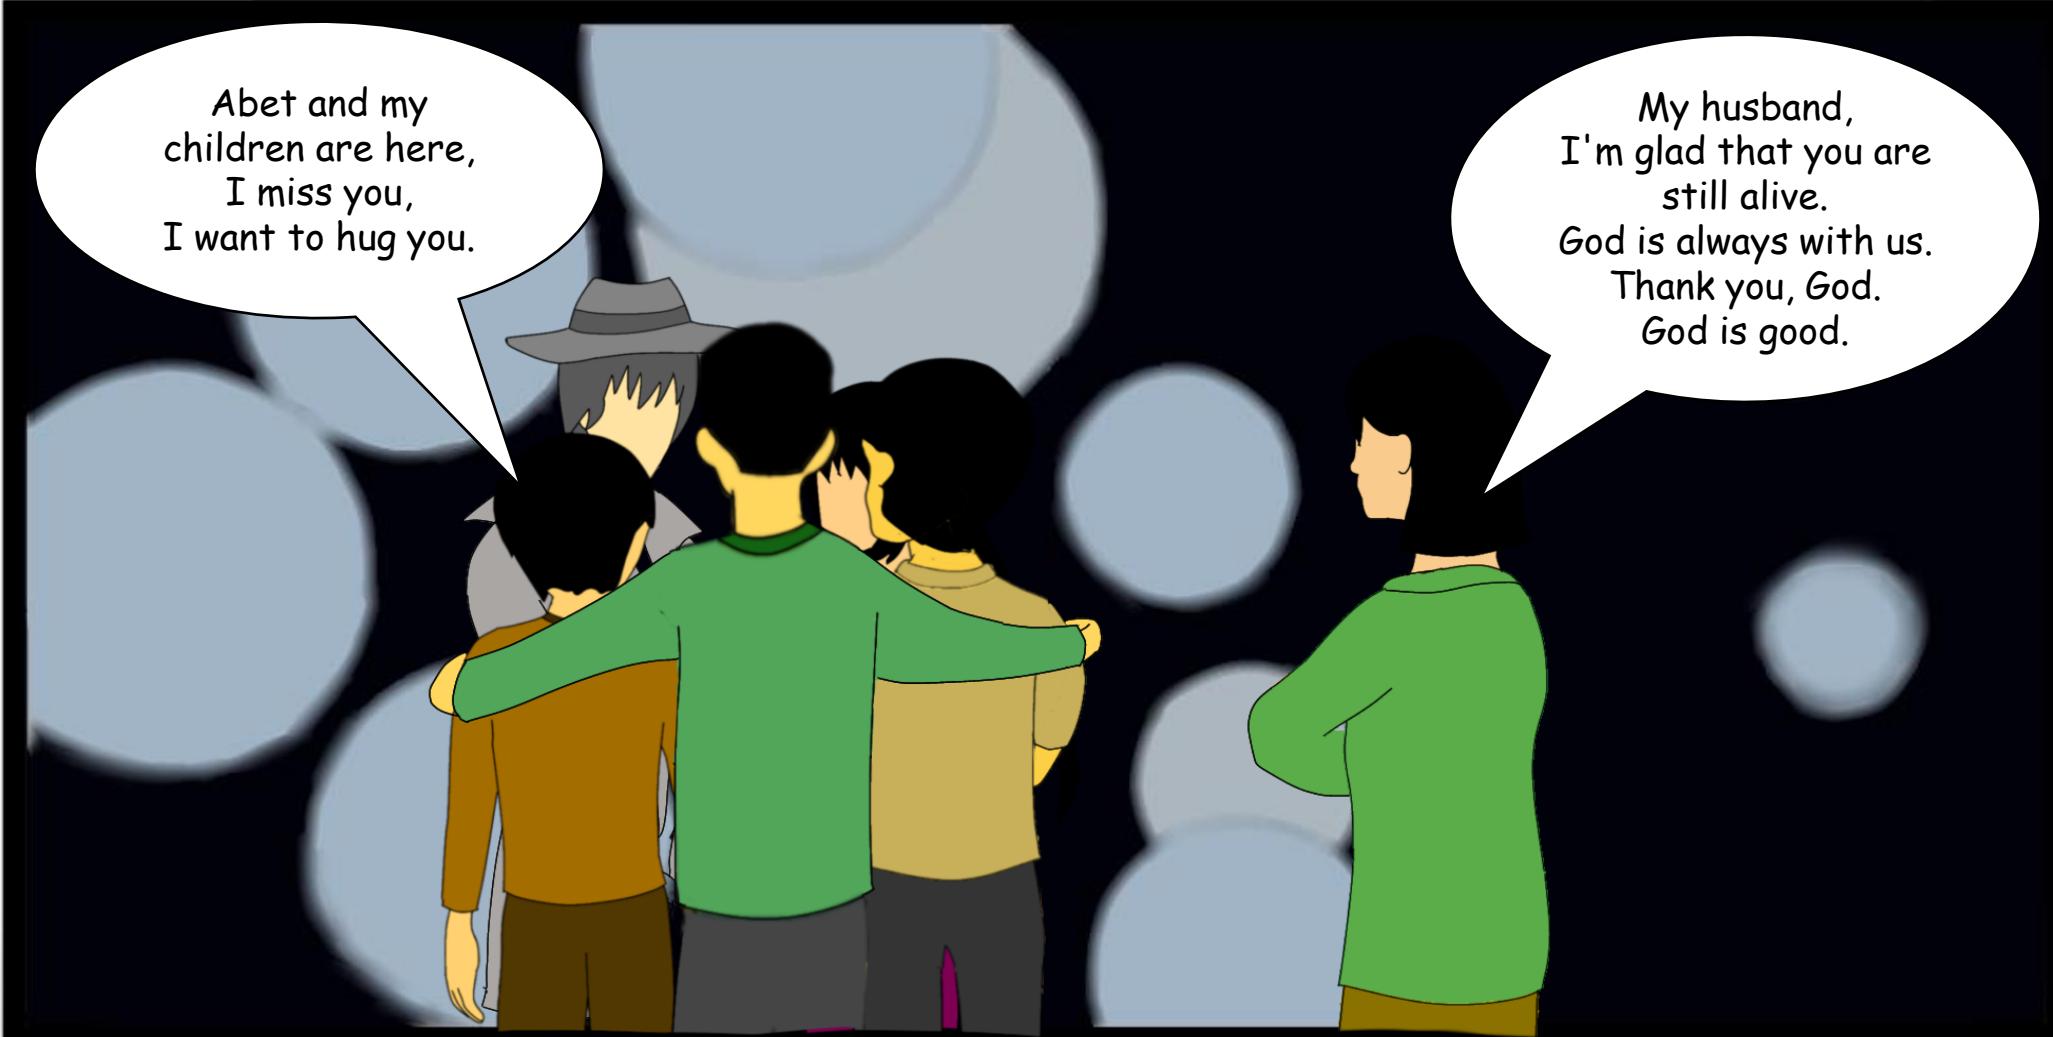

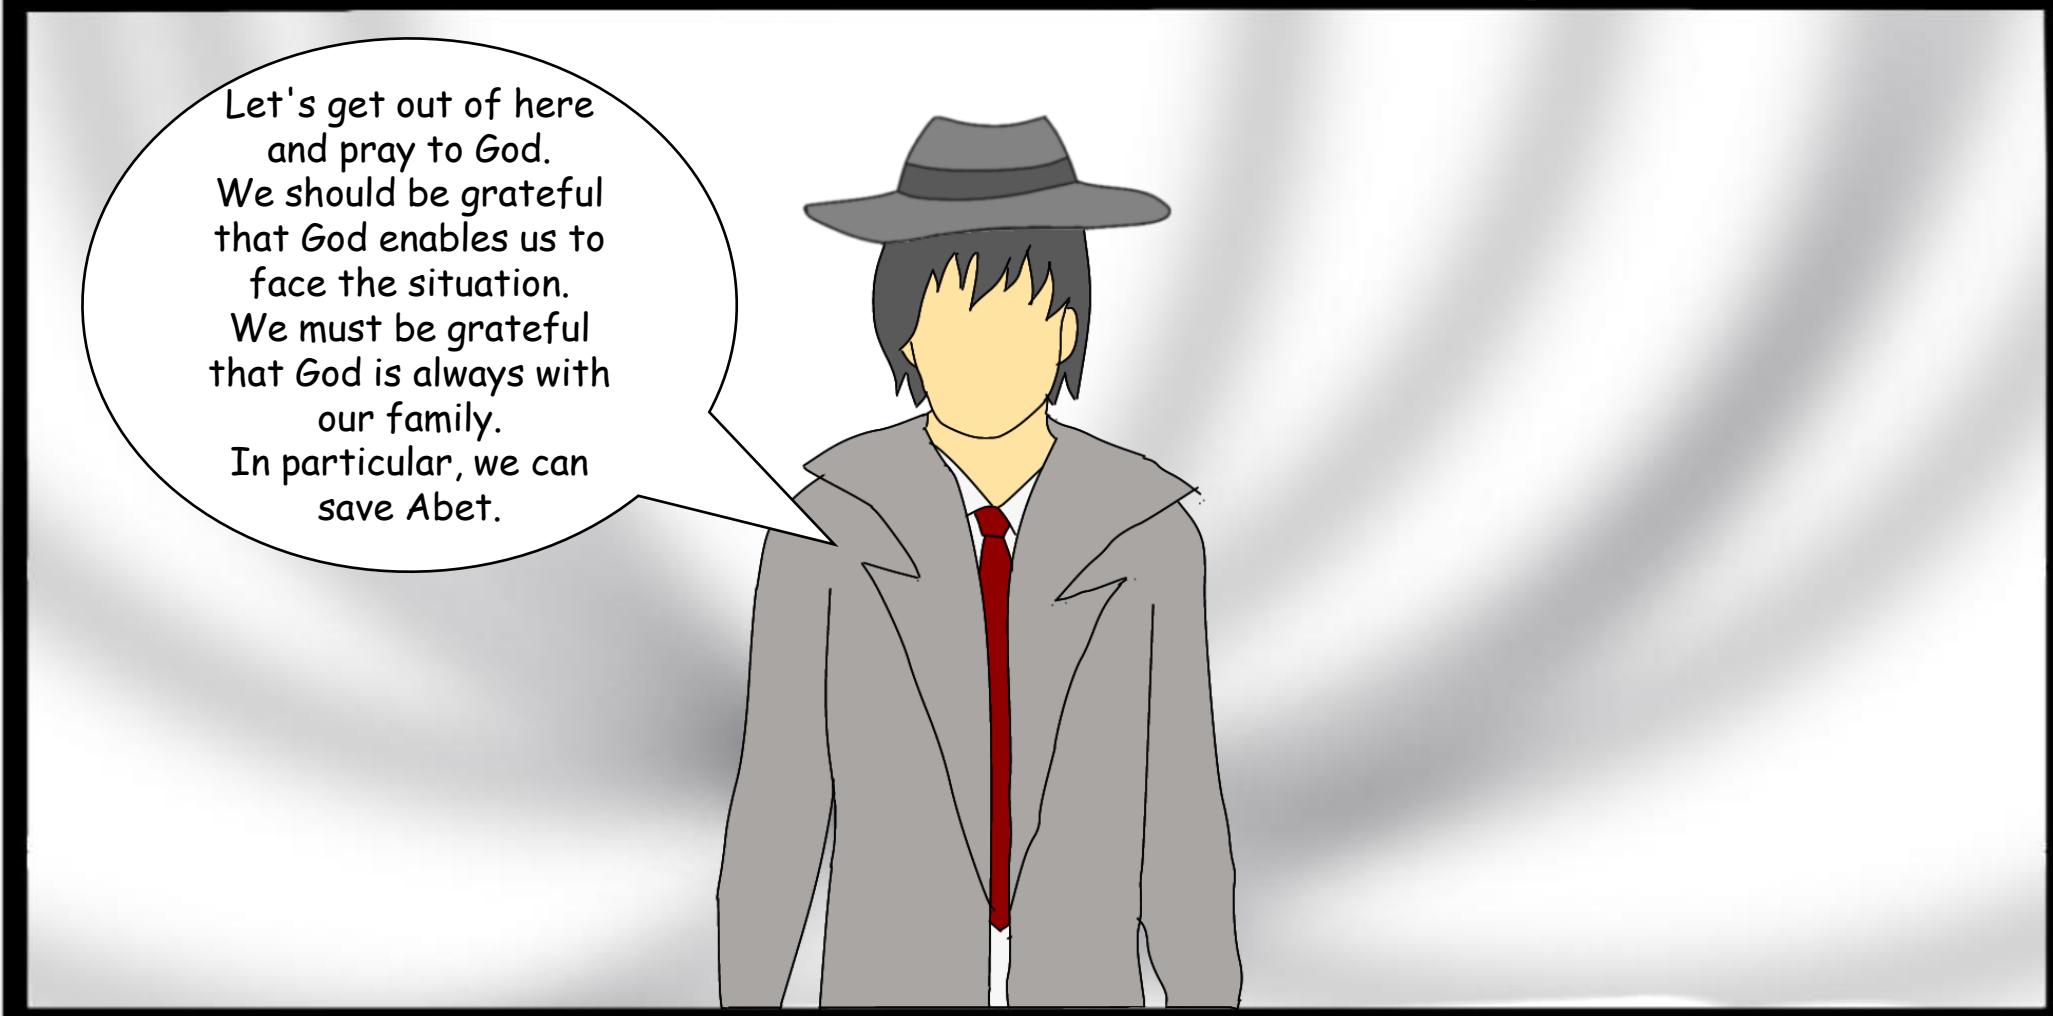

Thank you for coming, my wife and my children. I think my life will end here.

Yes, my husband. I'm so grateful you're still alive.

Abet and my children are here,
I miss you,
I want to hug you.

My husband,
I'm glad that you are still alive.
God is always with us.
Thank you, God.
God is good.

Let's get out of here and pray to God.
We should be grateful that God enables us to face the situation.
We must be grateful that God is always with our family.
In particular, we can save Abet.

Lord, when my family and I were struggling to find something that needed solving, you helped us step by step. Even in the darkest of times, something glorious is waiting to explode in splendor. Lord, I could get so caught up in my situation that I forget to keep my eyes on you. Forgive my family and me, God. I was desperate when I was held captive these few days, God. I found hope that God never leaves my family and me. The troubles that my family and I are experiencing, God has finished. Praise be to God is so good. Amen.

Have you finished praying? Let's go back home to rest.

Sir, shouldn't we report to the police the case we are experiencing just now?

Hmmm, you pretend to teach our father who is also a police officer and or detective, right?

My husband are you okay? Come on, let me help you. You look tired.

You are very sensitive, my wife. Thank you, my wife. It looks like the kids have gone ahead.

Come here abet, I'll help you walk.

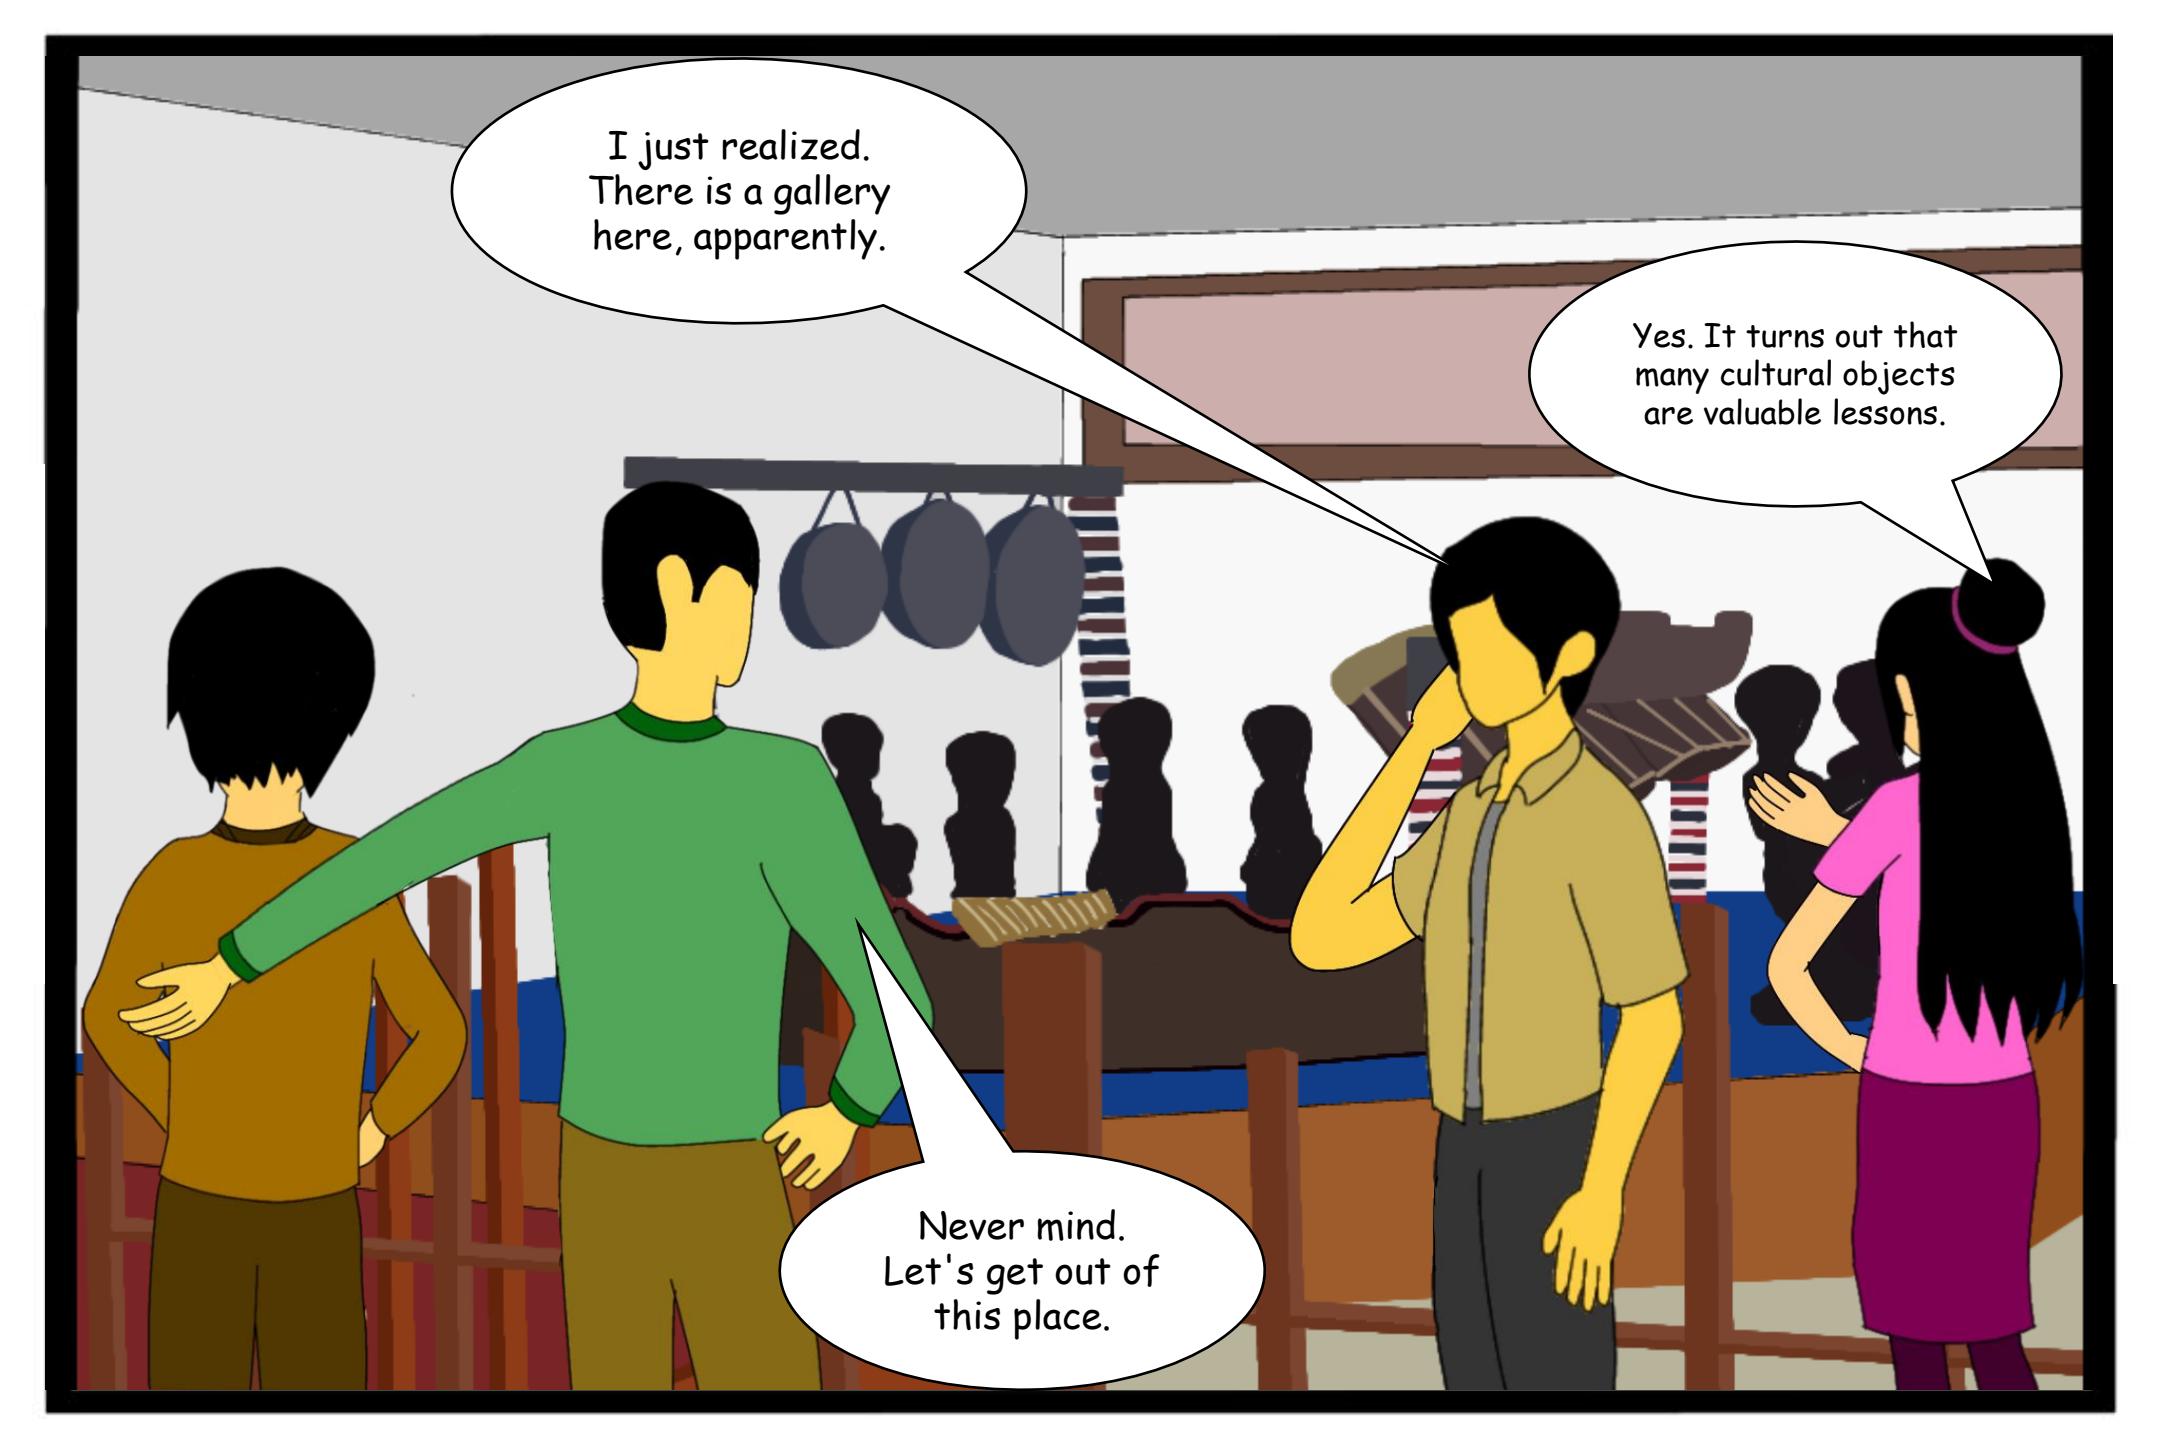

I'm glad to meet you. You have saved me. I want to get closer to the three of you. Make me your friend, okay?

You will know, that we are fun and brave friends.

Wow, I just realized.
It turns out that this church also has a gallery.
There are many things we can learn from here.

Never mind. You've just been stressed and going through a hard time..
At the right time, we will come here together while praying and enjoying the historical things on display.

I just realized.
There is a gallery here, apparently.

Yes. It turns out that many cultural objects are valuable lessons.

Never mind.
Let's get out of this place.

Due to the length of the incident, he didn't realize that it was already morning.

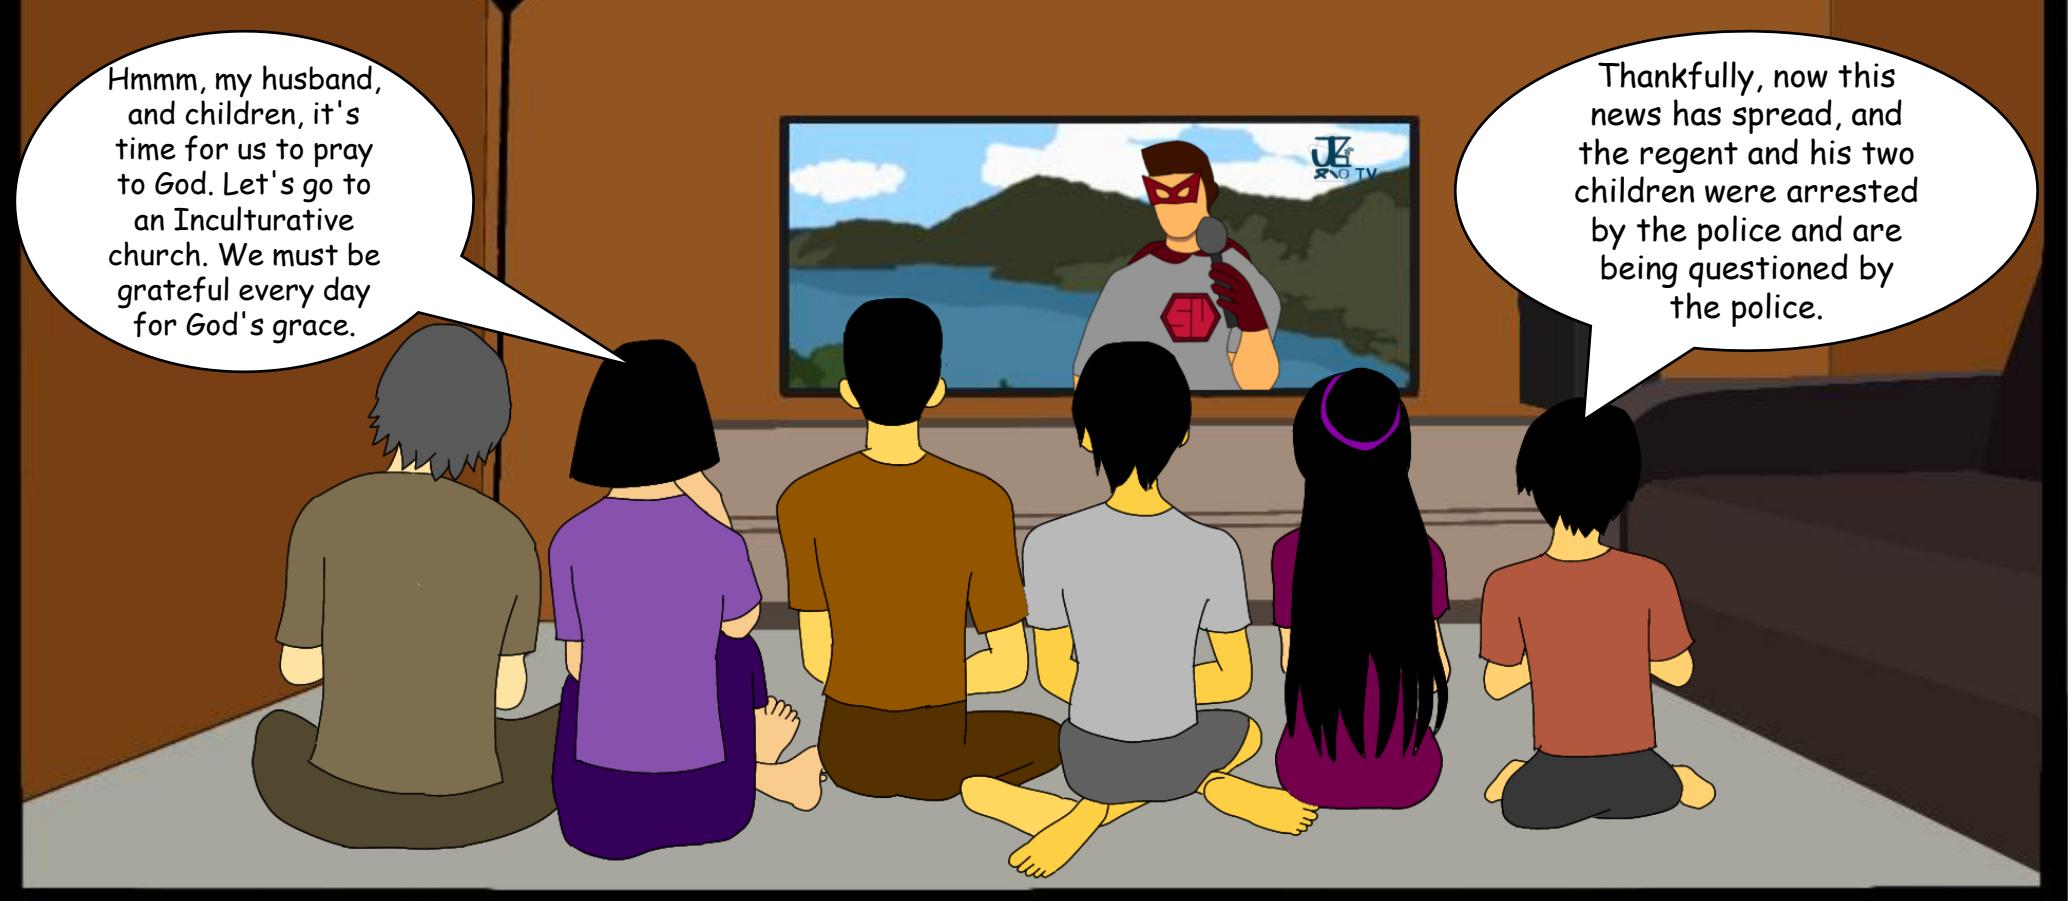

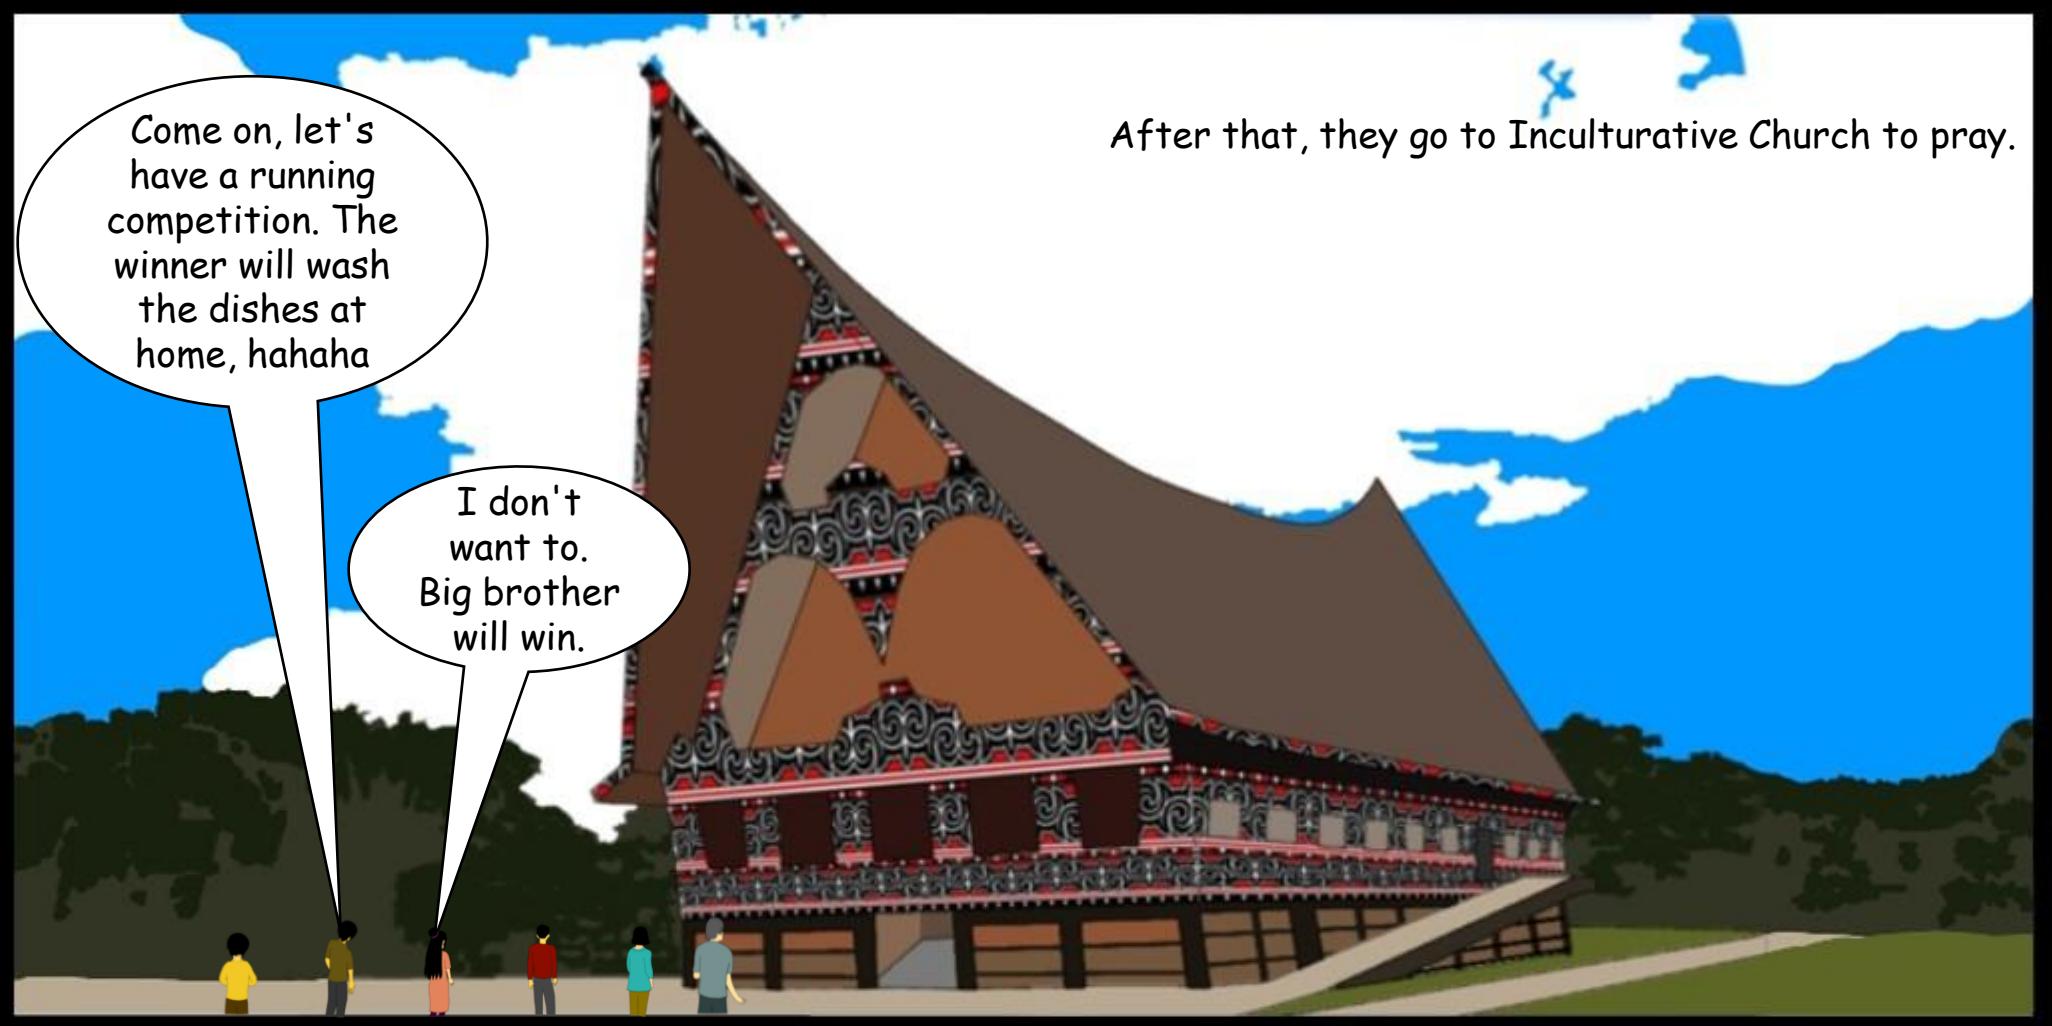

The next day, Maria immediately gave the reporter and published the news that had been spread to the public.

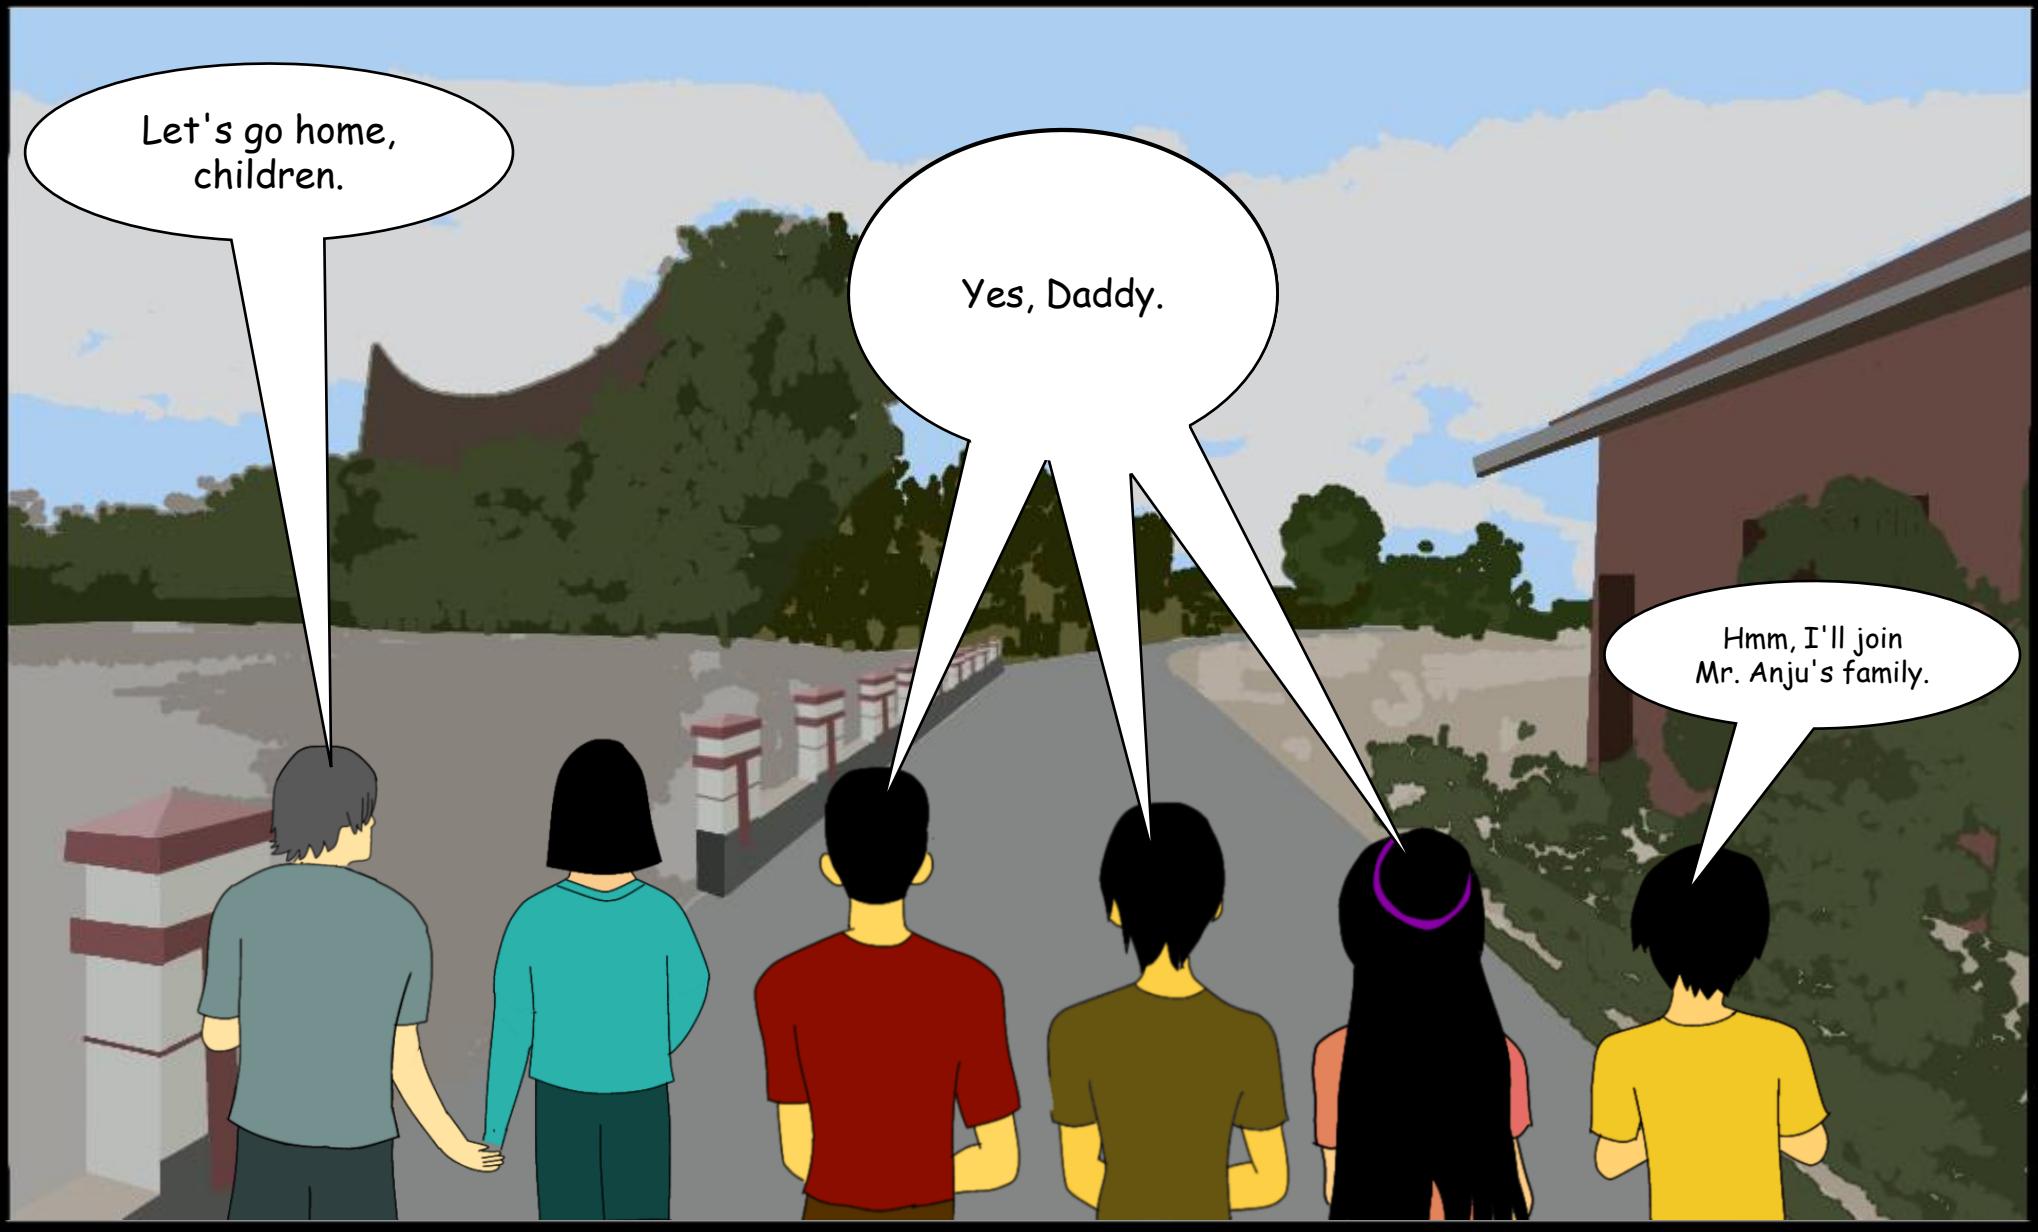

Come on, let's have a running competition. The winner will wash the dishes at home, hahaha

I don't want to. Big brother will win.

After that, they go to Inculturative Church to pray.

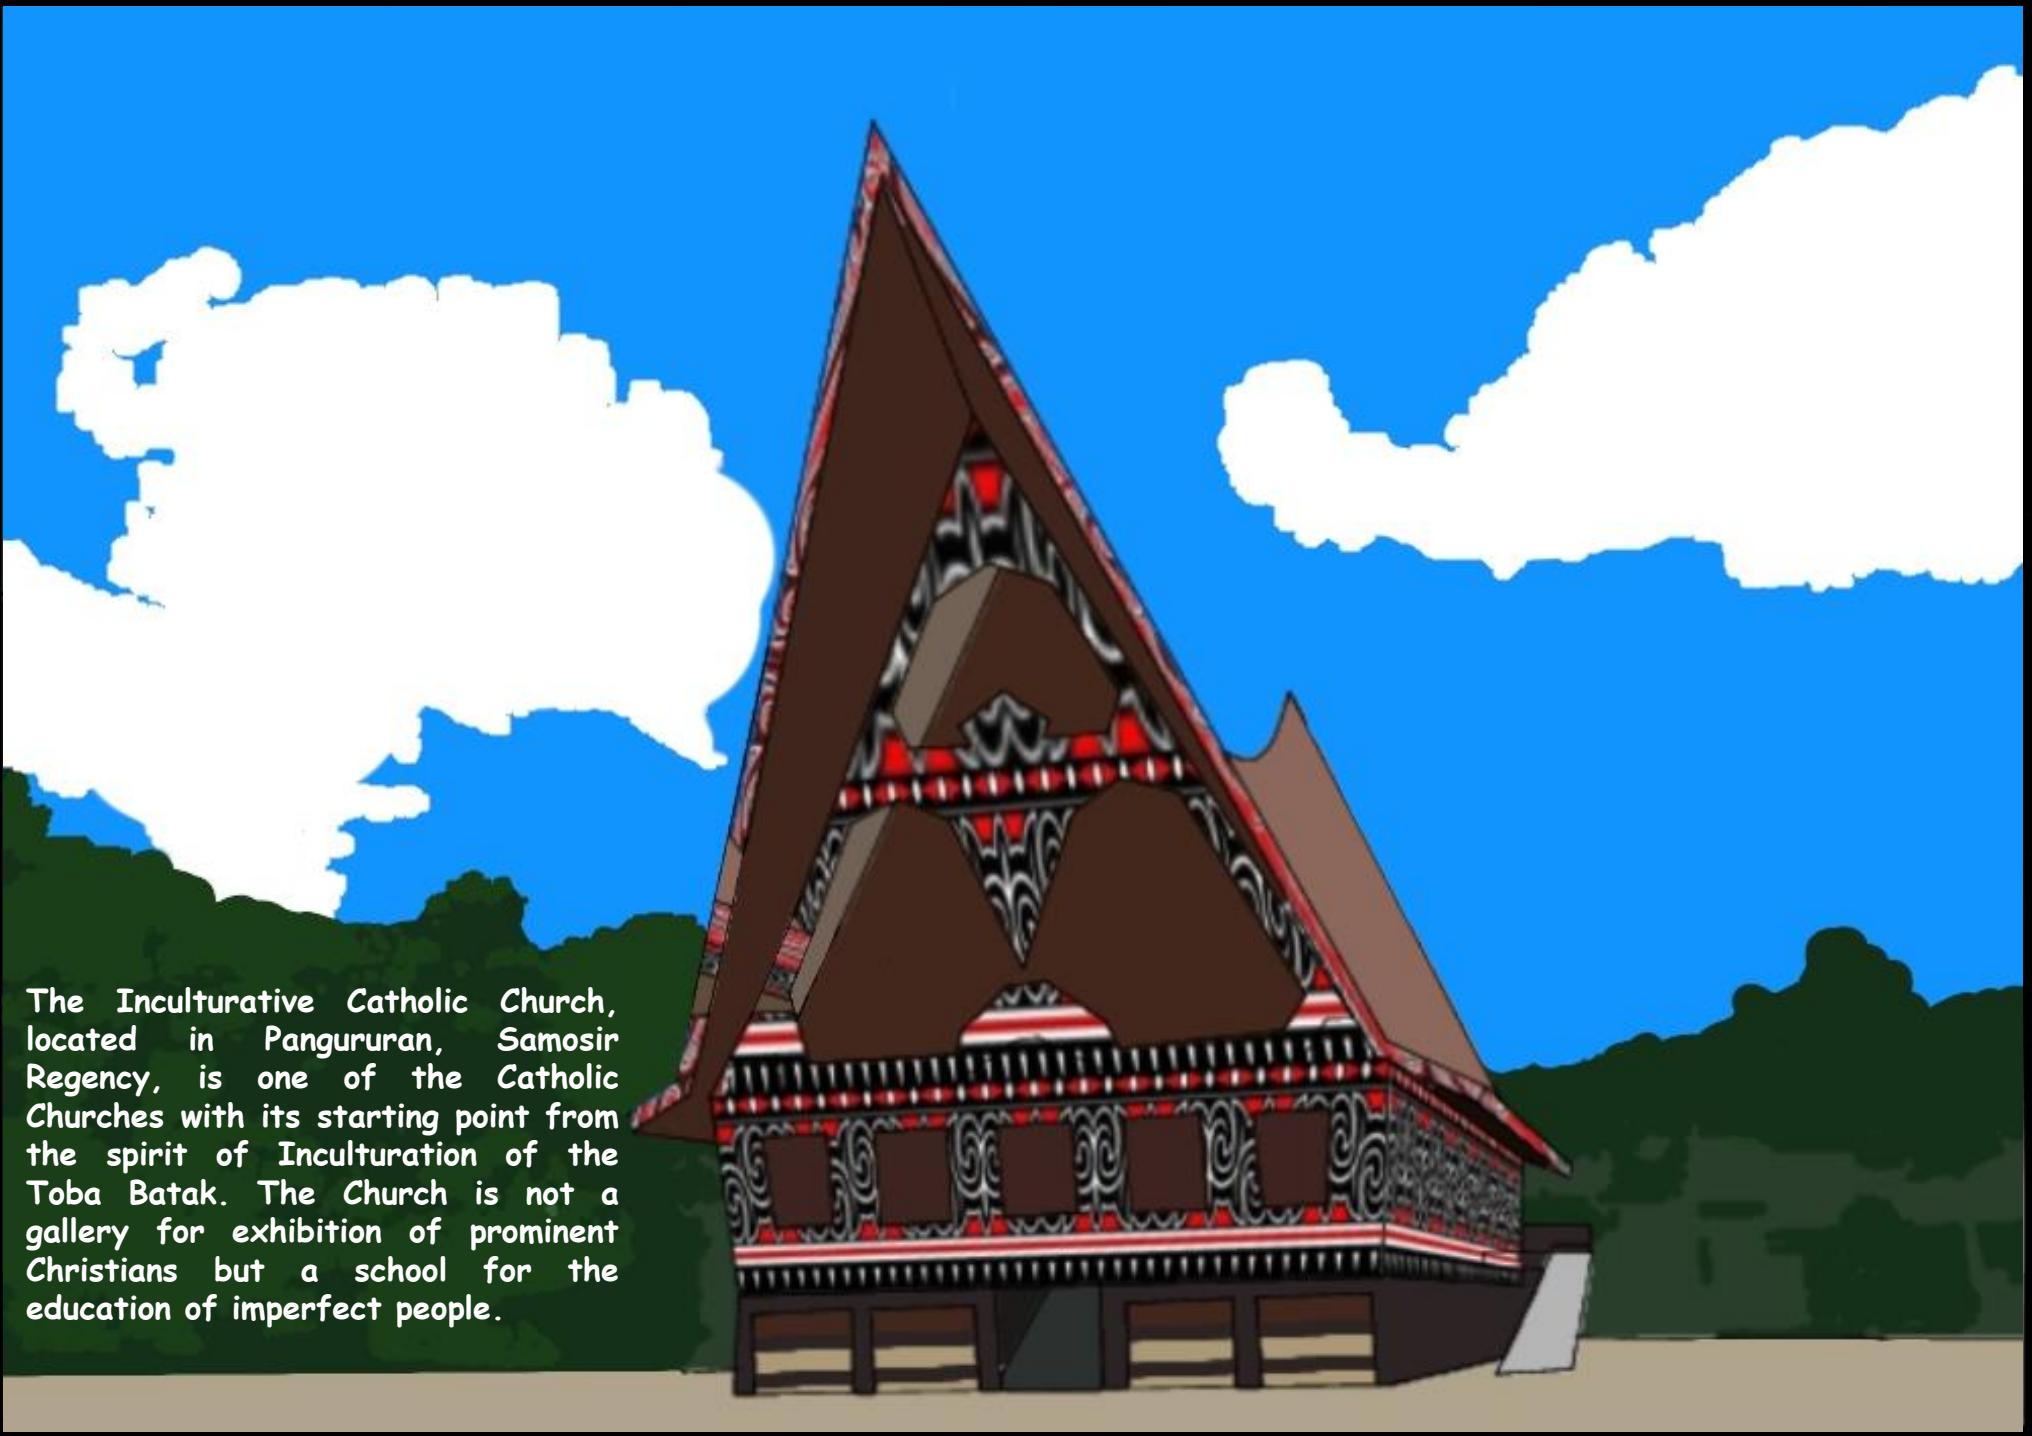

They also prayed solemnly.

Let's go home, children.

Yes, Daddy.

Hmm, I'll join
Mr. Anju's family.

The Inculturative Catholic Church, located in Pangururan, Samosir Regency, is one of the Catholic Churches with its starting point from the spirit of Inculturation of the Toba Batak. The Church is not a gallery for exhibition of prominent Christians but a school for the education of imperfect people.
