

TRAVEL TO THE LIBERTY MALAU
STRUGGLE MONUMENT.

It's to Glimpse what Life is like somewhere else

One day in 2035

Nia, tomorrow we will go to Japan for business. It's sudden because there is a problem that occurred. We expected this to happen to something other than dad's business. Be careful at home, and take care of the house too.

Do my parents remember that I have my 17th birthday tomorrow? I am very disappointed.

It's okay, mom and dad. Relax, and of course, I can take good care of myself.

The next day, after returning from campus, Nia went home.

Huh, so tired after returning to campus like this. I was in a bad mood
because I was alone at home on my birthday.

Suddenly Nia's parents came singing the birthday song and brought a birthday cake.

Suddenly the whole room was frozen. His parents were like statues and didn't move.

Mom, dad, I'm done
blowing out the candles.
Huh, mom, dad, why are
you silent?

Mom, dad?

Due to confusion, shock, and crying, Nia fainted.

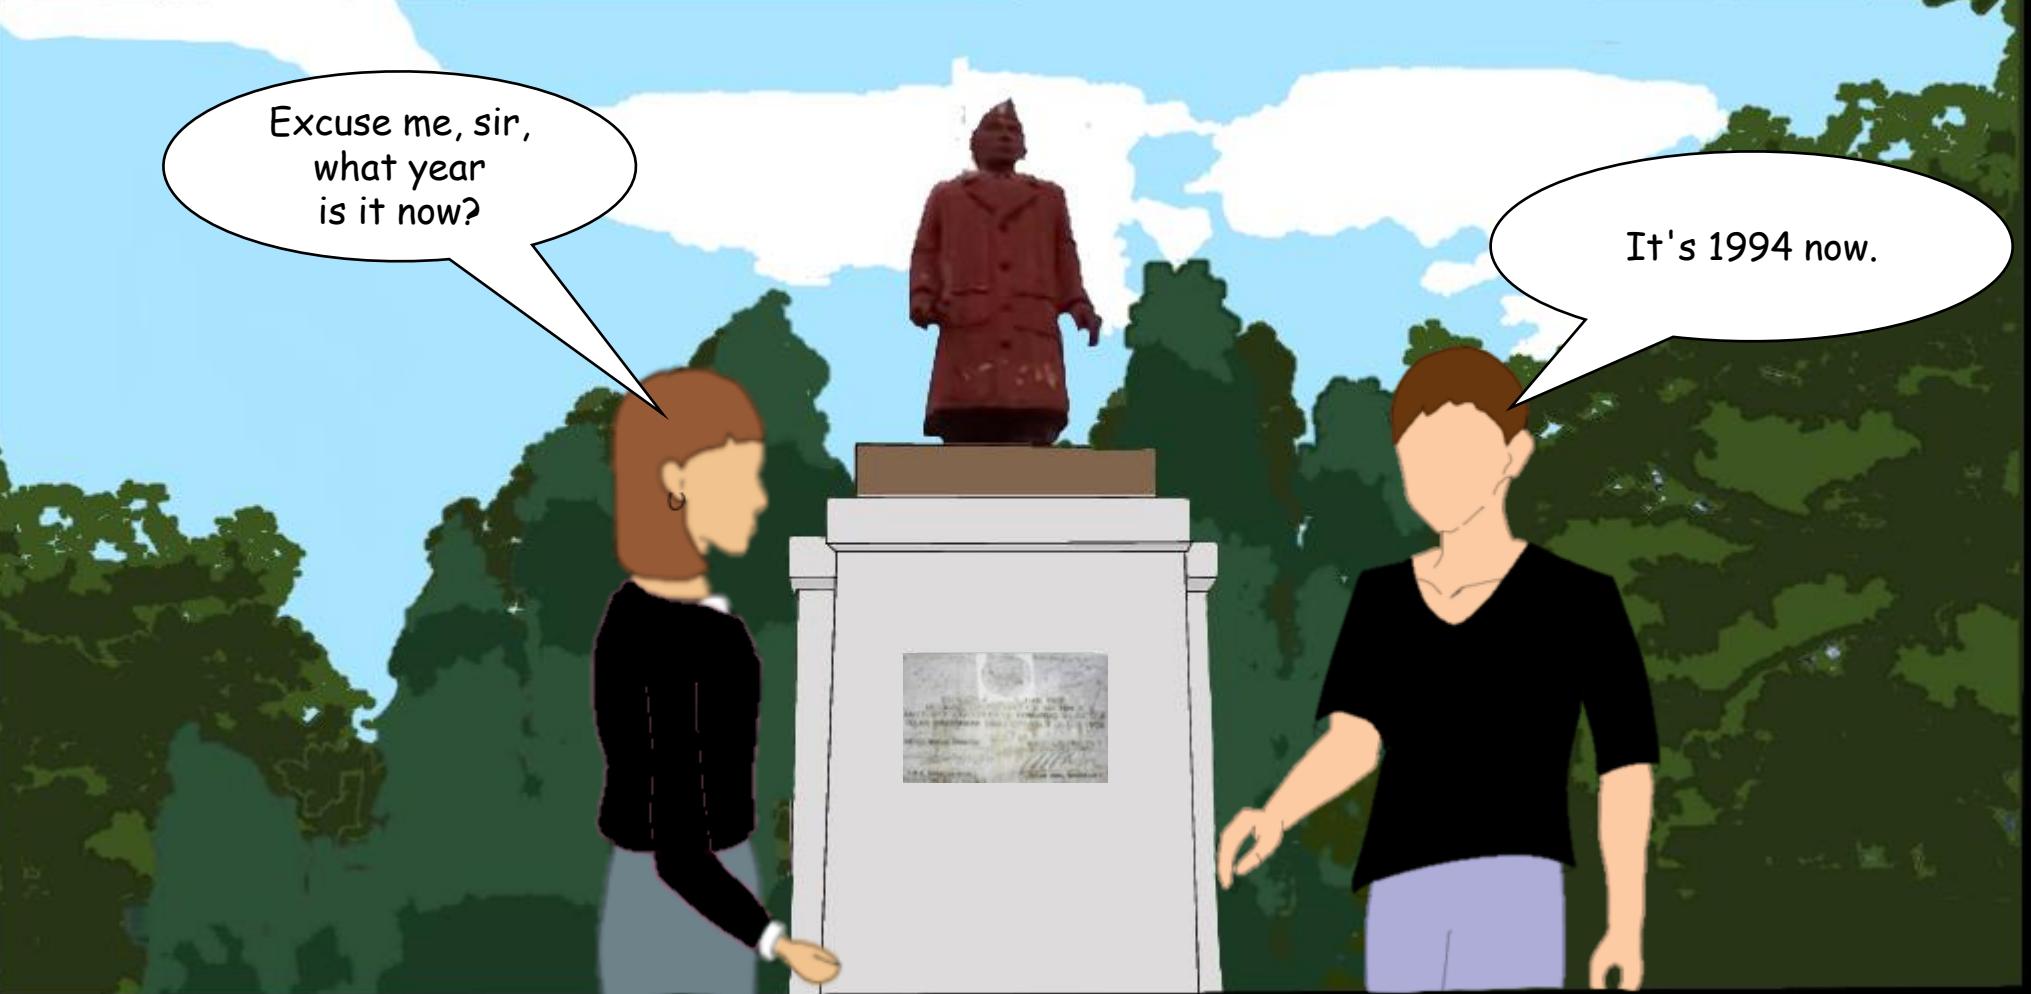

Ouch, my head is so dizzy.

Huh? Isn't this the Liberty Malau Struggle Monument? How did I get here?

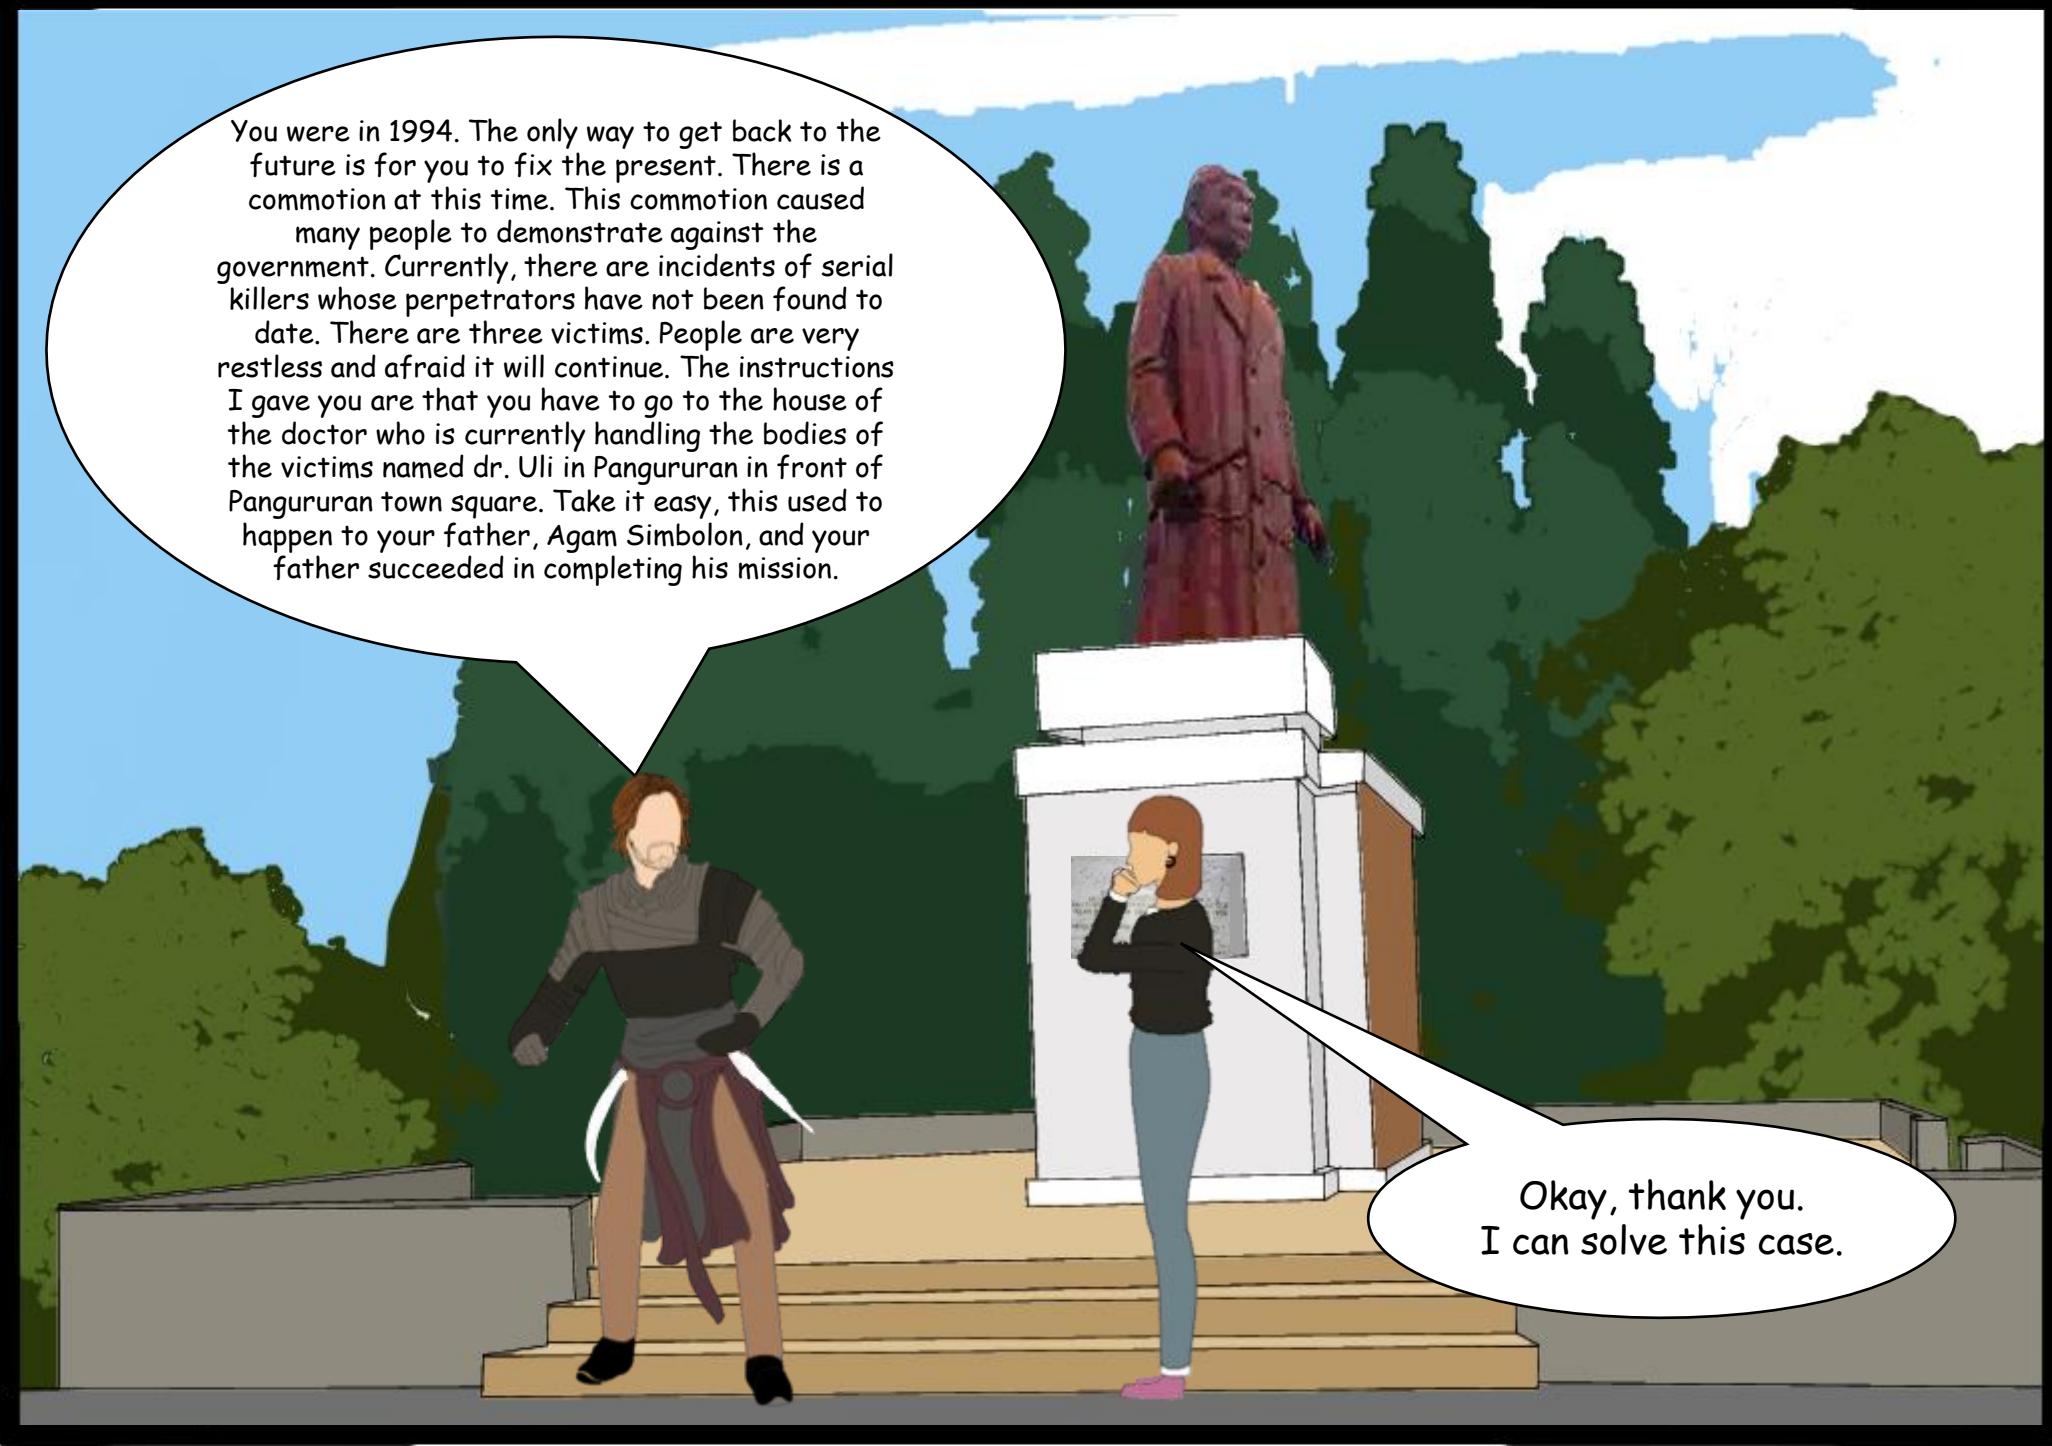

The atmosphere is extraordinary old.

Excuse me, sir,
what year
is it now?

It's 1994 now.

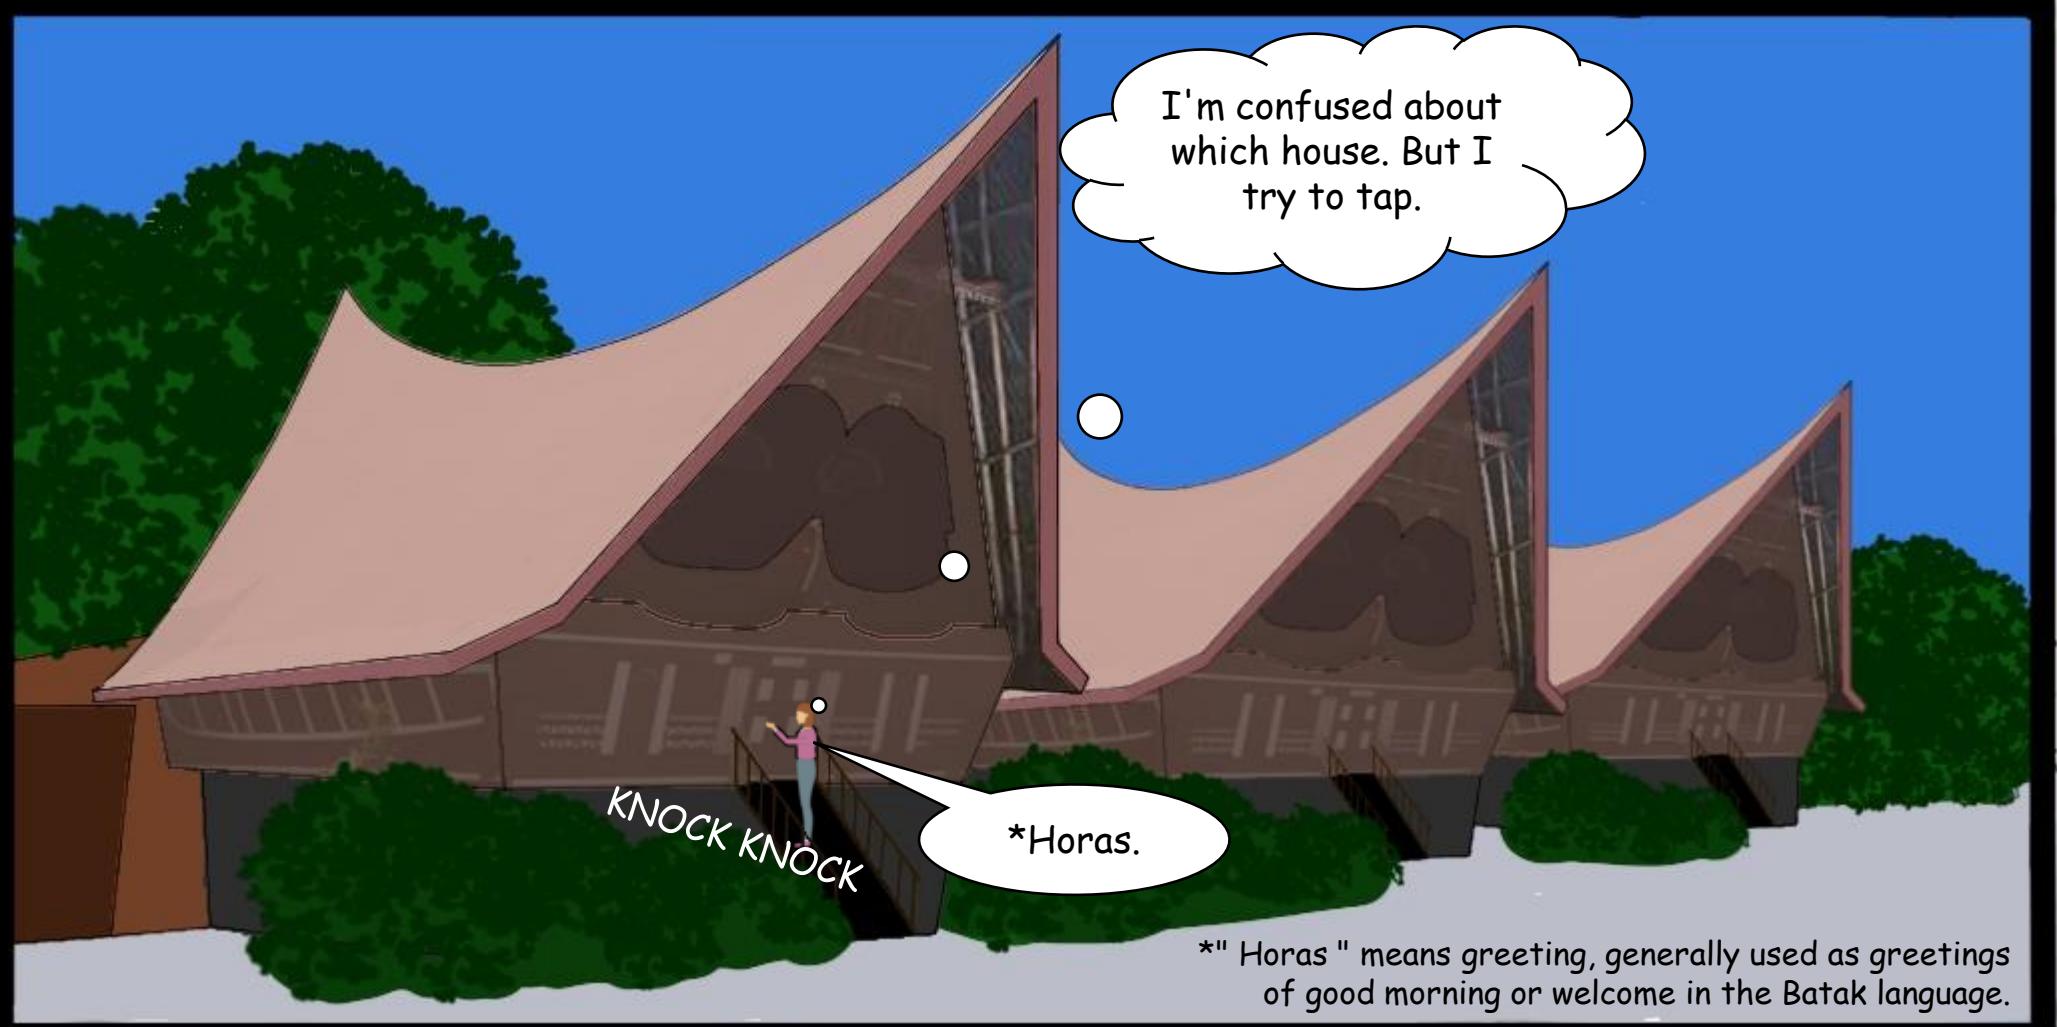

You were in 1994. The only way to get back to the future is for you to fix the present. There is a commotion at this time. This commotion caused many people to demonstrate against the government. Currently, there are incidents of serial killers whose perpetrators have not been found to date. There are three victims. People are very restless and afraid it will continue. The instructions I gave you are that you have to go to the house of the doctor who is currently handling the bodies of the victims named dr. Uli in Pangururan in front of Pangururan town square. Take it easy, this used to happen to your father, Agam Simbolon, and your father succeeded in completing his mission.

Okay, thank you.
I can solve this case.

Horas, dr. Uli. I'm Nia.
I want to ask about
the recent murders.
What happened? and
how are the victims?

All the victims were found in front of the Statue of Liberty Malau. All of the victims' arms were marked with the symbol of the Statue of Liberty Malau. The emblem given on the victim's arm is like a burn. This symbol was created using heated iron. It is still unknown what the criteria for victims are and who will be the next victims. But the victims are one family, not close relatives but like distant cousins.

I need help understanding this case. This is the first I've heard of this case. I need some clarification. Are there no other instructions?

Humm, I'm from out of town and still need to get a place to live here. Later I will look for a place that can stay around here.

Nia, if you don't have a place yet, you can stay temporarily at my house. No problem.

Wow, all right. Thank you very much, dr. Uli. Sorry if I'm a bother.

The next day they went to RSUD DR Hadrianus Sinaga Hospital

Doc, can I see the biodata of the victims? Not for long.

Of course, you can. Later I will give it to you.

Thank you so much, dr. Uli.

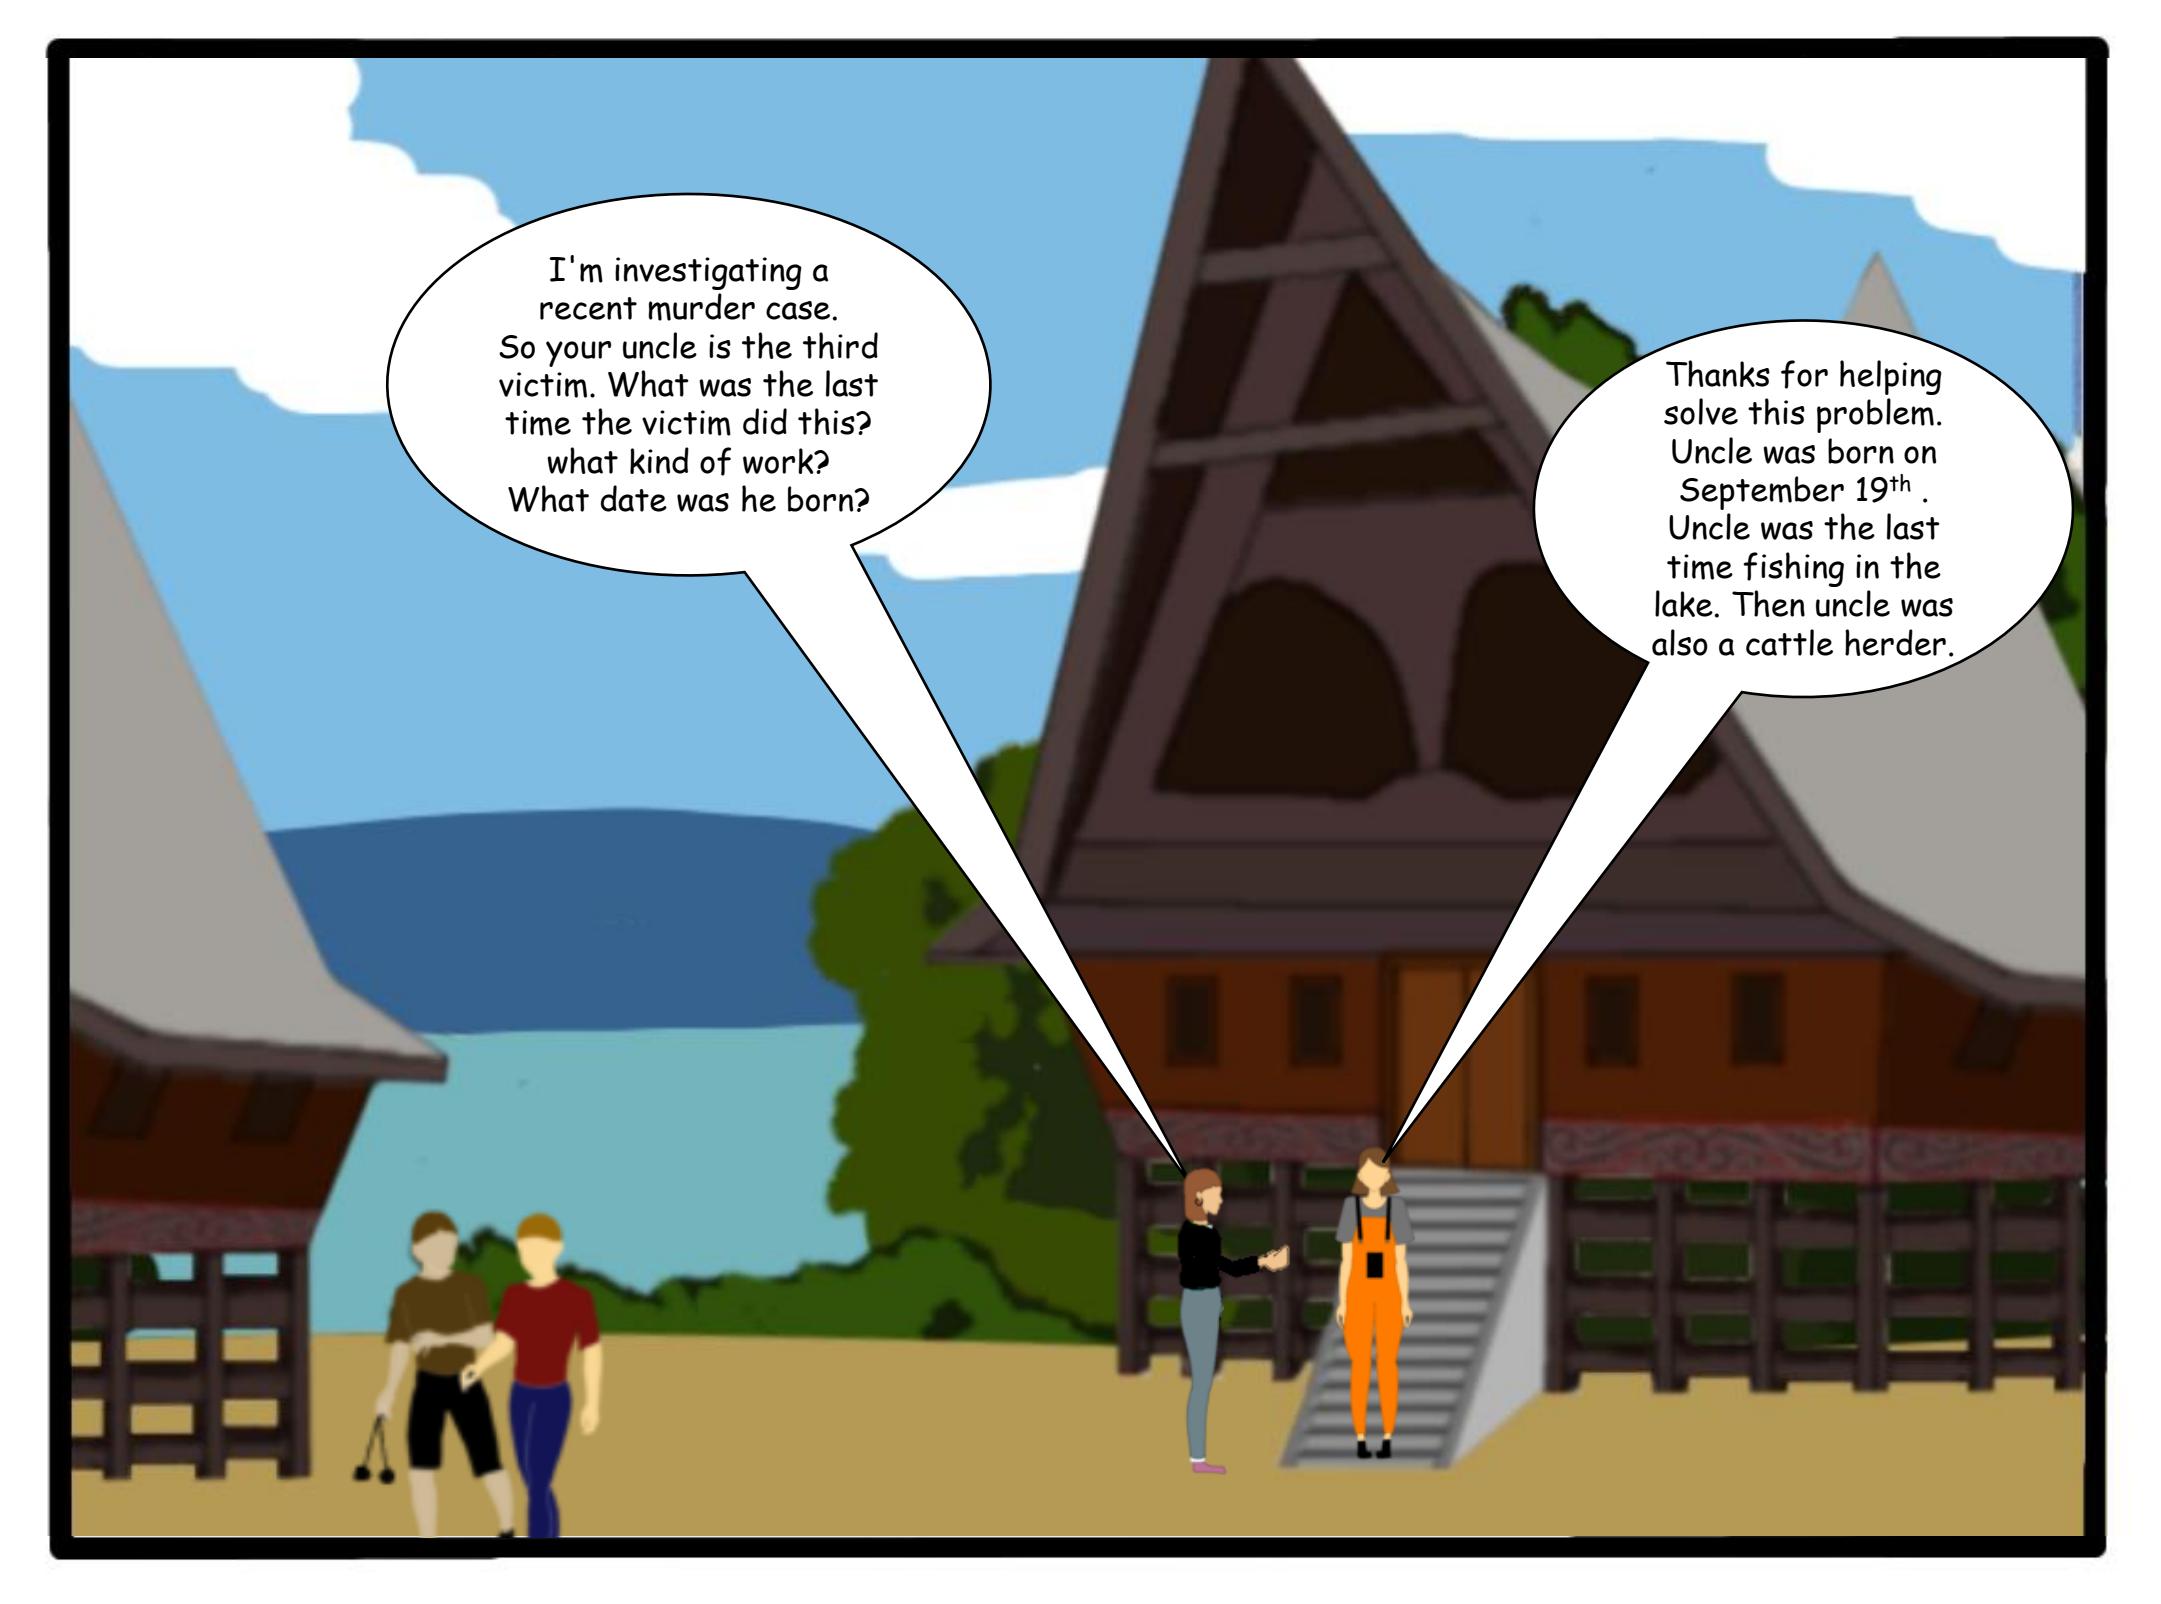

You can look at the biodata of the victims first. I have to go back to work. When it's done, you can return it home.

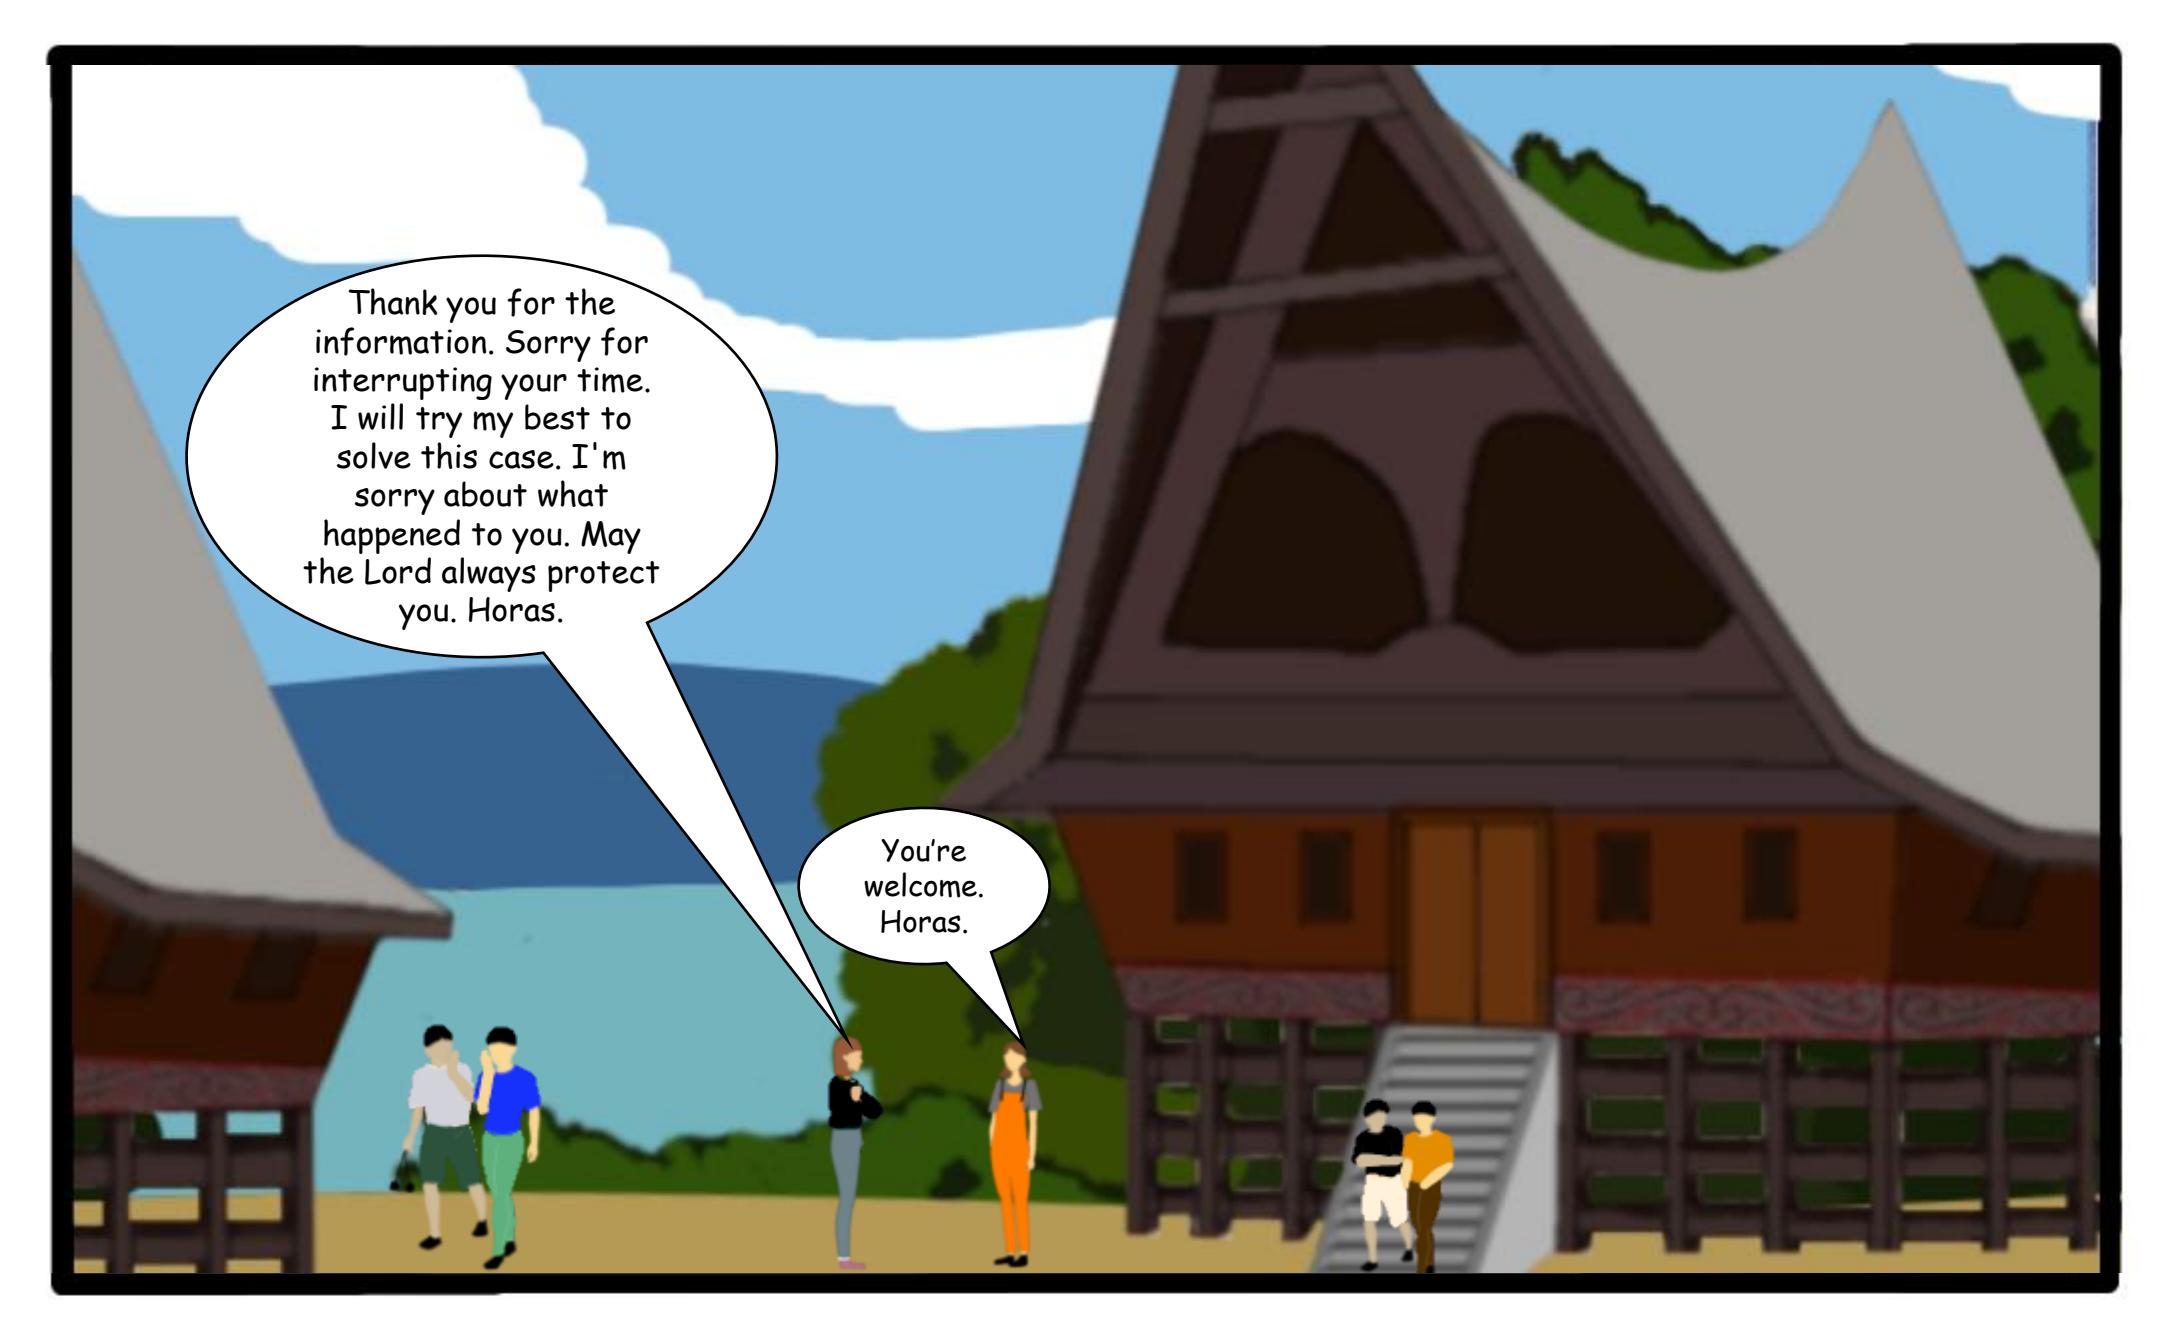

Horas, Sis.
Is it true that this is Inala Siregar's house?

Horas, Sis.
That's right.
I'm Inala Siregar.
What need do you have, Sis?

I'm investigating a recent murder case. So your uncle is the third victim. What was the last time the victim did this? what kind of work? What date was he born?

Thanks for helping solve this problem. Uncle was born on September 19th. Uncle was the last time fishing in the lake. Then uncle was also a cattle herder.

Thank you for the information. Sorry for interrupting your time. I will try my best to solve this case. I'm sorry about what happened to you. May the Lord always protect you. Horas.

You're welcome.
Horas.

Hmm... According to the information I got, it could be a pattern of murder.

The first victim died on the 2nd, the second victim died on the 5th, and the third victim was born on the 19th. All three have clan and Boru Siregar.

Hemm, as I recall, the date the Liberty Malau Struggle Monument was inaugurated was May 2, 1992. Of course, the 4th victim that the killer is currently targeting is someone born in 92 or who will die on the 9th or 2nd of March. Huh? Isn't today, March 2nd?! I'm afraid I guessed right that there would be a fourth victim today. I have to rush straight to Liberty Malau Struggle Monument Park.

The perpetrator is also strange. What's wrong with Liberty Malau Park? Why are all the incidents related to the situation in this park?

Precisely that's what I keep thinking, doctor. I hope the police can quickly resolve the series of incidents related to this park.

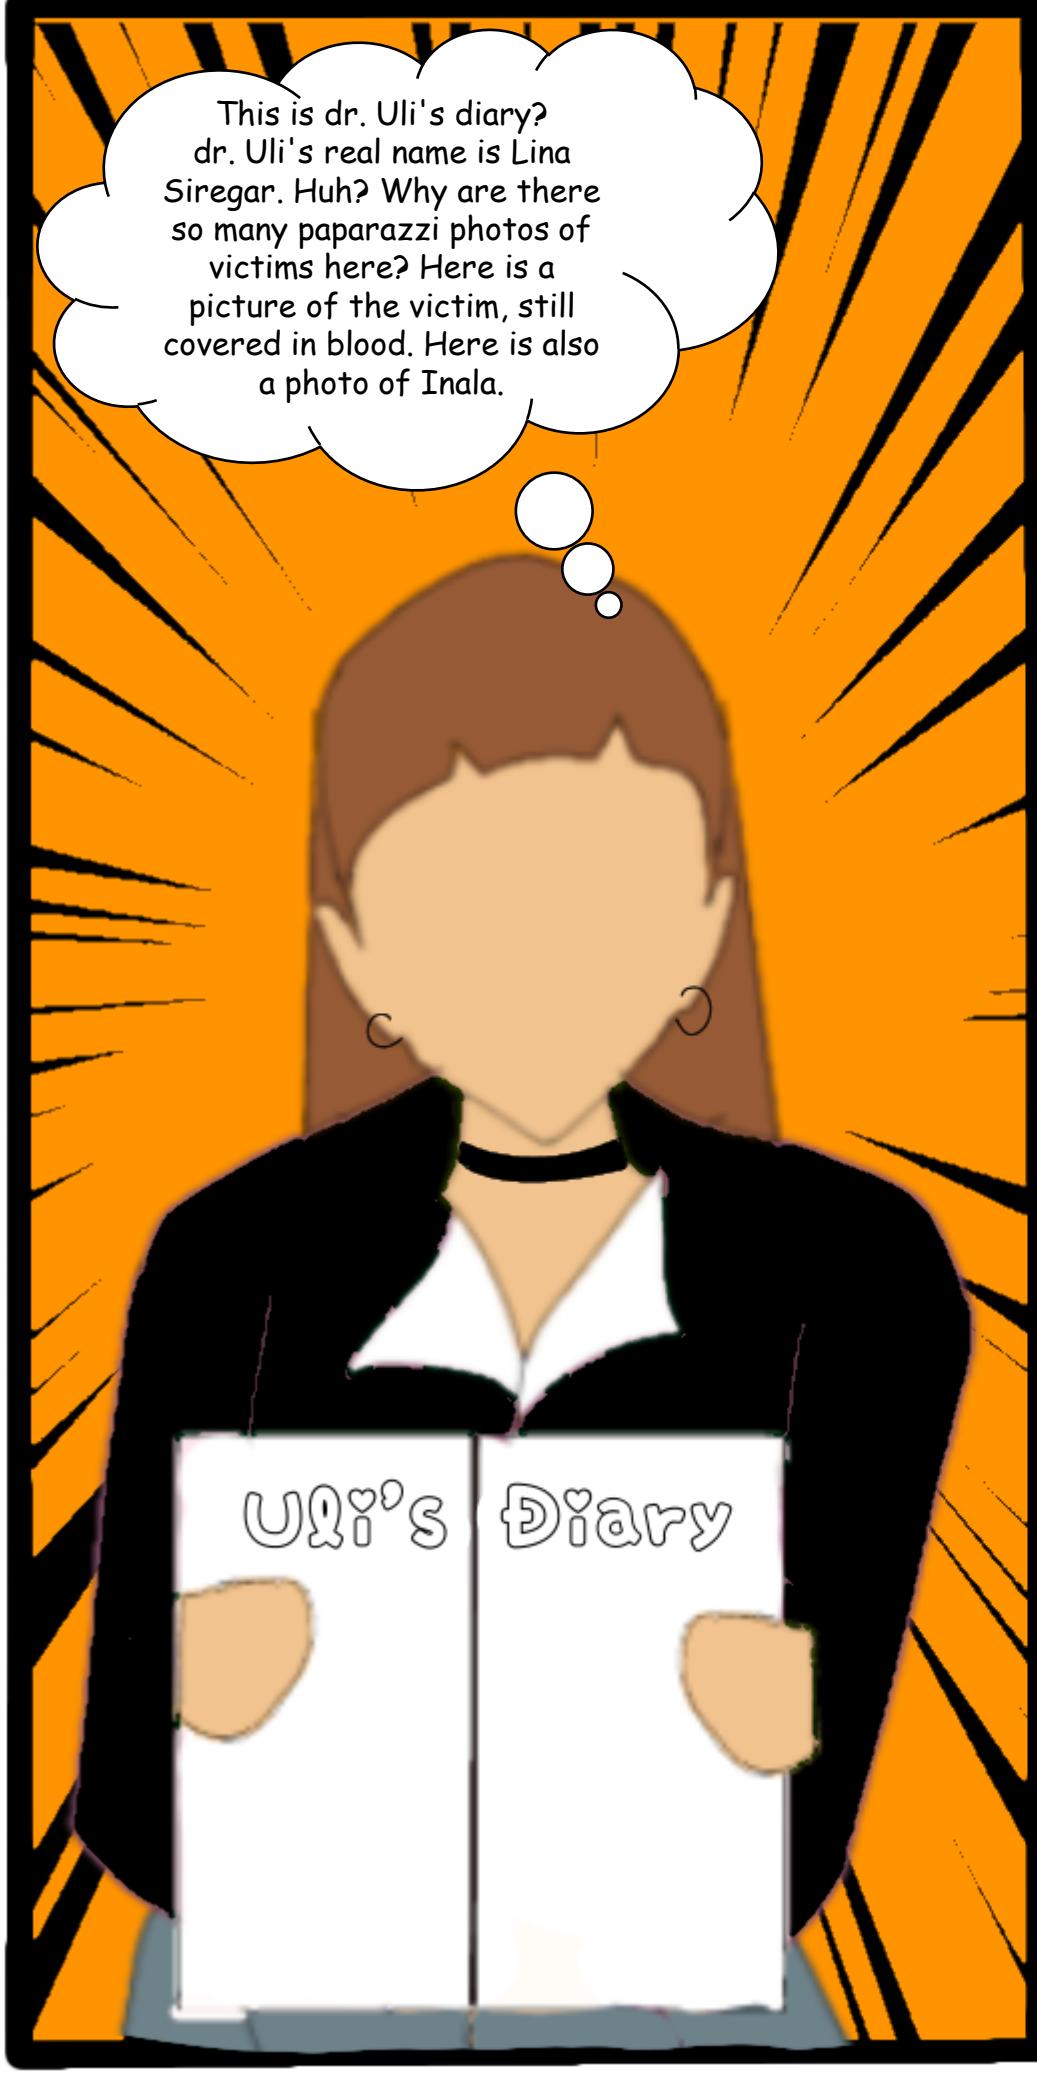

The next day, after dr. Uli said he would go to the hospital.

Huh? What's
under this chair?

Huh? a diary?

This is dr. Uli's diary?
dr. Uli's real name is Lina Siregar. Huh? Why are there so many paparazzi photos of victims here? Here is a picture of the victim, still covered in blood. Here is also a photo of Inala.

Never mind, the next victim is Inala. I have to go save Inala.
Inala must have wanted to be killed. I have to hurry to Liberty Malau Park. And I have to immediately call the police to go straight to the Liberty Malau Park.

Nia Simbolon immediately ran to the Liberty Malau Park.

Ouchhhh... My feet tripped... Maybe it's because I'm so nervous about what will happen...

Nia called the police on her way to the Liberty Malau Park.

Policeman Pangururan, I've been around the Liberty Malau Park. Where are you? I'm apprehensive. Murder will happen again. We must try to prevent harmful events from happening again.

There were already quite a few people crowding inside the garden. I have to hurry to The Liberty Malau Park.

Yes, Nia... I didn't expect to be the next victim to be targeted.

Inala, I'm grateful that the Police could find out about this incident immediately.

Wow, it turns out you are aware of me, Nia. I made a fatal mistake by accidentally putting my diary in your living room.

I don't understand why doctors are like this. I didn't expect the doctor to be such a cruel person. Policeman, please arrest her immediately.

I'm okay, Nia. Thank you for saving me.

Are you okay, Inala?

Suddenly, the figure of Daurio Naharize, the Dutch superhero, appears.

Wow, congratulations on solving this case, Nia. As promised, I will send you back to 2035.

Thank you,
Daurio Naharize.

Nia, you have become a hero in Liberty Malau Park. You've managed to find an unpredictable criminal before. Just because someone stumbles and loses their way doesn't mean they are lost forever.

Daurio Naharize,
hurry up...
Send me home now.
I miss my parents.

Then Nia returns to 2035

Mom, dad, let's eat the cake together.

Yes, of course, honey.

The Liberty Malau Struggle Monument in Pangururan proves that every struggle never has an end. We all live in tension, from moment to moment, from day to day. In other words, we are the heroes of our own stories.
