

A Trip To

White sand beach

PARABA

One day a gang is gathering around the city of Medan.

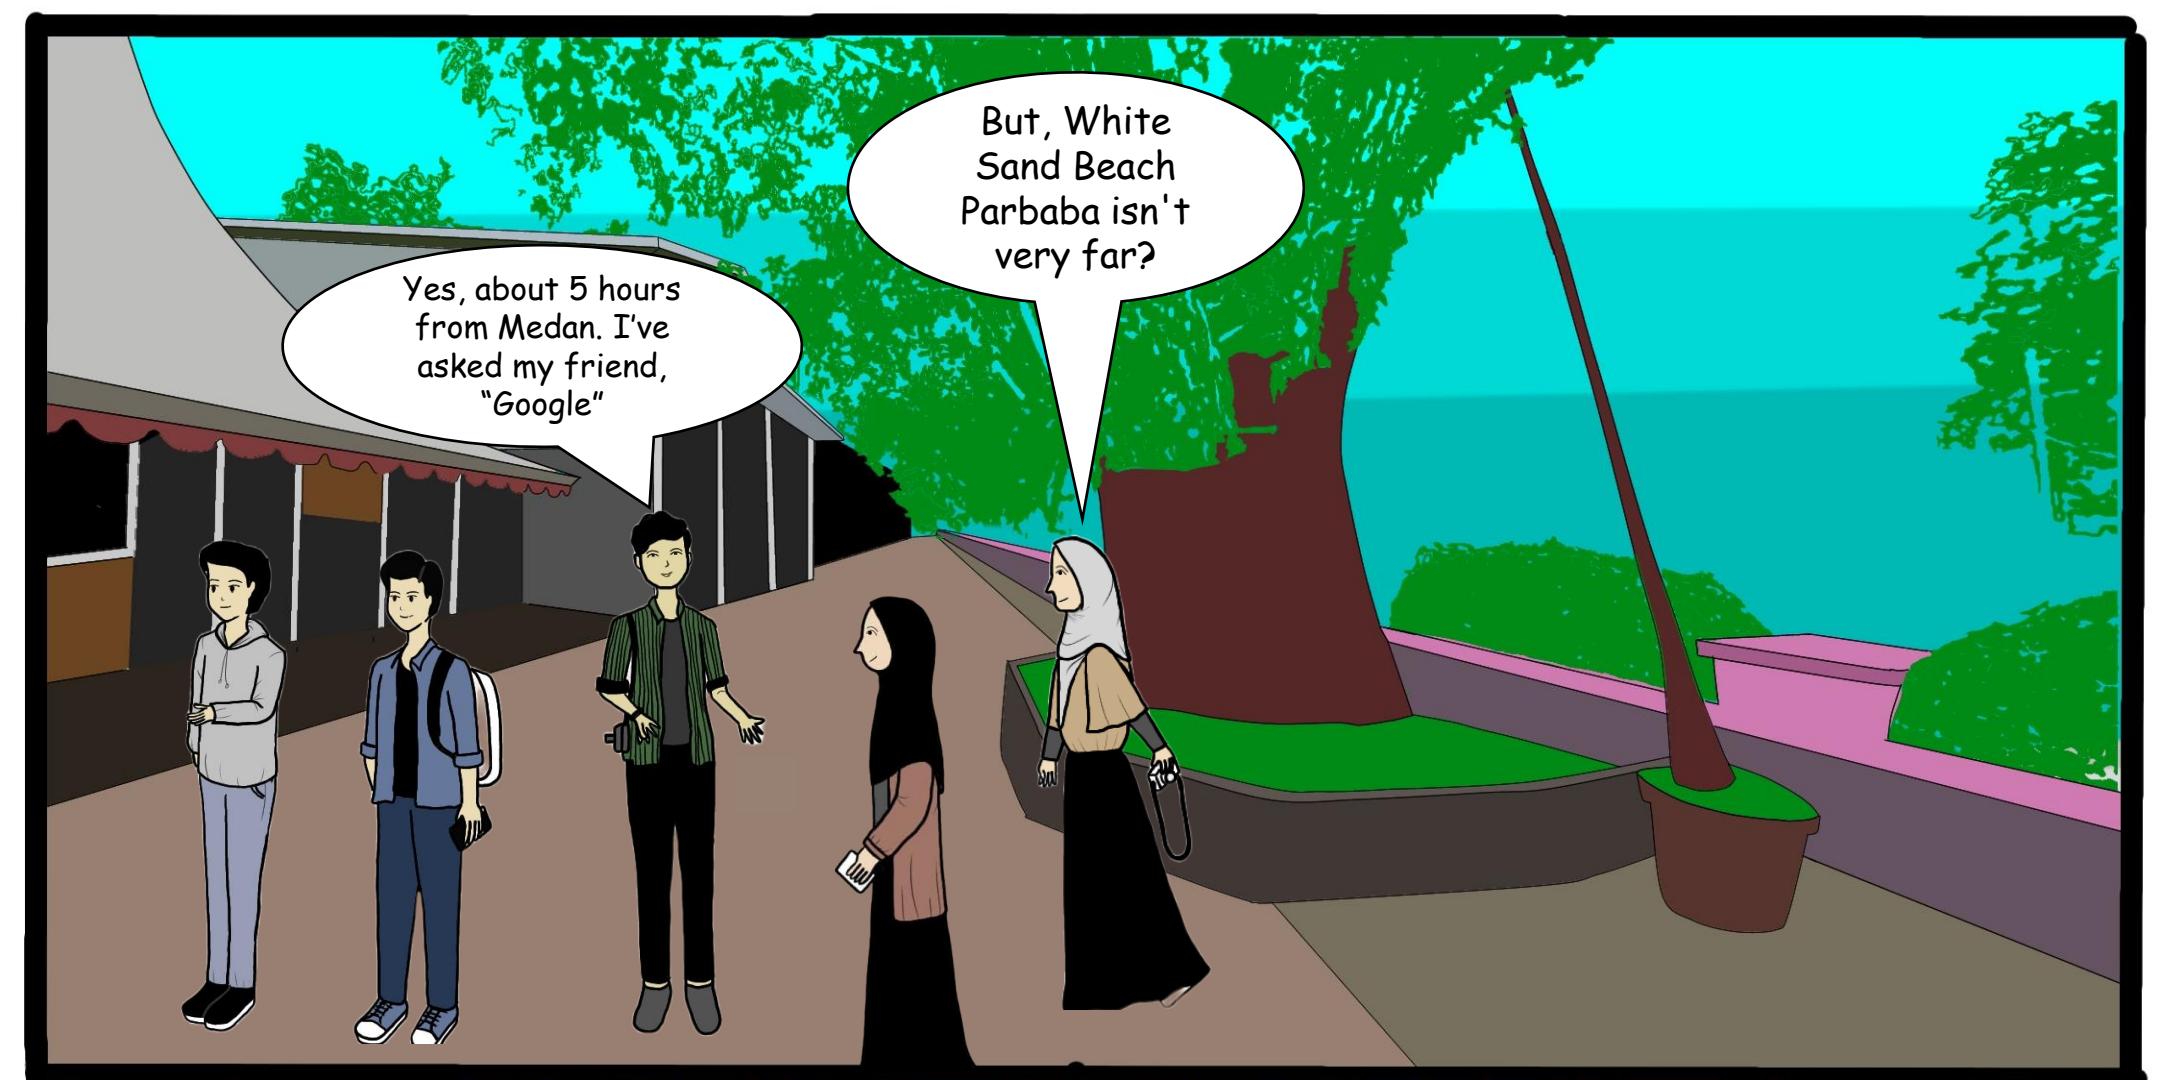

Huft. every day is hot.
Is earth now the closest planet to the sun? It is very hot today.
And now it's stuck,
see the air traffic is not jammed.
Does the government not provide subsidies to provide flying motorbikes so that they don't get stuck in traffic jams again?

The Merdeka Park
is being revitalized to its function as a Public Open Space

You're just imagining. No one will give you a flying motorbike.
Try it yourself.

I think Indri is just talking nonsense, Alea.
But there's some truth to that too.
I feel very bored.

Yes, about 5 hours from Medan. I've asked my friend, "Google"

But, White Sand Beach Parbaba isn't very far?

How about the route?

The route used by Tebing Tinggi, Siantar, Parapat, Ambarita. But don't be afraid, don't panic seeing distant, guys. White Sand Beach Parbaba offers extraordinary beauty. This lake has a stretch of white sand that is in stark contrast to the water! So, we have to capture the beach moment as a background for taking pictures so as to produce very beautiful images for Instagram posts! and especially the white sand beach is not only beautiful during the day, but also when the sun goes down isn't it? We have to spend time in the late afternoon to see the beauty of the sunset below the horizon line.

Wow, sunset! Usually sunset is associated with romantic moments, so seeing the sunset with your partner is the best choice. You're single, sorry!

Are you kidding me right now, Al?! You are also single. Don't make it up.

Don't fight anymore.
I watched, as if there was a fire between us.

So it's very hot. This situation actually makes my soul become tired.
I thought, it's right for us to go to the beach, because maybe on the beach the differences in thinking between us can subside. Hopefully the travel situation that we will experience at the beach makes our emotions better and calmer.

Wow, they will always fight everywhere.
Oh yeah, so everyone agrees if we go to the White Sand
Beach Parbaba?

Agree,
Arif!

No way. We have to pack clothes. We will find many tourist attractions in that place. Naturally, we have to prepare everything.

What if we leave tonight?!

How about 2 days later?

Alright!

On the day of the trip,
A few hours later.

Oh yeah, that's right. Impatient. Then how about we have lunch before continuing? I am very hungry.

Nice idea!

Hey guys, my brother has a halal restaurant near here. We can eat there. The name of the place is "Rumah Makan Sederhana". They sell the famous soto there.

Yes! Eat!

After eating.

Wow, looks like I'm getting fatter and my stomach is starting to grow because the food there is delicious and I've increased the portions.

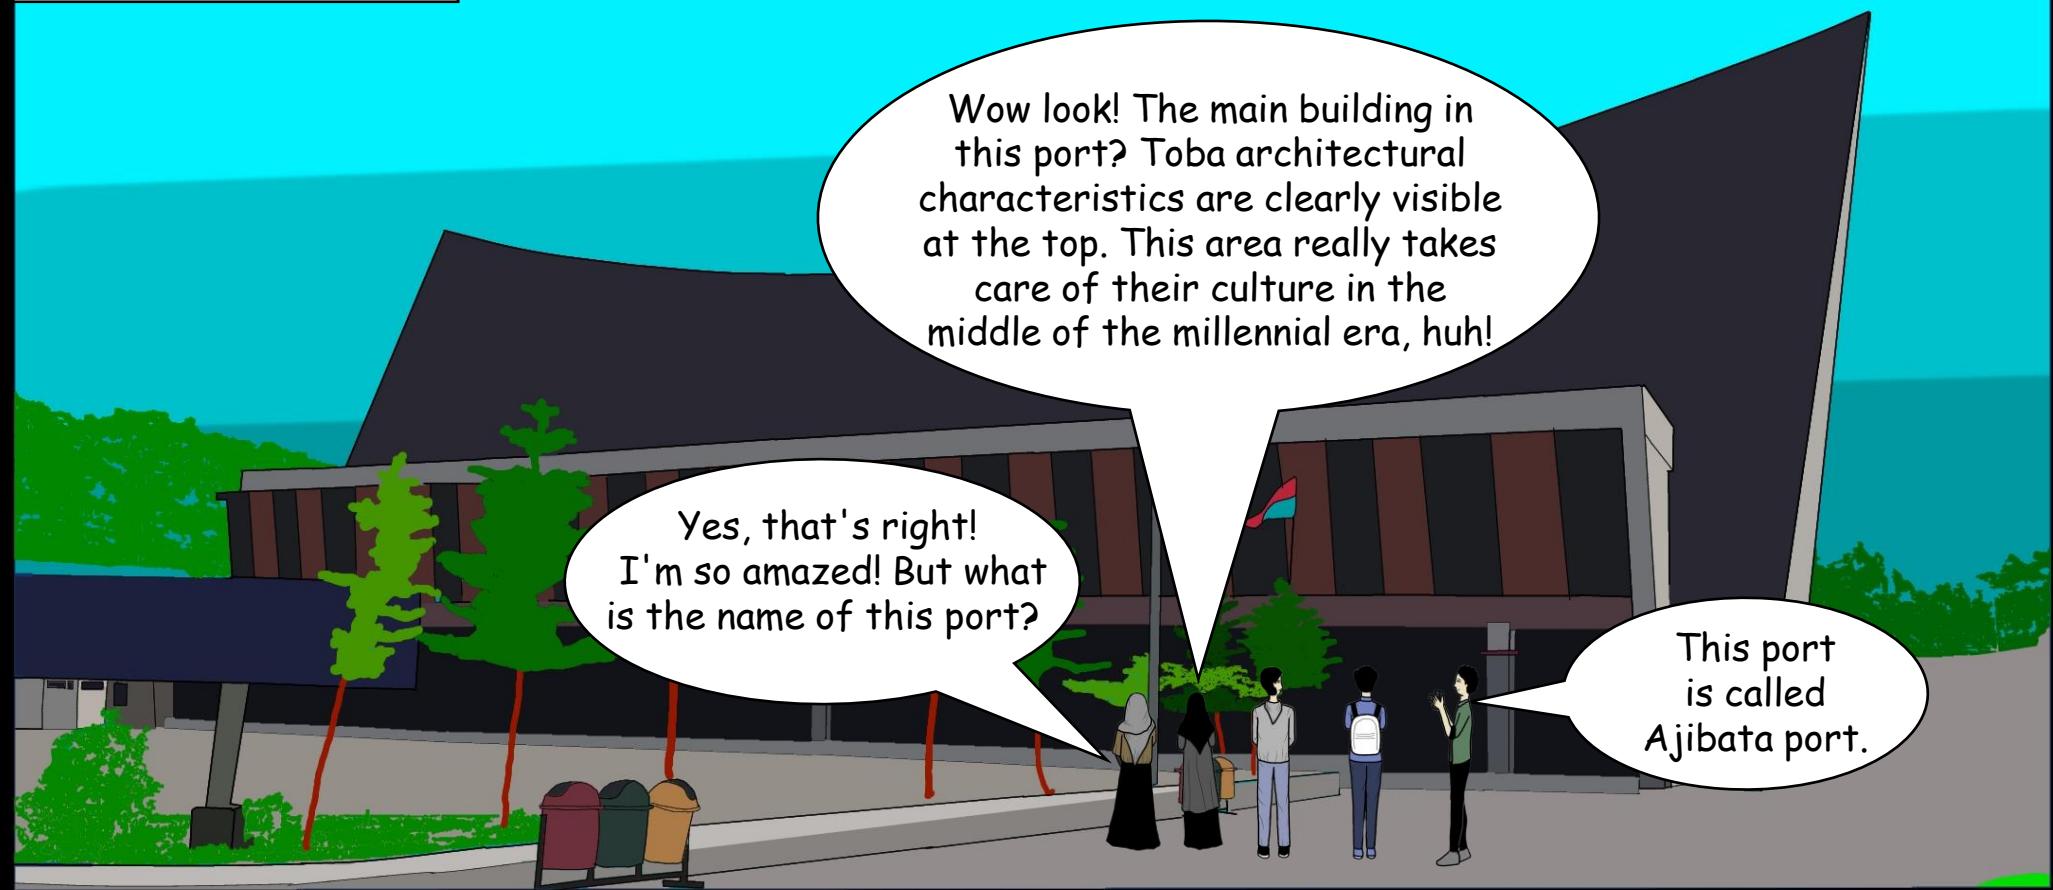

No matter how much you eat, you'll never get fat either, Al. Hahaha.

Hahaha

Halal food right here!

Let's continue our journey.

After arriving at the port

Oh yes. But the queue here is very long. Today is not a weekend and a holiday but a lot of visitors, huh?

Guys, Alea and I bought tickets first, you guys wait in the car.

Come on, Indri!

Let's go up first to buy the tickets!

Look at that.
Isn't that an AI?

Yes it is. But the movement is very smooth. I think it's good for tourists because tourists don't just come from the local. The AI can speak any language.

Wow, that's cool, it turns out that the counter here has lots of room for staff. The facilities look complete.

I am AI.
Please queue to buy tickets.

It doesn't look too long to queue to buy tickets.
Come on, after that person, it's our turn to buy tickets.

Alright!

This is so cool,
from here we can see the port!

Yes, that's right!
It turned out that the port was bigger than I thought.

After buying the tickets

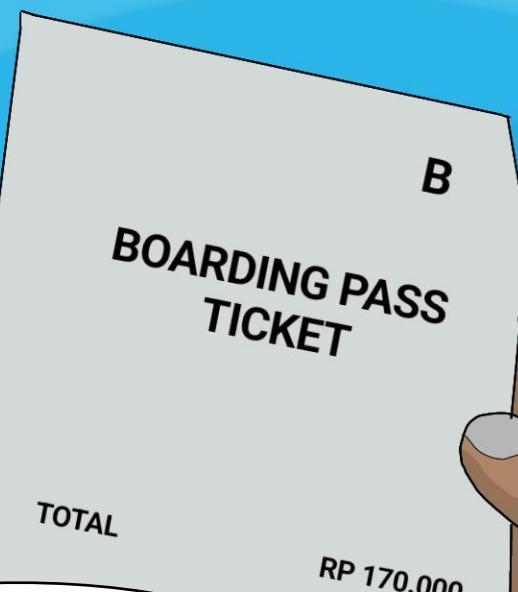

Wow guys, look at that!
There's a blue whale that people ride here.
Wow, this is the first time I've seen it live.
Usually, I've seen it on TV.

But can it also be climbed by visitors? Like rented. It will be so much fun!

I don't think so.
It looks like it's not rideable for visitors. it's just to help the fishermen.

Wow I'm so sad I thought I could ride the whale with Wonder Woman after buying the ticket.

Here are the tickets, guys. In 30 minutes, we'll get on the ship.

30 minutes later...

Check tickets, sir.
Please provide the ticket that has been purchased, Sir.

This is, Sir

Thank you, Sir.
For your information, passengers please get off the car and be on the second floor of the ship, Sir.

Alright, Sir!

After passing the port staff

Isn't the port staff
also AI?
I was very surprised in.

Yes, that's right.
I think I saw it wrong.

Guys, let's get out of the car.
We go to the second or third floors. The view is really cool

Let's go!

Wow, it turns out that there are a lot of seats facing the lake view!

Nice!

Look, there are children swimming in the lake.
So lively!

Did many give the money, Rif?

Quiet a lot, but there is a ban from the port that forbids giving money.
Because it is dangerous if they approach the swimming boat.

Yes, that's right.
Reportedly, they asked for money from visitors to the ship.

Yes, that's right.
Dangerous.
So, in here we don't need to be generous in giving money to the children who are swimming.

Wow, look, the child is swimming with the whale! it looks like they're friend.

Yeah,
that's cool.

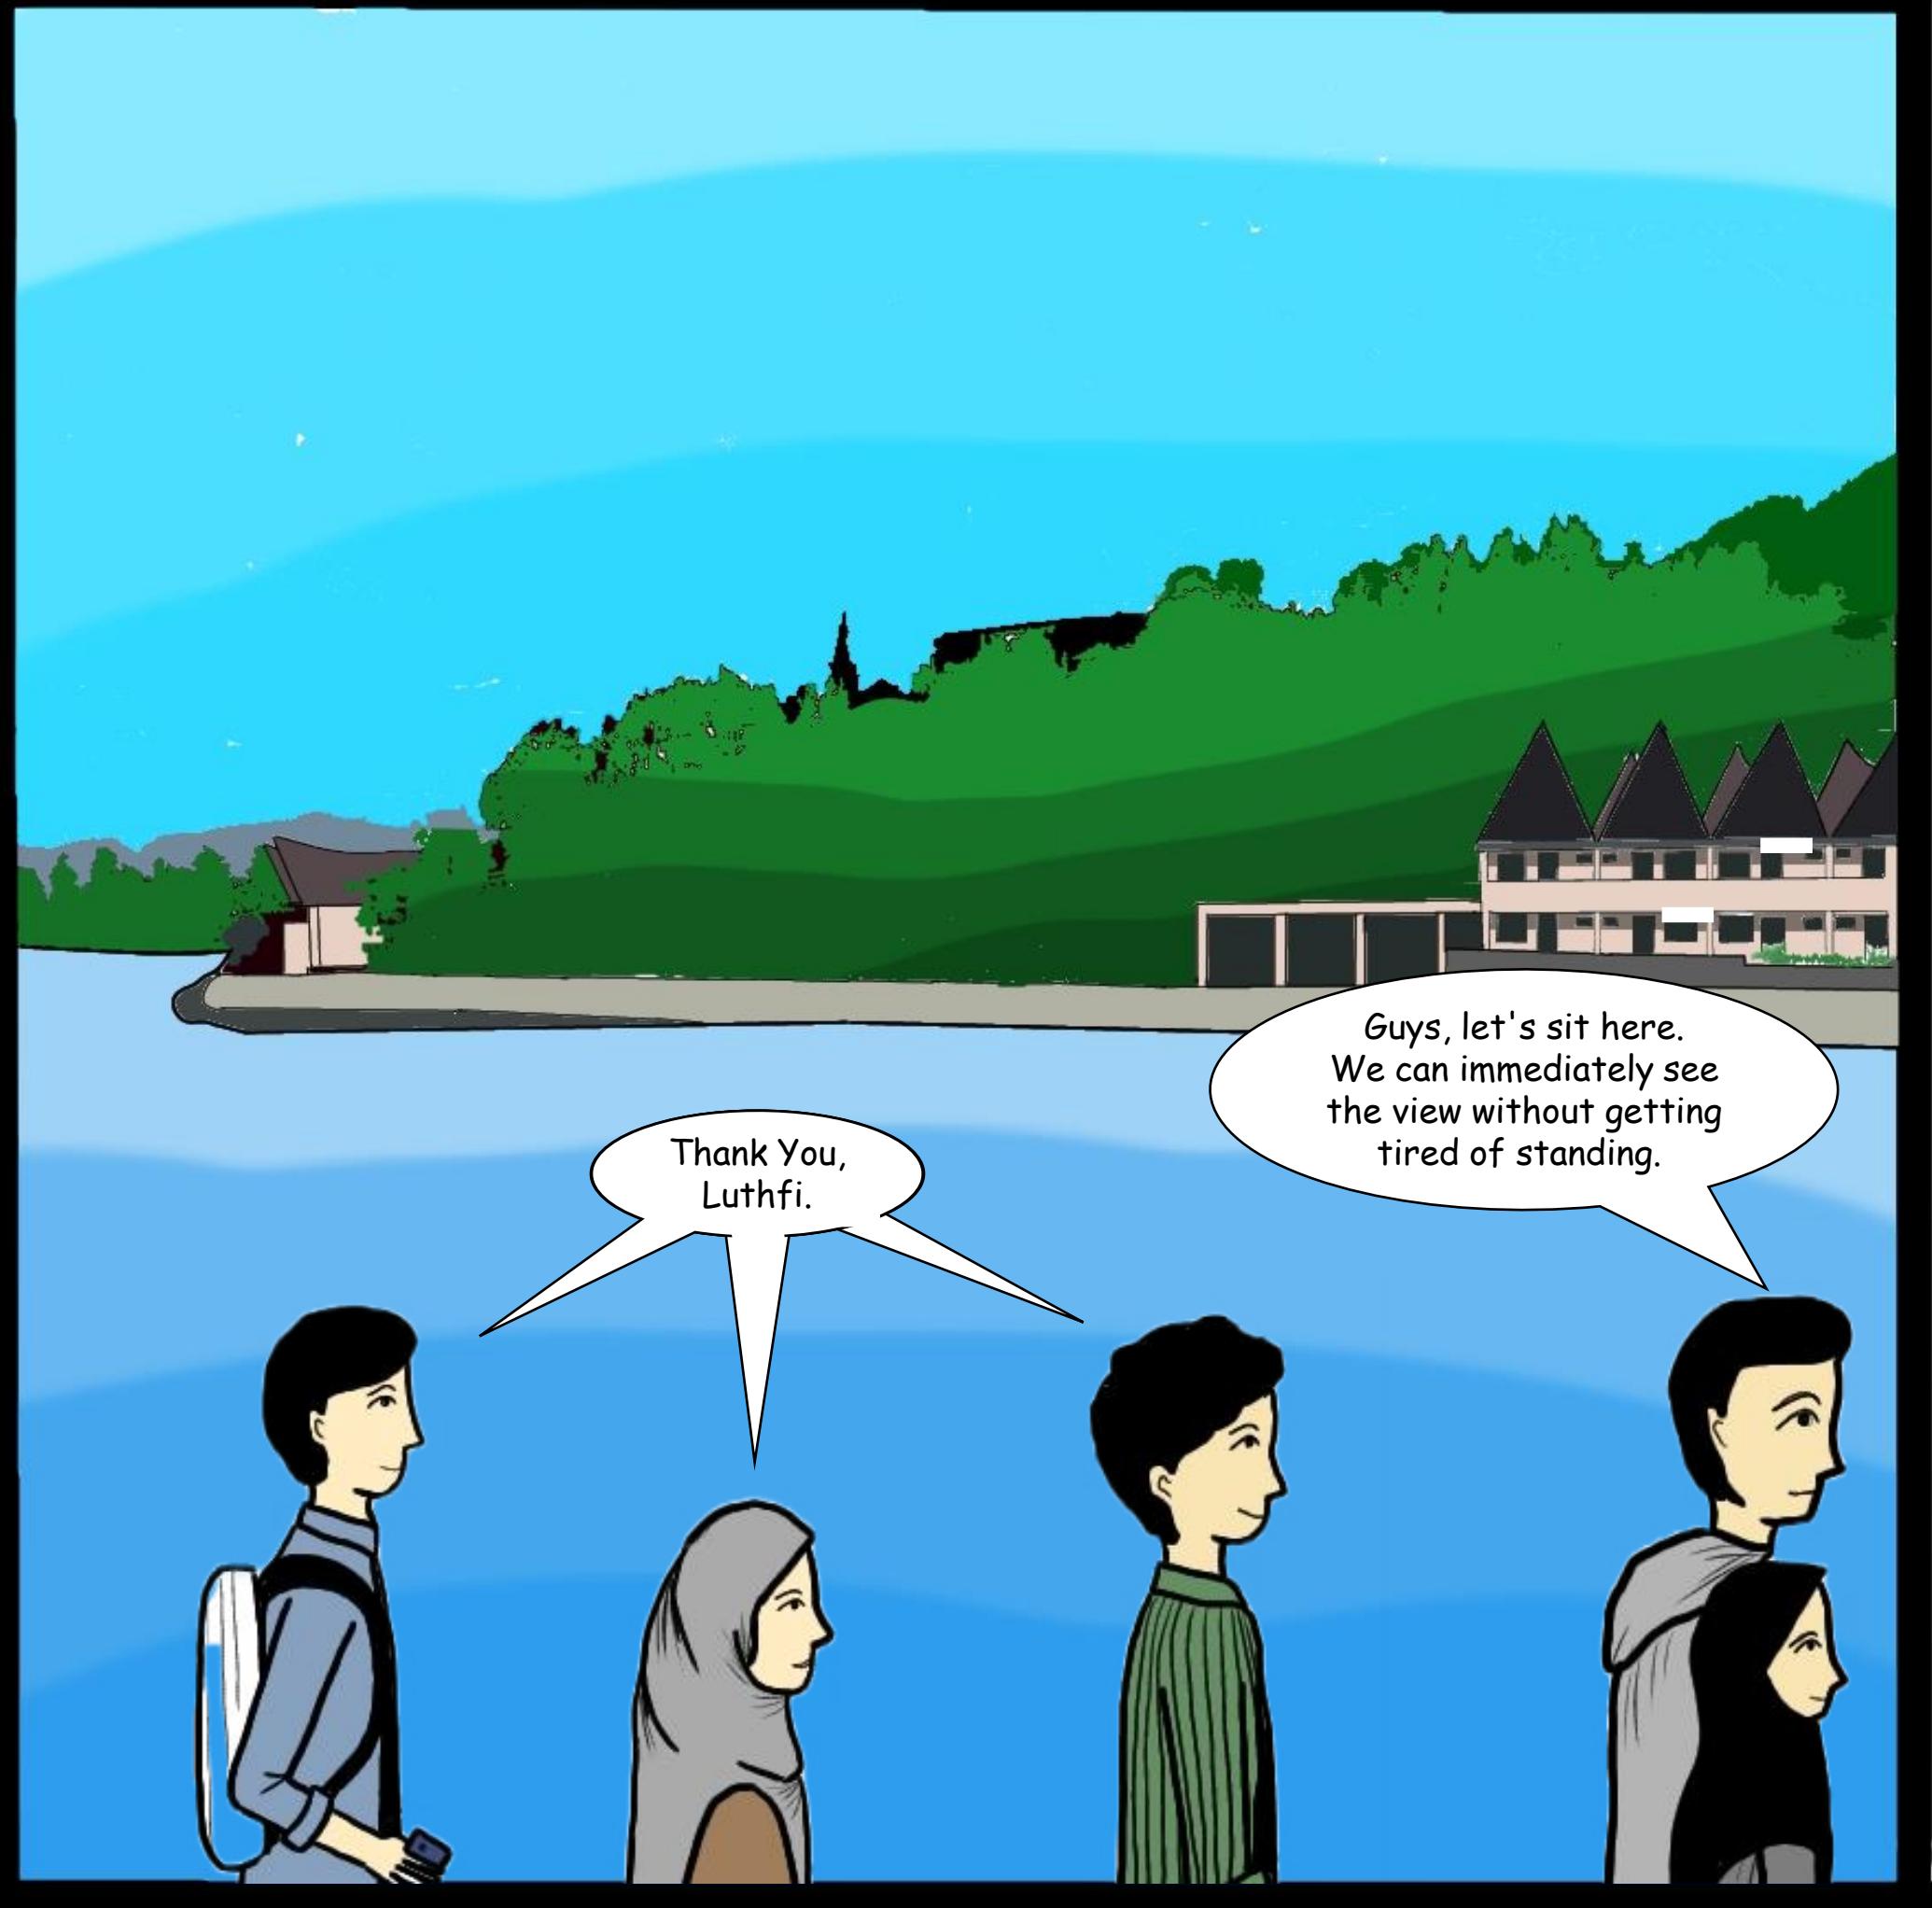

Yes, that's right.

Awesome, the view from the boat is really beautiful, isn't it! We can see the lake, the hills, the unified sky plus the typical building of Batak architecture which is the seasoning.

Very beautiful!

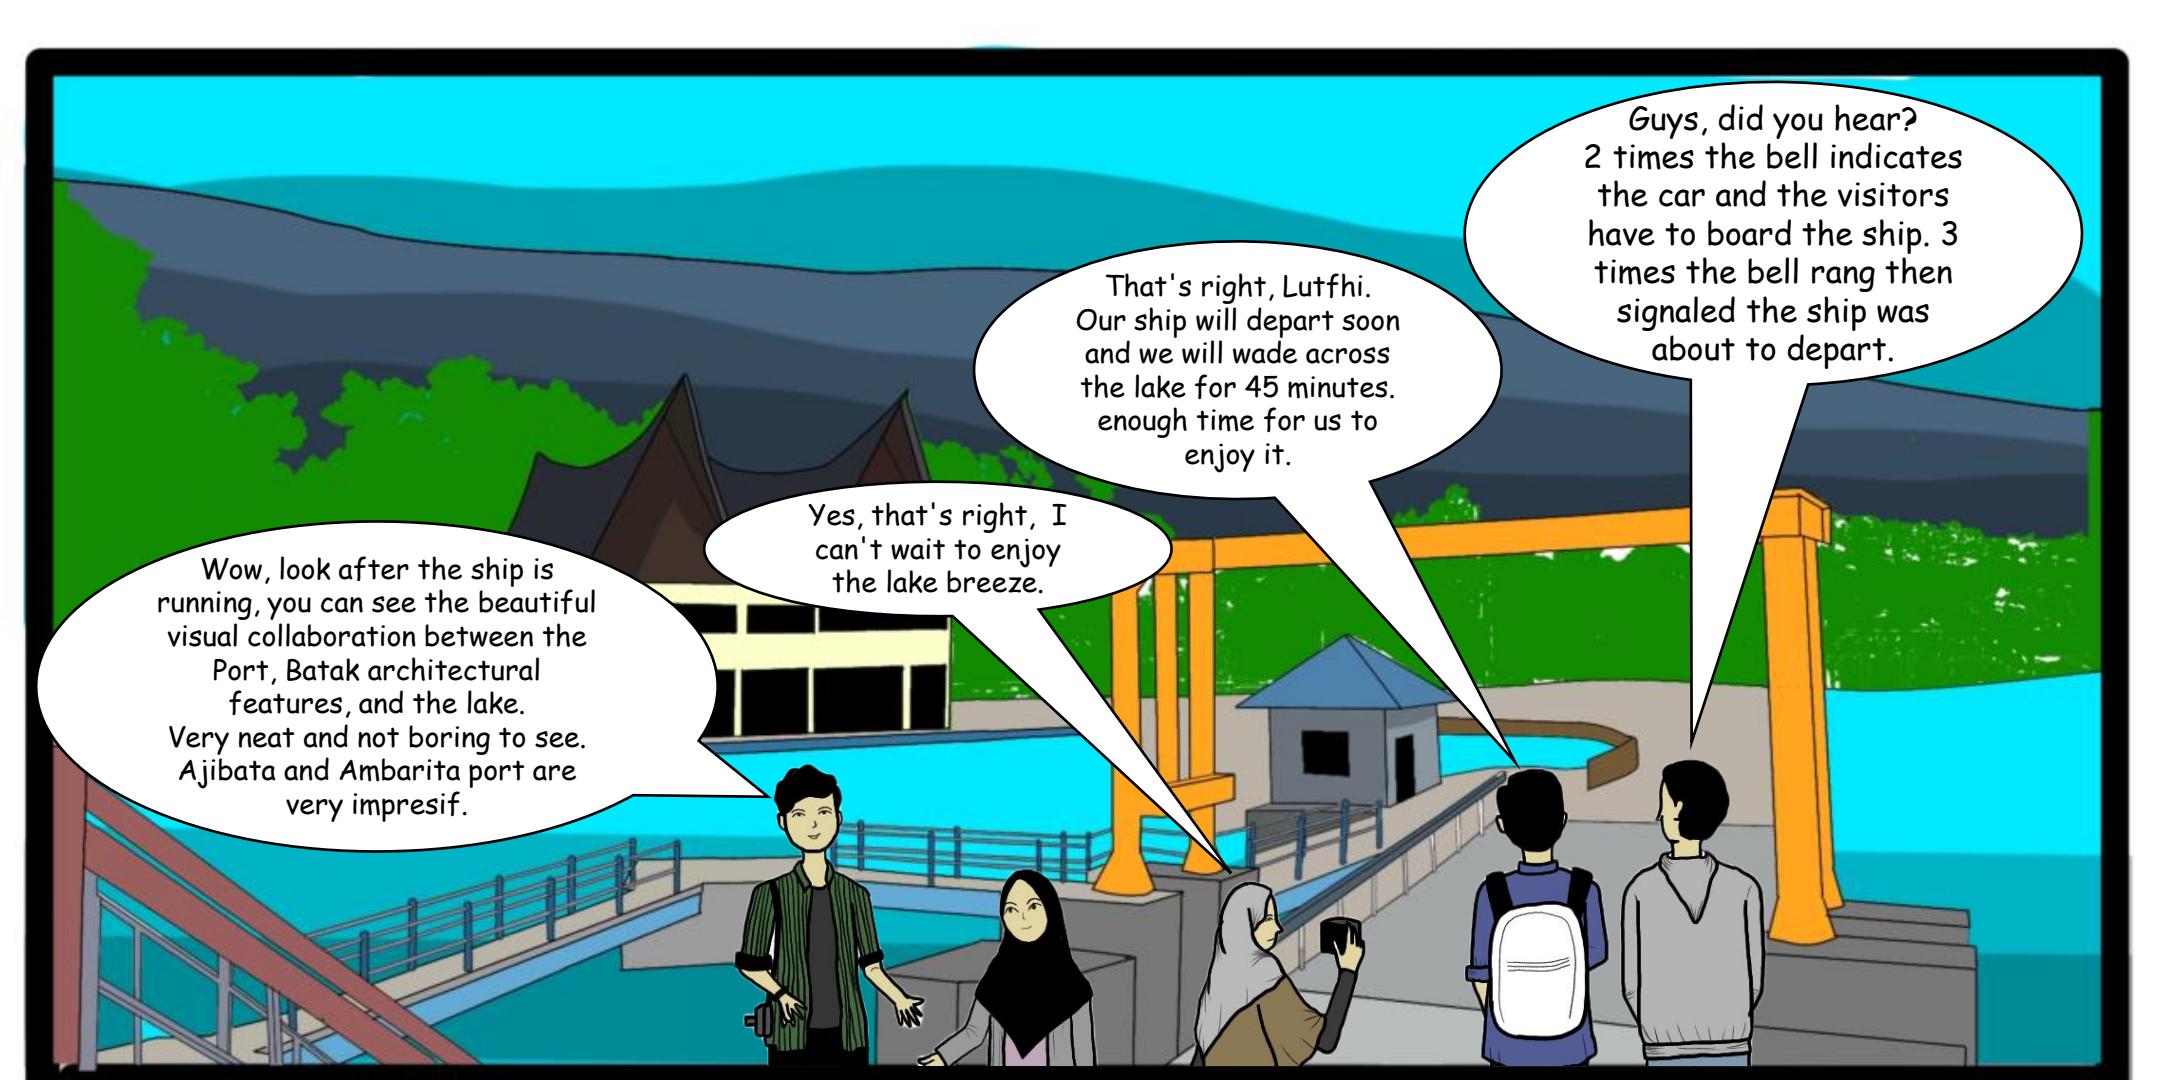

Yes, that's right, Ale, very beautiful God's creation. Look, there's a dragon behind the hill! Can we be friends with them?

It seems impossible. They're so scary and big.

Thank You,
Luthfi.

Guys, let's sit here.
We can immediately see the view without getting tired of standing.

Wow, look after the ship is running, you can see the beautiful visual collaboration between the Port, Batak architectural features, and the lake. Very neat and not boring to see. Ajibata and Ambarita port are very impresif.

That's right, Lutfhi. Our ship will depart soon and we will wade across the lake for 45 minutes. enough time for us to enjoy it.

Guys, did you hear? 2 times the bell indicates the car and the visitors have to board the ship. 3 times the bell rang then signaled the ship was about to depart.

45 minutes later...
They entered the car to go to Pangururan

Wow, there are a lot of trees on this trip. We can also see the hills from here.

Besides that, there are also many buildings whose roofs are typical of Batak architecture.

Yes, that's right, I'm very impressed.

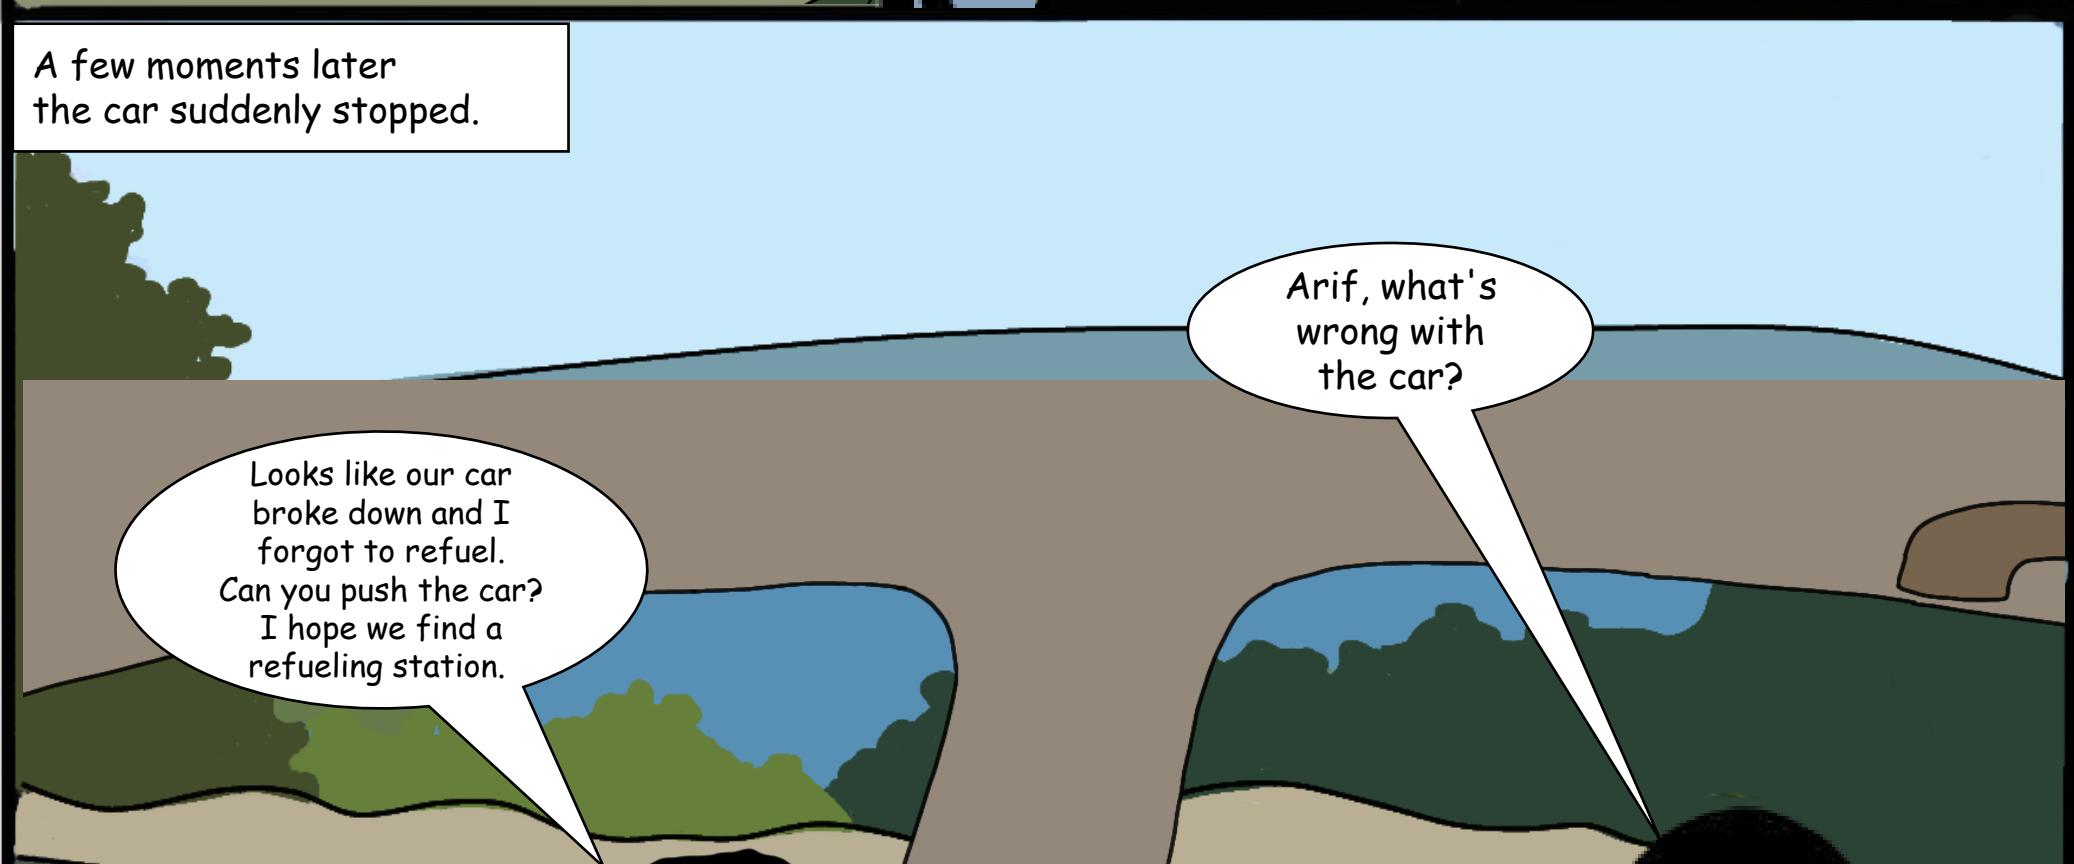

We can see a view of the lake.

Very beautiful..

Yes, that's right, very fresh. It feels very calm. I can't wait to get to the White Sand Beach Parbaba.

A few moments later the car suddenly stopped.

Looks like our car broke down and I forgot to refuel. Can you push the car? I hope we find a refueling station.

Arif, what's wrong with the car?

Arifff... you've been paying attention to our fuel needs since we started our journey. If it's like this, we all become stressed. This place is quiet and it's very tired for us to push the car until we find a gas station.

I'm so sorry, guys...

We shouldn't blame each other. By fighting, our problems are not solved.

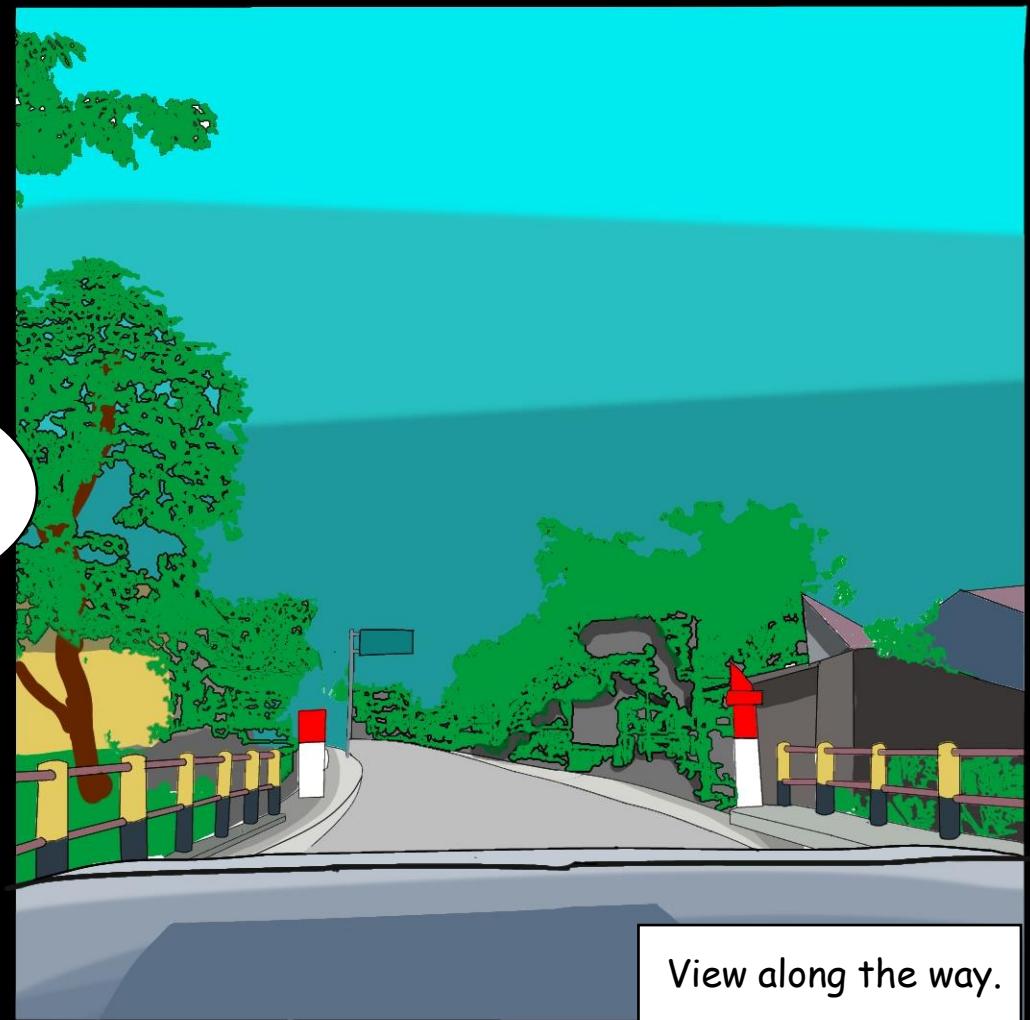

Better, we push the car first, Ale.

Let's go.
One, Two, Three!
Push!!!

Then they continue their journey.

Pasir Putih PARBABA

Look at the information board. We have arrived at the intersection to The White Sand Beach Parbaba.

Wow, my heart is pounding. I think I will meet Prince Melar in the beach.

It's the "heart" that beats, not the heart, Ale.

It turns out that there are a lot of residential areas along the road to the White Sand Beach Parbaba.

Yup. With so many visitors, The community's economy will definitely be helped. Here, people are seen to be able to sell their crops such as mangoes.

That's right, even the people here are very peaceful. Sometimes I'm a little jealous of the people here, because they always enjoy the fresh air and views of the beach.

Good afternoon, Sir.
How many people are there, Sir?

Ok, the total is Rp. 25.000.

My pleasure...

Yes guys, that's the counter for incoming payments.
On the information board
Rp. 5,000 per person.
Wow, that's really cheap, guys.

Yup, tours that is said to be cheap
but not "cheap".

Look, it looks like the staff is Blue Iron, guys.
Very cool.

Good afternoon, Sir.
5 people, please?

Here,
Thank You.

WELCOME TO

BEACH OF PARBABA

Wow, we have arrived.
Let's park the car
first, guys.

BTW, The ticket seller
is an Blue Iron?
That's Cool!

TUJUAN WAJIB RETRIBUSI

Yeah right, Indri.
See, we walk here using paving blocks. I thought it was still beach sand because it was so close to the beach.

It looks like it has been paved so that the vehicle can run.
If it's still sandy beach, it must be difficult to pass by using vehicle.

Okay, it turns out the parking lot is in front of the toilet, guys. Good laying, because if a visitor from the trip wants to defecate, they will immediately meet the toilet.

Yes, that's right, even here there are still people's houses. Residents can sell here to improve the economy.

It looks like the tree was deliberately not cut down. because trees have many benefits.
It would be very unfortunate if the trees were cut down.

Wow, the tree is also very tall, even taller than two-storey house.

Usually it's halal in tourist areas. But it doesn't matter if you want to eat, ask the restaurant first.

But is the food here halal?

This is one of the obstacles if Muslim tourists visit. Here is a non-Muslim area and sometimes it is difficult to get halal food.

Let's have a look. Who knows there is halal food and there is a prayer room available.

Okay..

Yes, that's right, I've read the news too, if Muslim tourists usually visit only a few hours because there is no halal food and there is no prayer room.

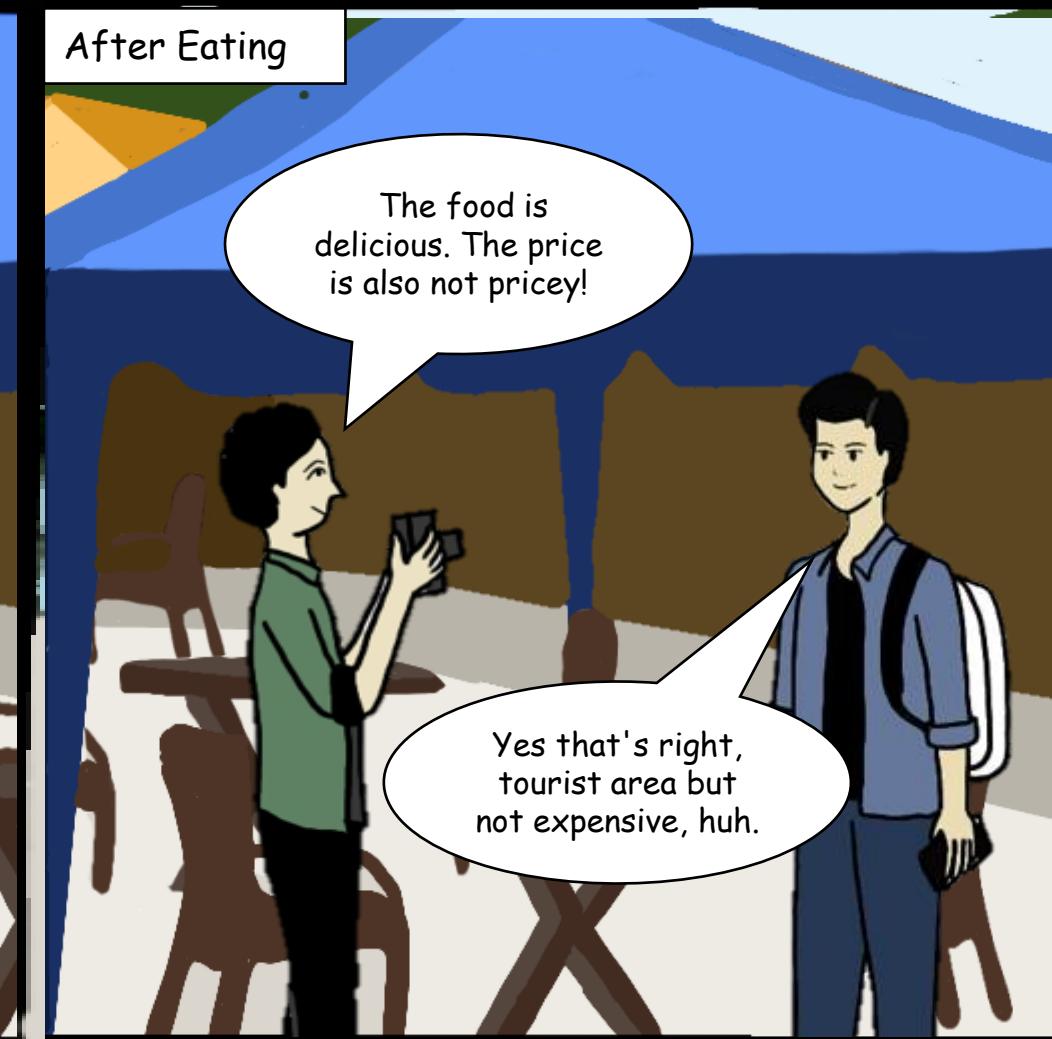

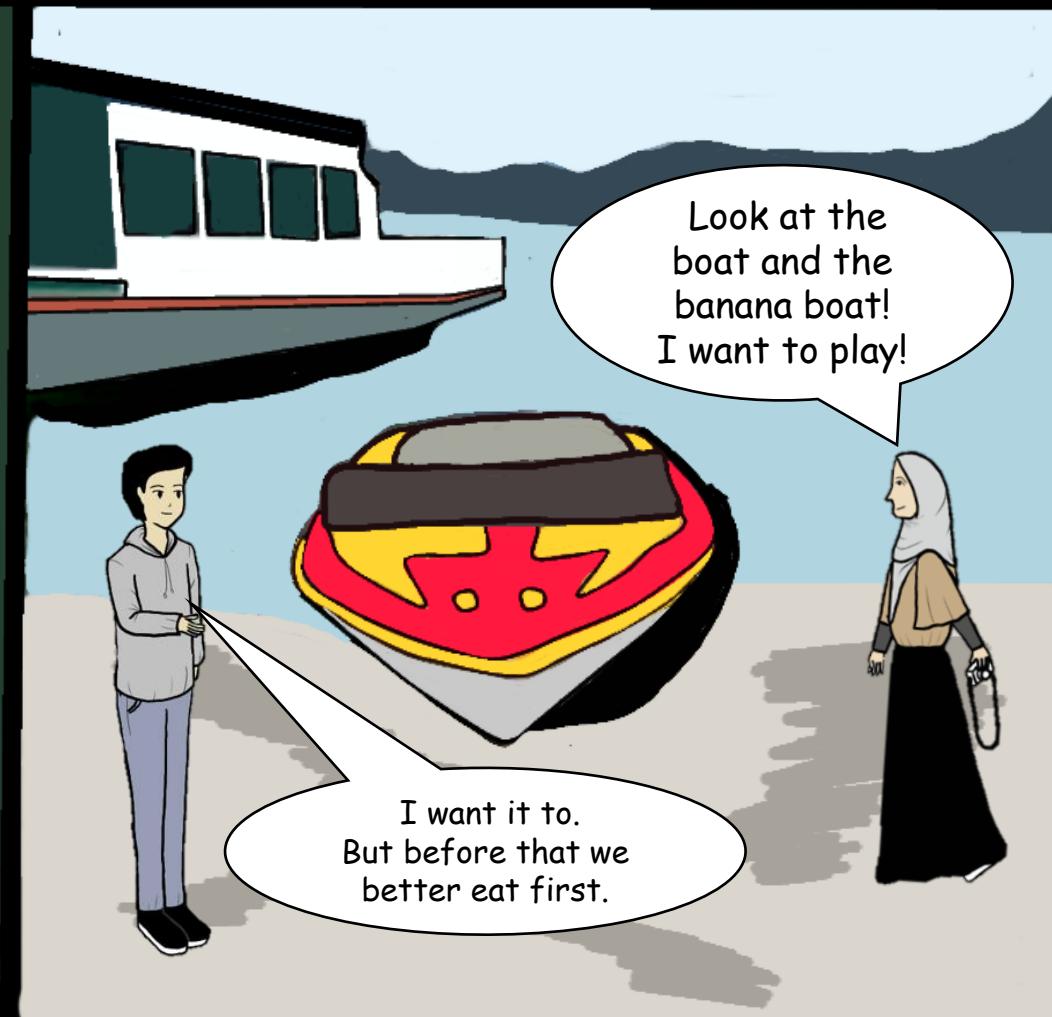

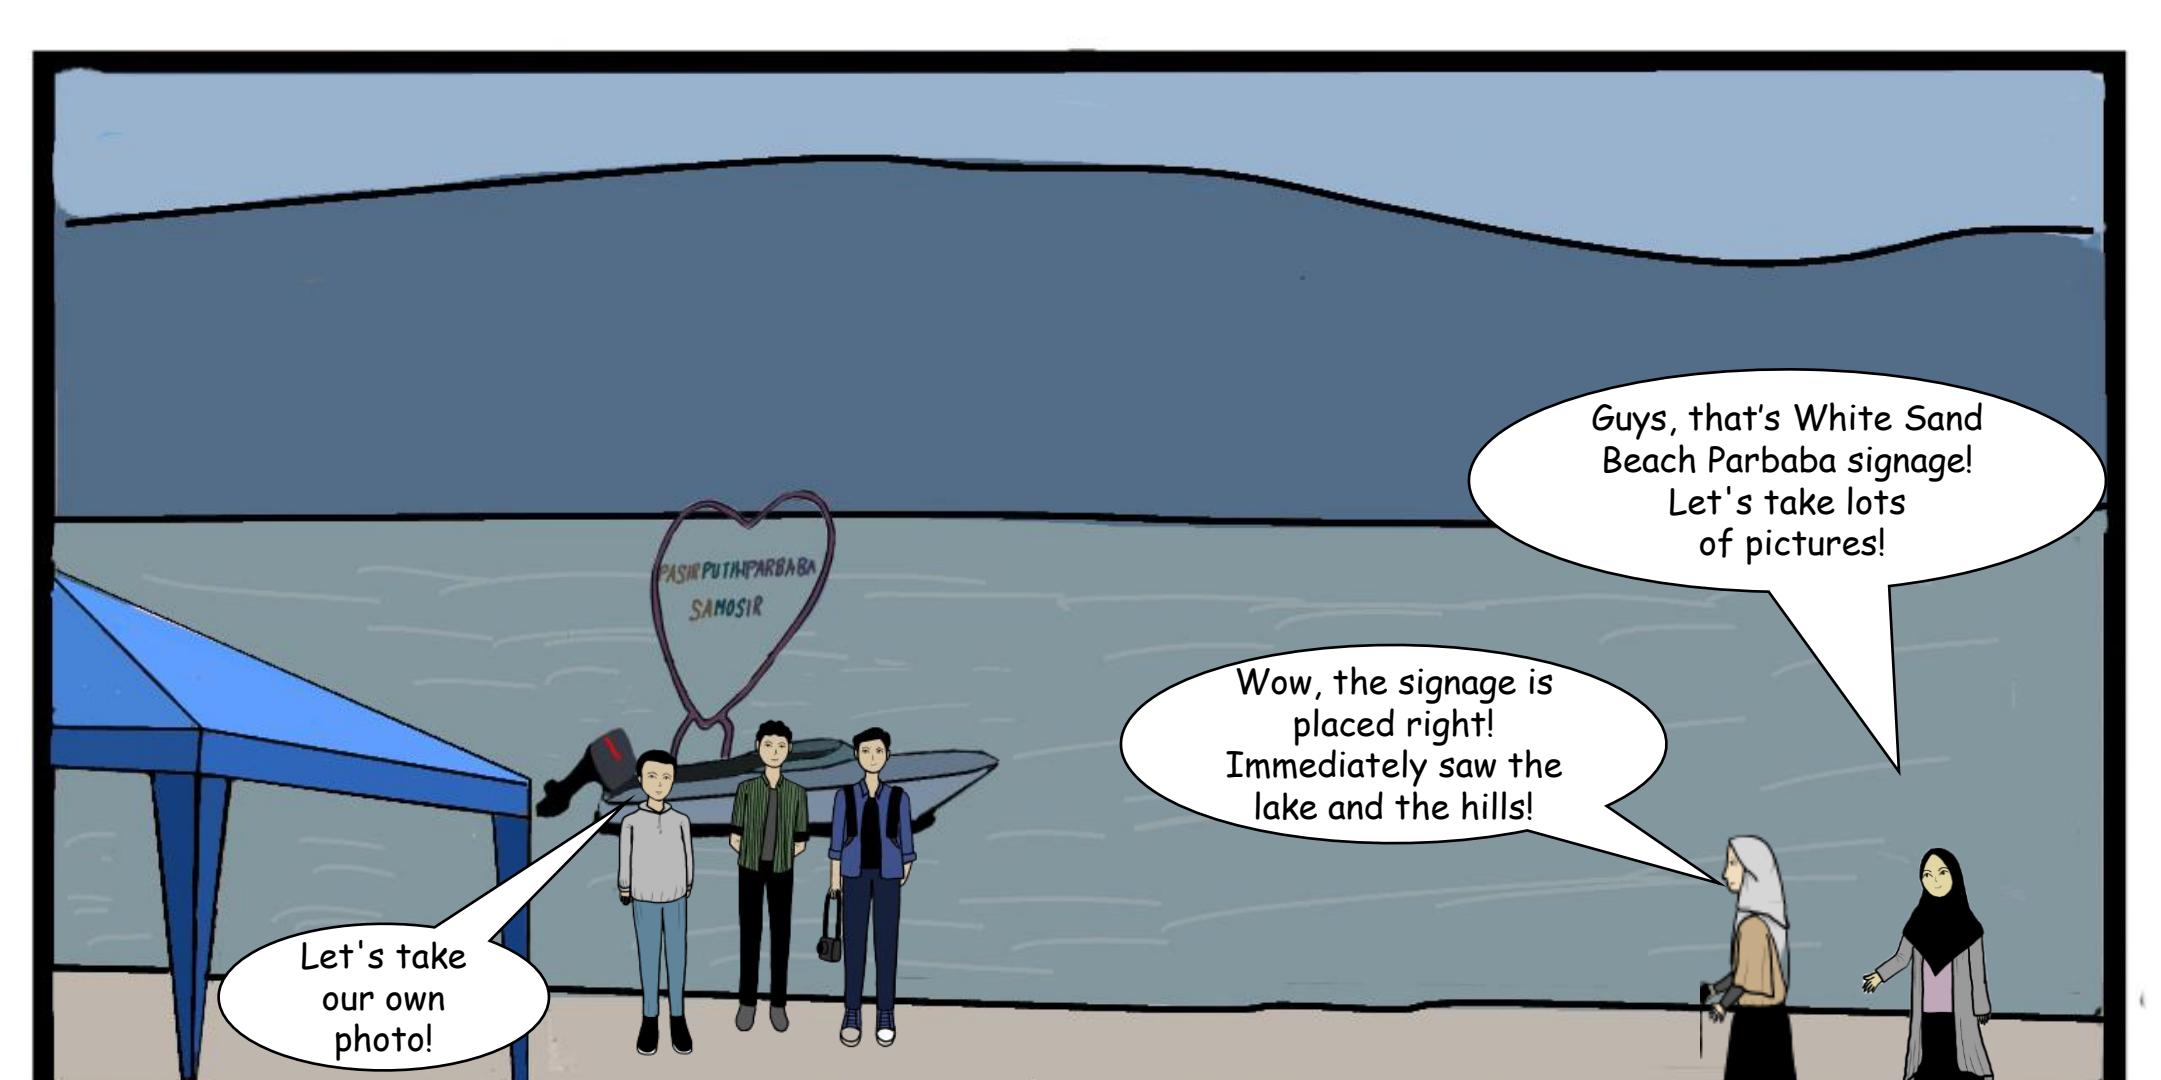

The souvenirs that are sold are unique. The clothes also have many colors and of course have a typical Batak pattern and the writing of Lake Toba.

Yes, that's right, Even the souvenirs do not escape the characteristics of the Batak.

Guys, there is a big gazebo. Maybe for a while we can put our equipment there.

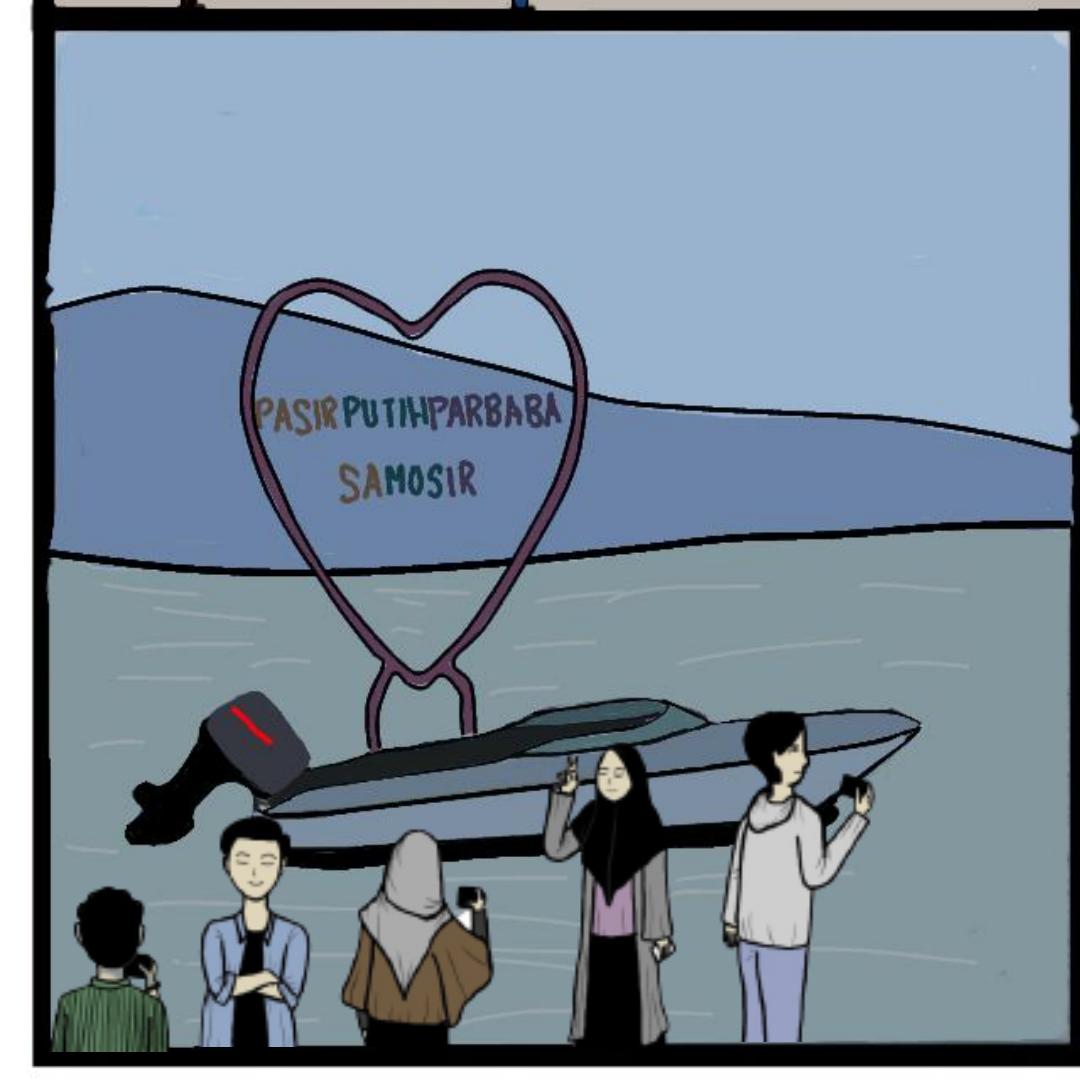

Let's take our own photo!

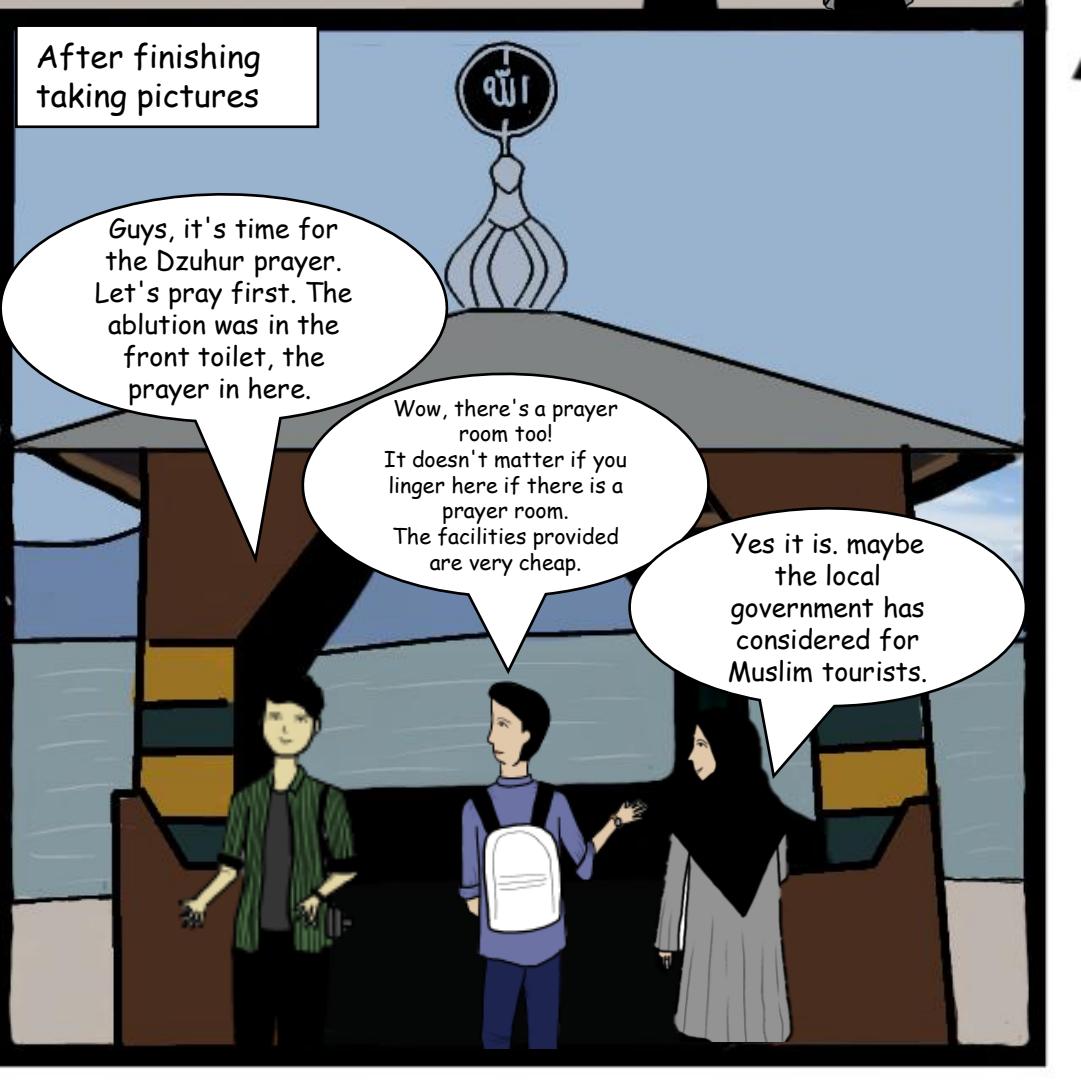

Wow, the signage is placed right! Immediately saw the lake and the hills!

Guys, that's White Sand Beach Parbaba signage! Let's take lots of pictures!

PASIRPUTHPARBABA
SAMOSIR

After finishing taking pictures

Guys, it's time for the Dzuhur prayer. Let's pray first. The ablution was in the front toilet, the prayer in here.

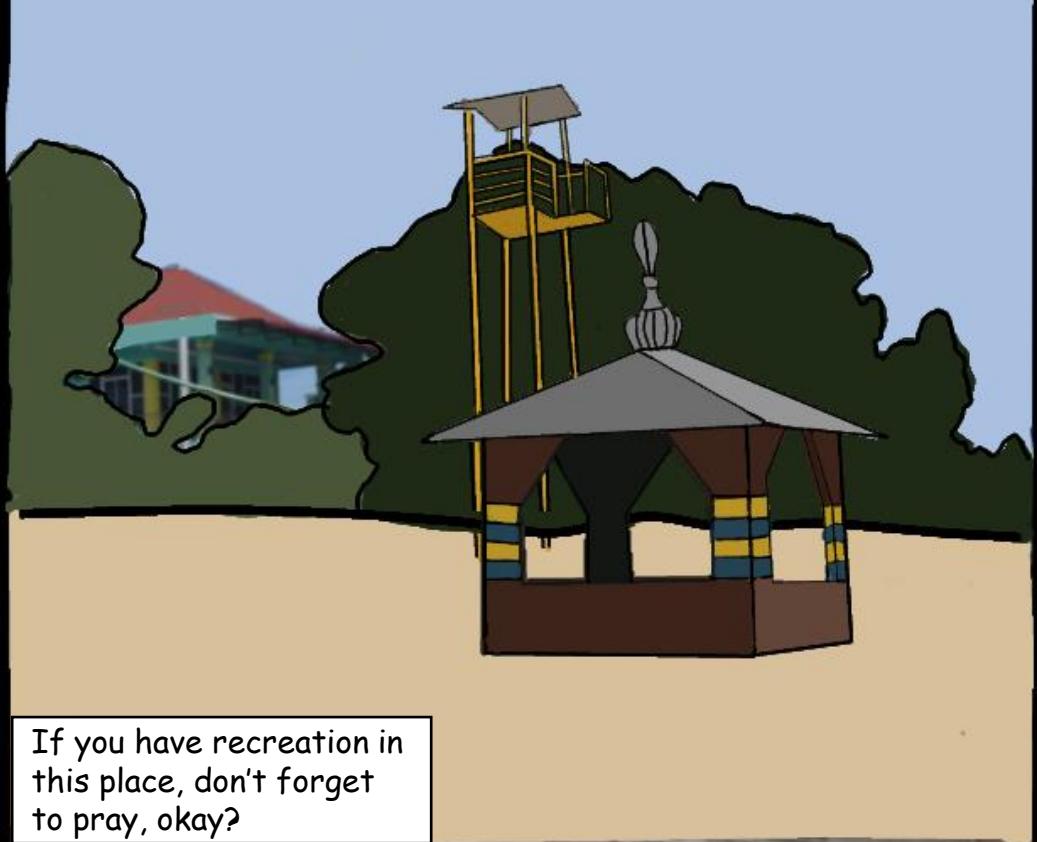

Wow, there's a prayer room too! It doesn't matter if you linger here if there is a prayer room. The facilities provided are very cheap.

Yes it is. maybe the local government has considered for Muslim tourists.

After finishing the prayer

Guys, look there is a lighthouse and signage again. Let's take pictures to make memories. I've also made a vlog to post on Instagram! Tomorrow see the results!

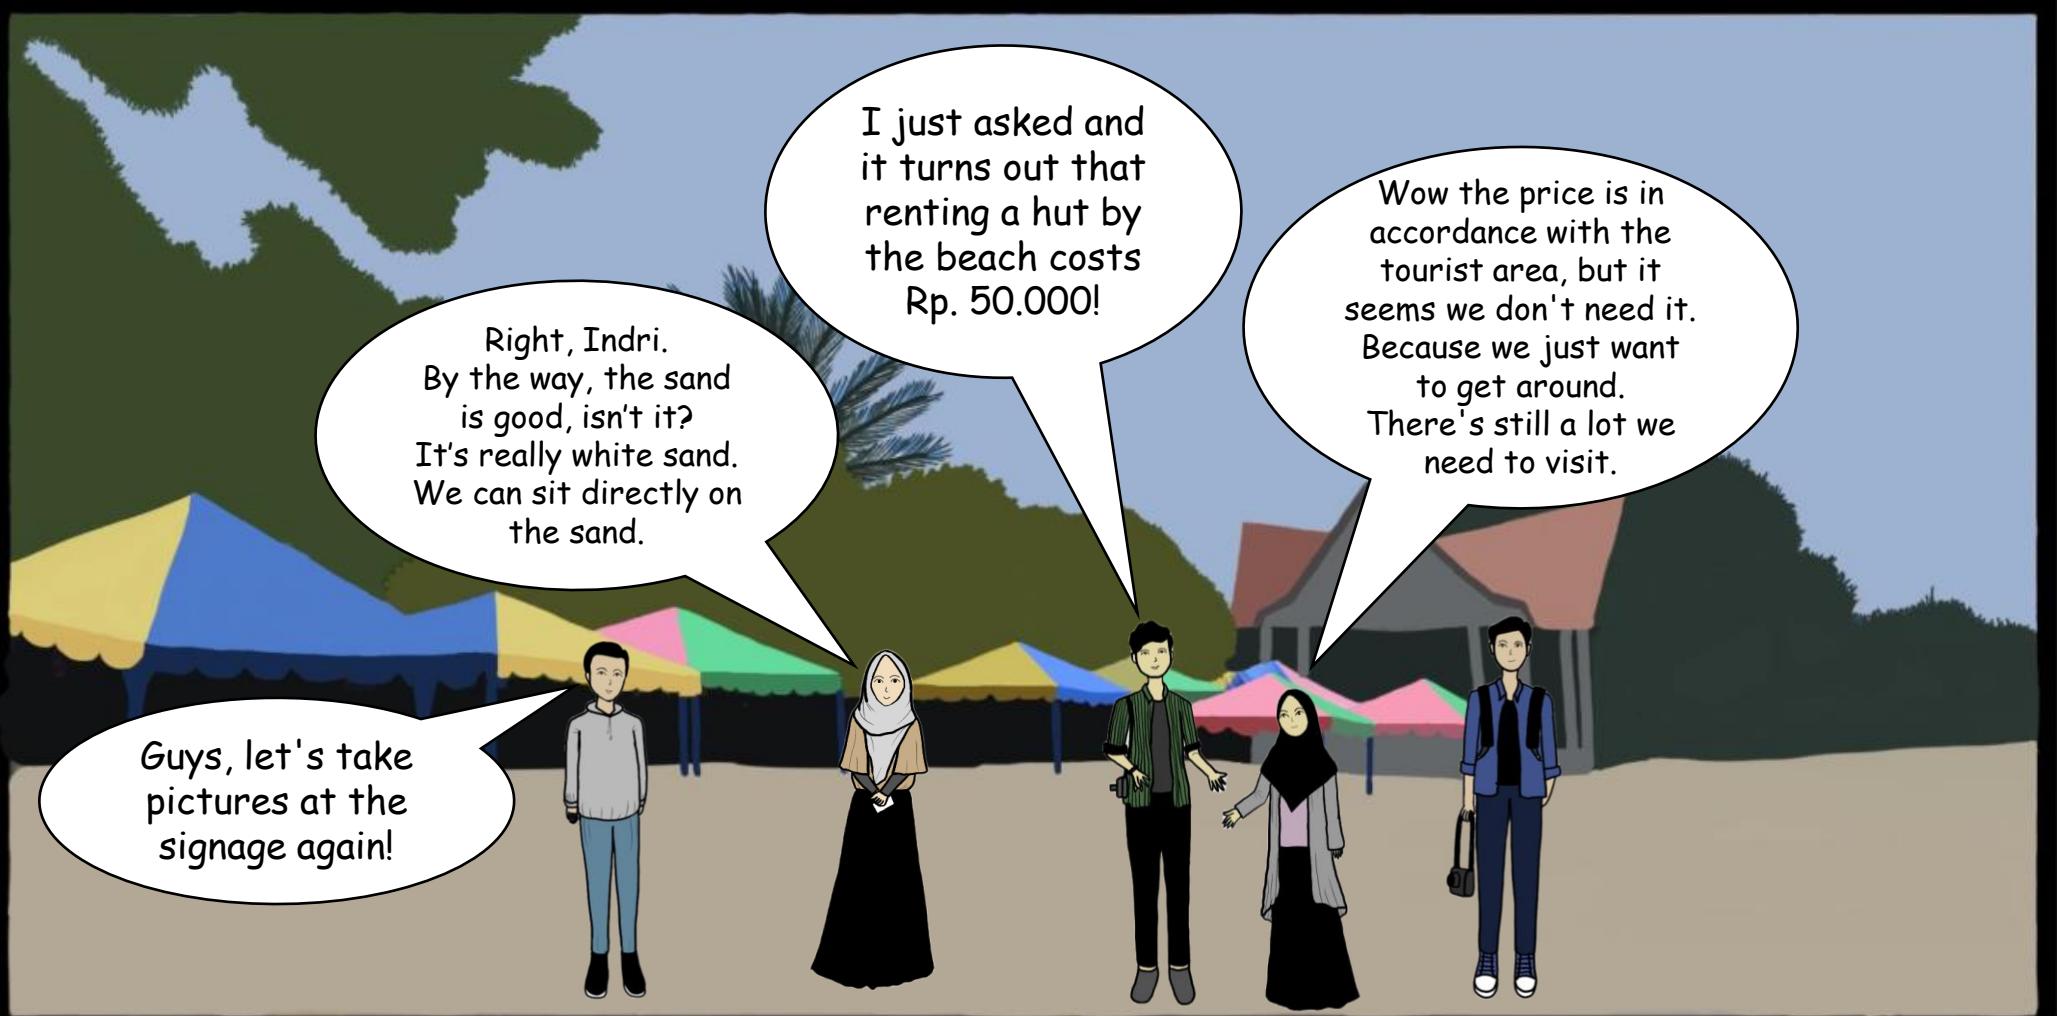

If you have recreation in this place, don't forget to pray, okay?

I think we should play water rides! But later, let's just go around first.

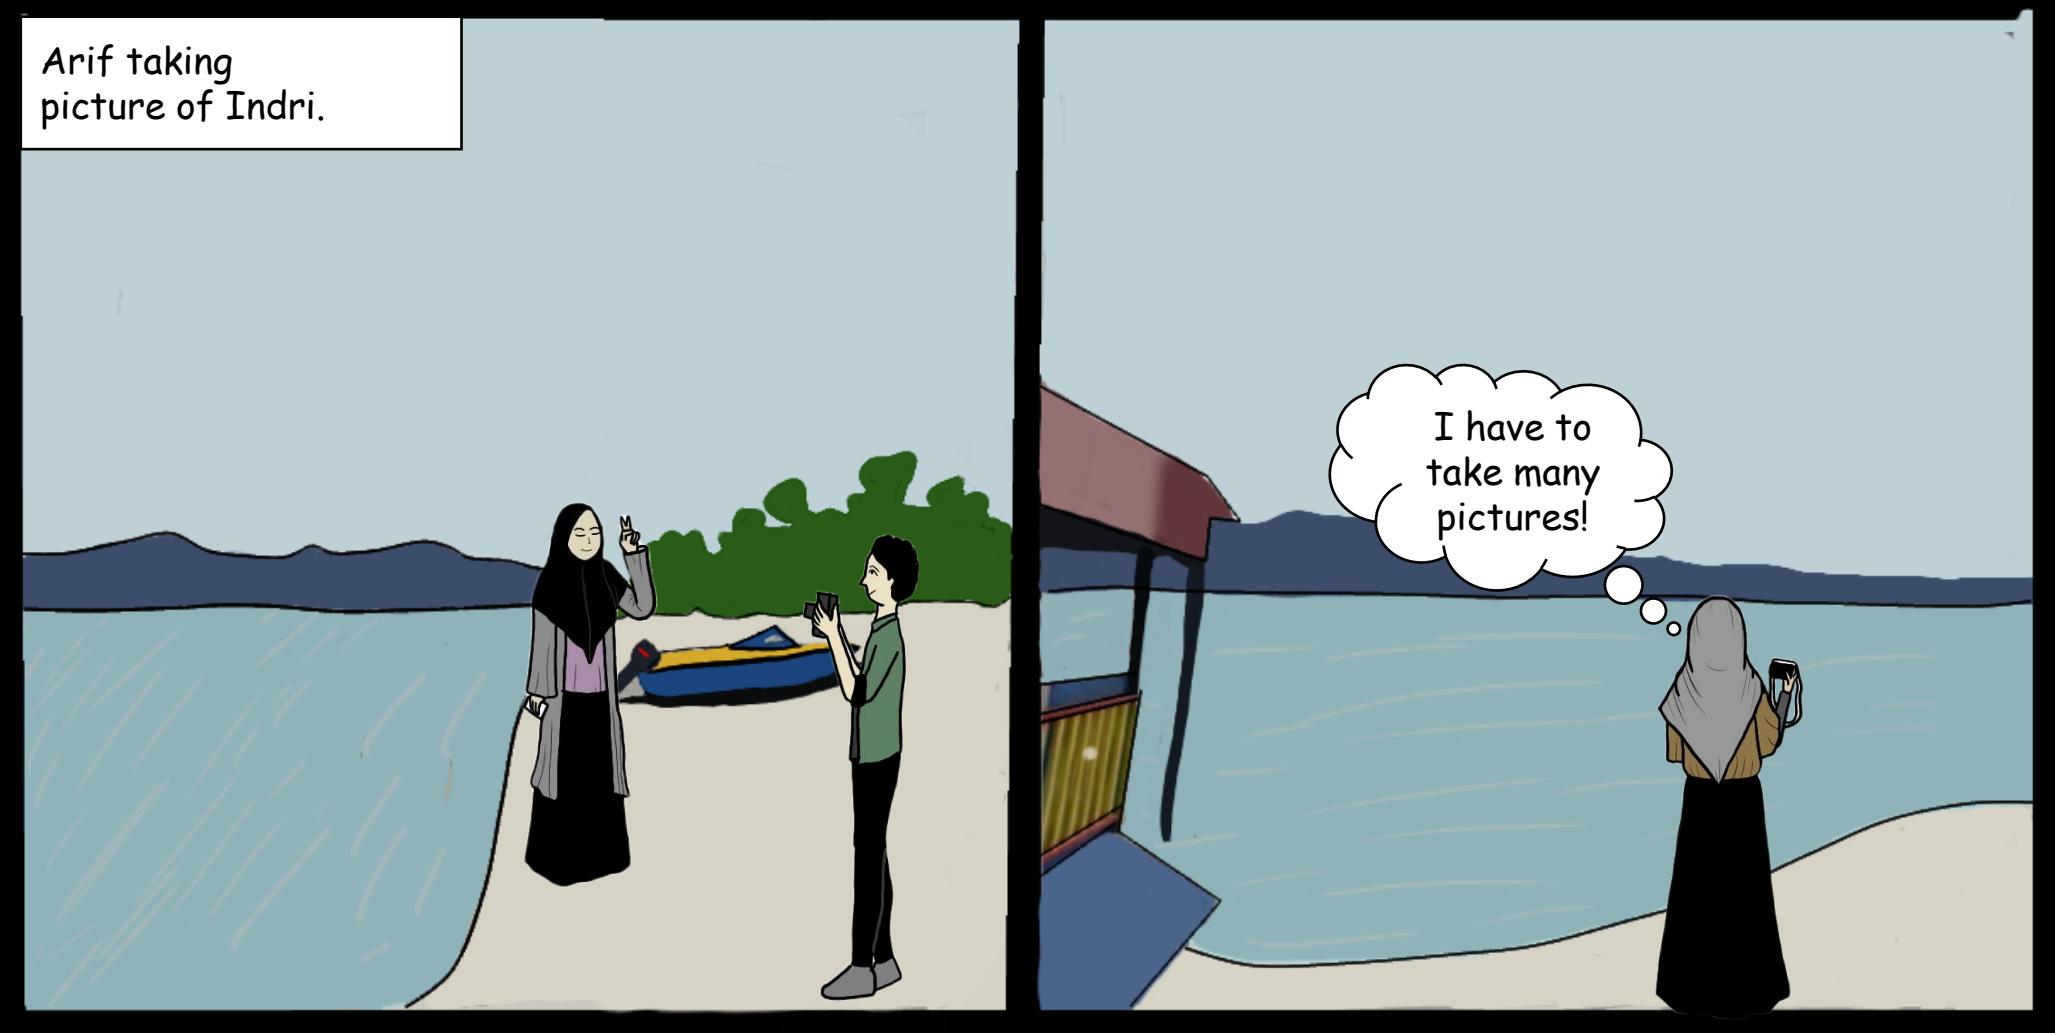

Guys, There is the banana boat and also a seal as a water ride!

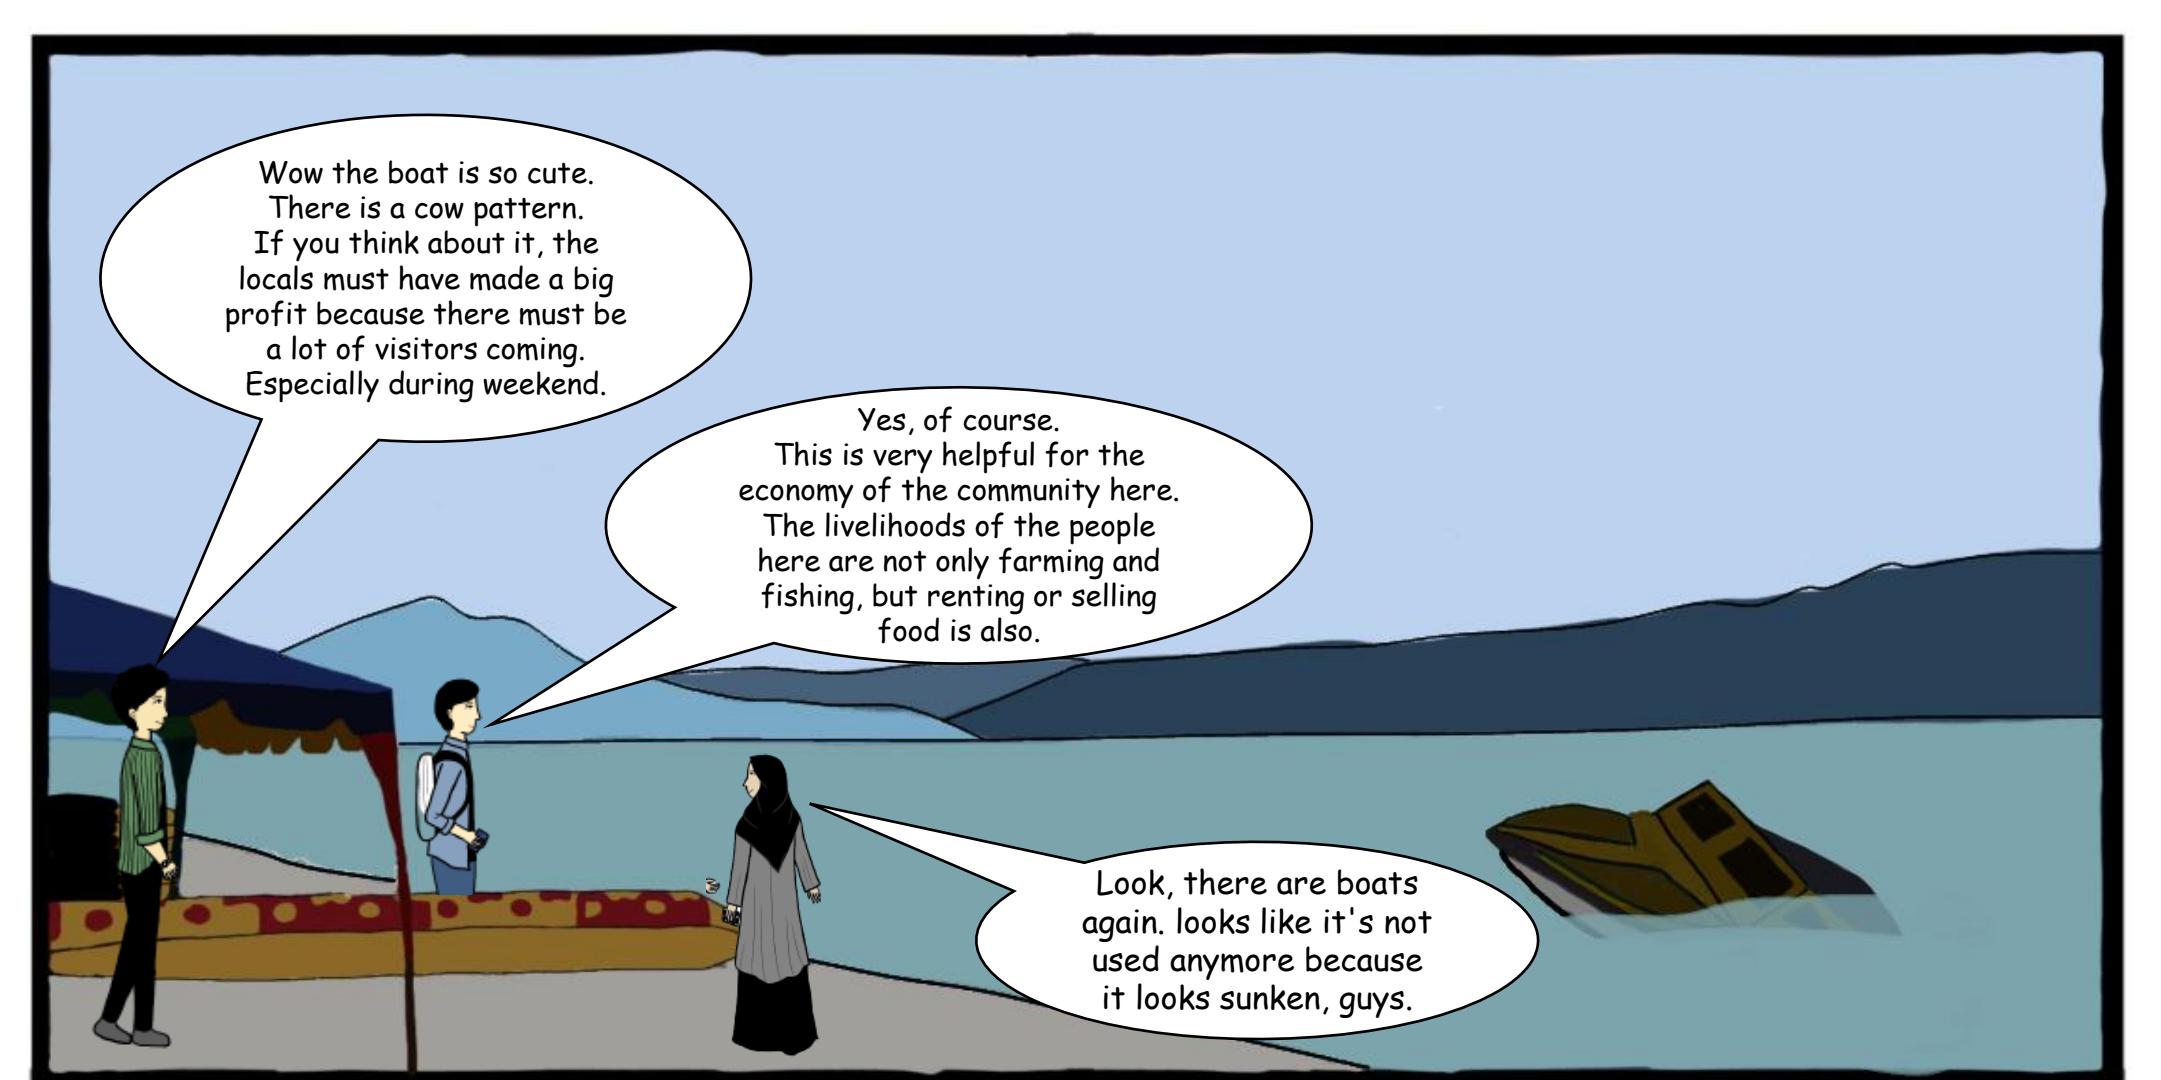

We can update our status, yey!

Wow the boat is so cute.
There is a cow pattern.
If you think about it, the locals must have made a big profit because there must be a lot of visitors coming.
Especially during weekend.

Yes, of course.
This is very helpful for the economy of the community here.
The livelihoods of the people here are not only farming and fishing, but renting or selling food is also.

Look, there are boats again. looks like it's not used anymore because it looks sunken, guys.

When I looked again, we could see that as far as we walked along the beach,
the hills were always visible.
There is no doubt that as the name implies,
the hill of a thousand.

Yes, of course.
Also we can see everything from here.
Calm lake with hills background, activities of the community and visitors, huts, restaurant tents, water rides such as boats and banana boats as well.

Guys there is another water ride game!!!
It seems like that water rides is the favorite ride.

Wow, that's really cool

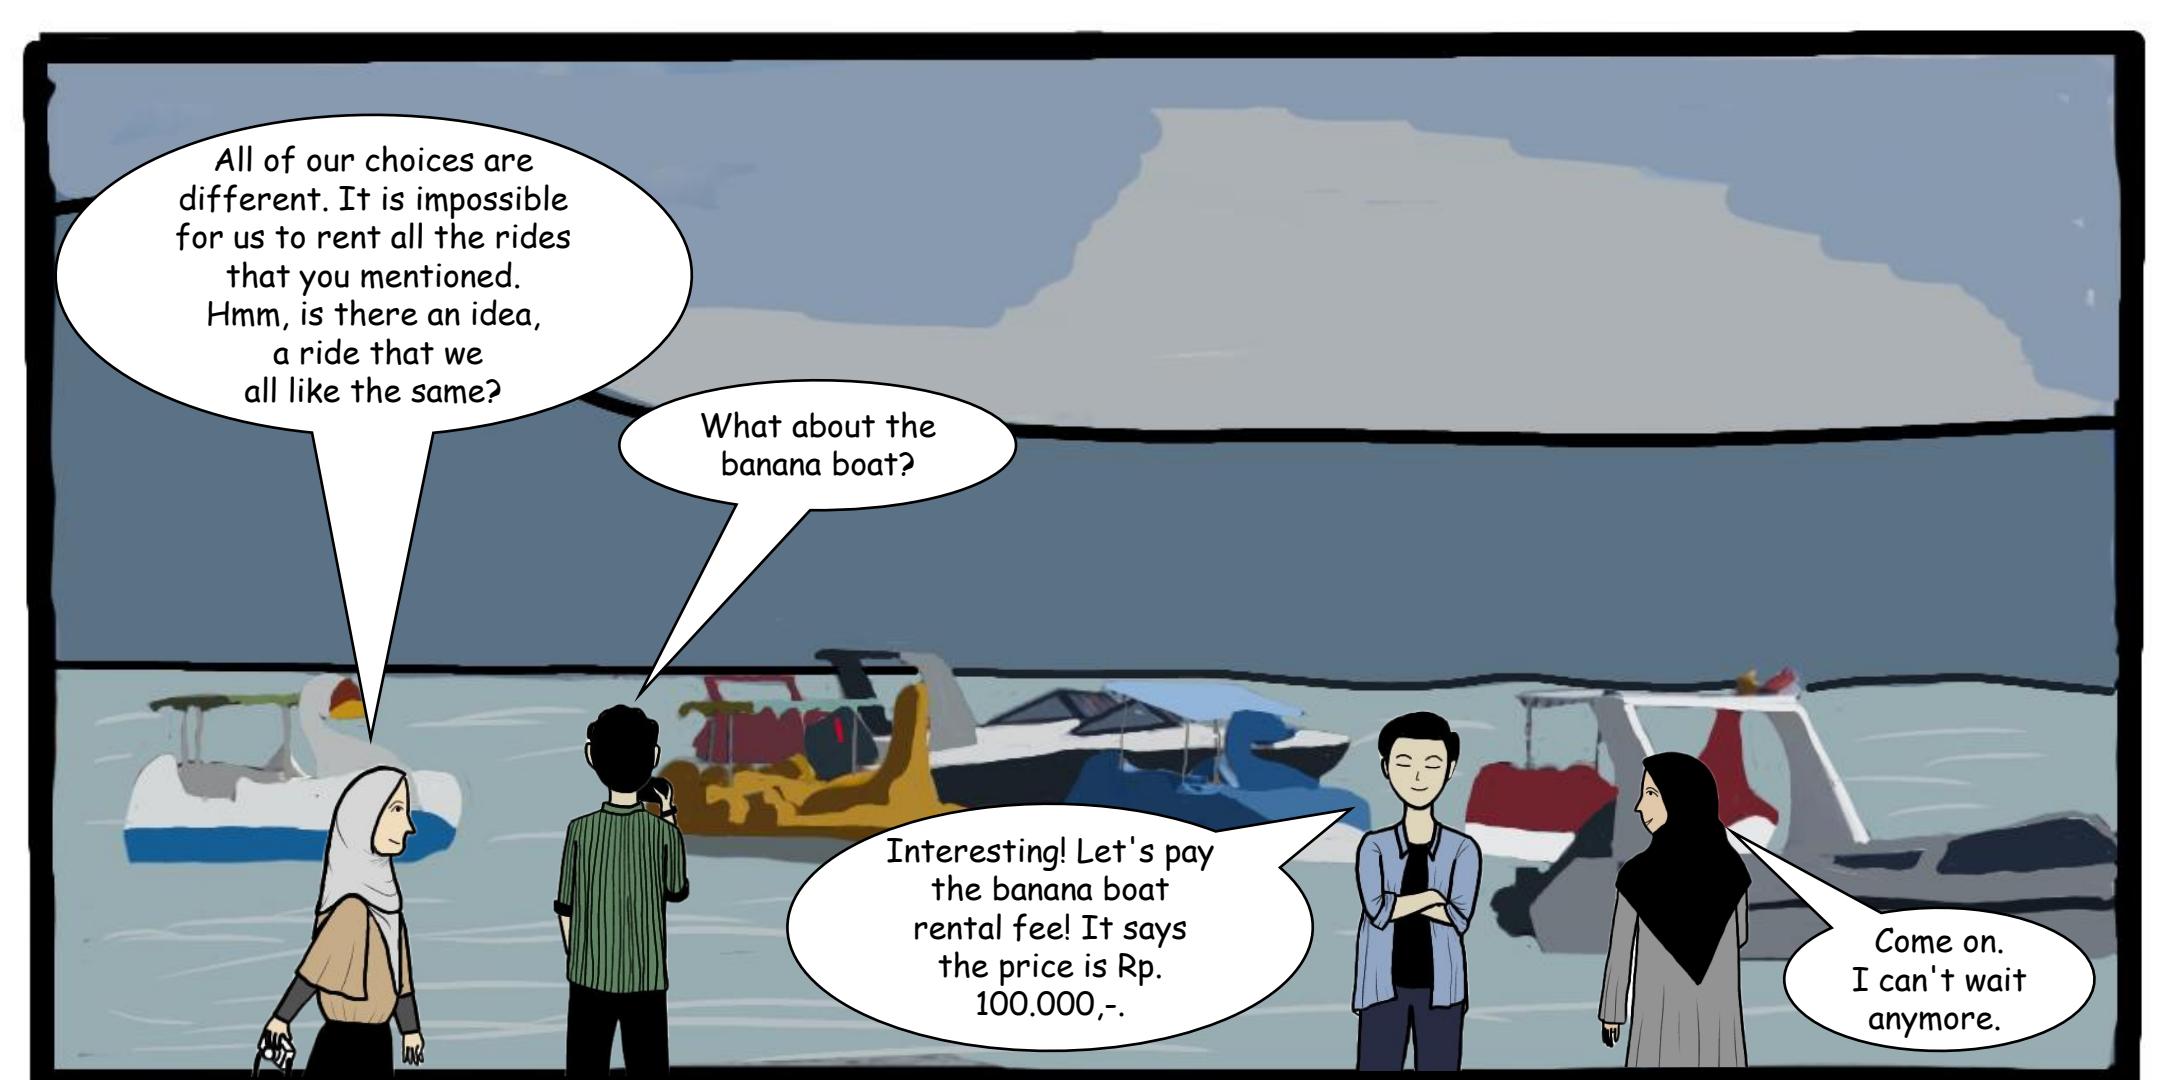

Wow, look, there's a mermaid! It turns out that mermaids can live with humans. Look at the mermaids bringing fish to the people!

Please, don't eat me. Here I give you fish for your health.

Do you guys like boats?

I'd love it! I want to go on a boat .

I prefer swimming with mermaid.

All of our choices are different. It is impossible for us to rent all the rides that you mentioned.
Hmm, is there an idea, a ride that we all like the same?

What about the banana boat?

Interesting! Let's pay the banana boat rental fee! It says the price is Rp. 100.000,-.

Come on. I can't wait anymore.

After boarding
the banana boat

Thank you Godam, for watching us from a far and keeping us safe.

So if the ship
is moving fast, we will move
fast too.

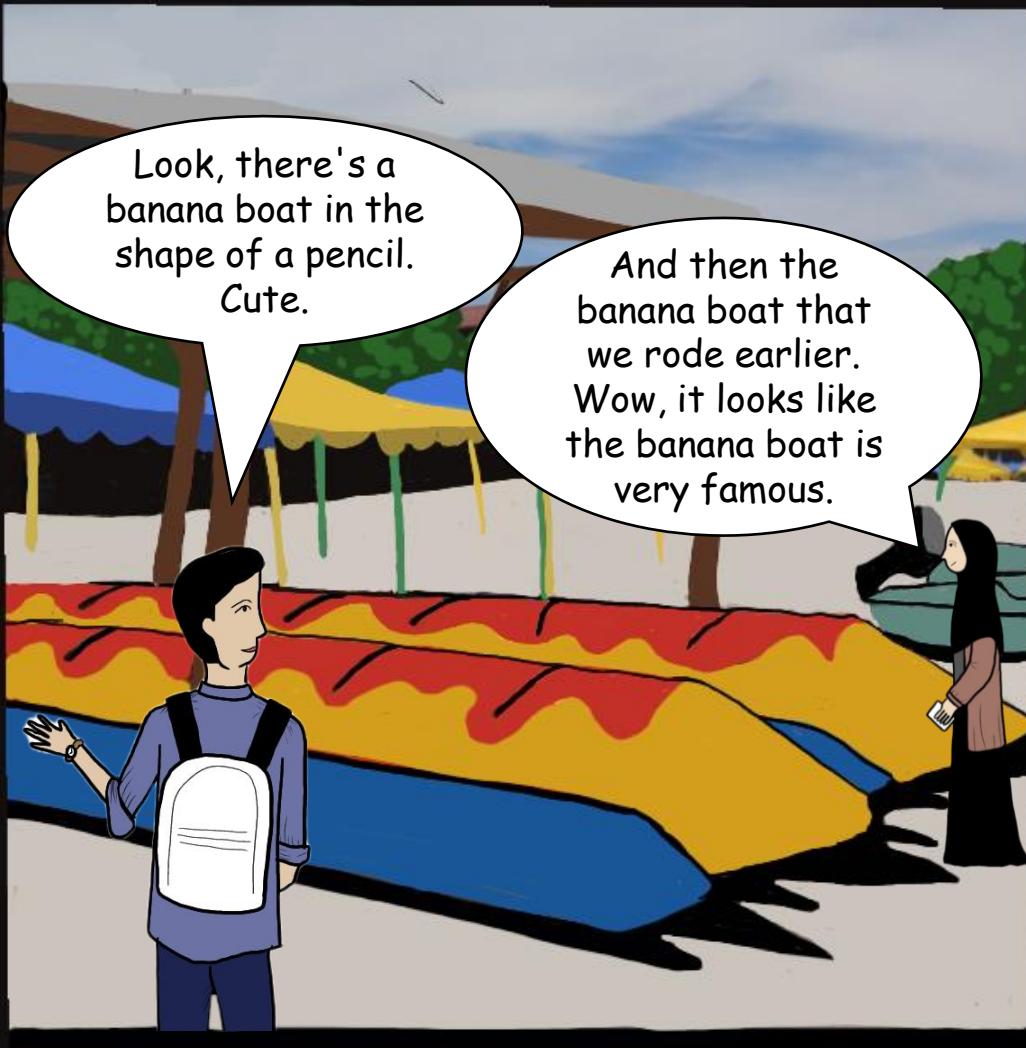

It's very fun.
Eumm, Did you see that duck?

Yes, the duck is very big.
I've never met.

Adorable. But it seems that I'm afraid if I'm too close to the big duck.
But, there's a Godam
from there.

I will take another pictures.

Let's try another game.

Look, there's a banana boat in the shape of a pencil. Cute.

And then the banana boat that we rode earlier. Wow, it looks like the banana boat is very famous.

There was a ship that was there, guys. But there were no guards. How to ask how much is the price once up?

Of course. The facilities provided by the ship are also not playing games. We don't need to be tired of riding the ship, we just need to talk.

IDR 200.000, Miss.

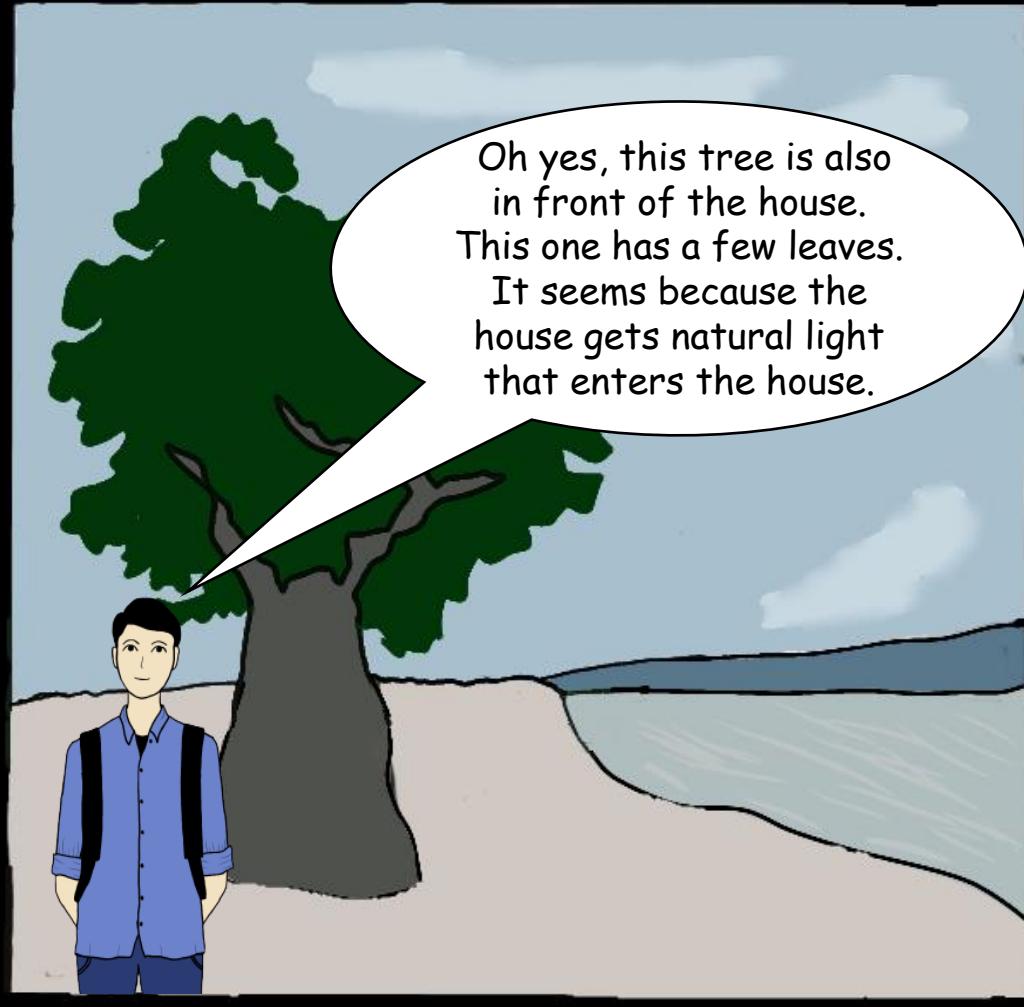

Hello, good afternoon. How much does it cost to get on a boat?

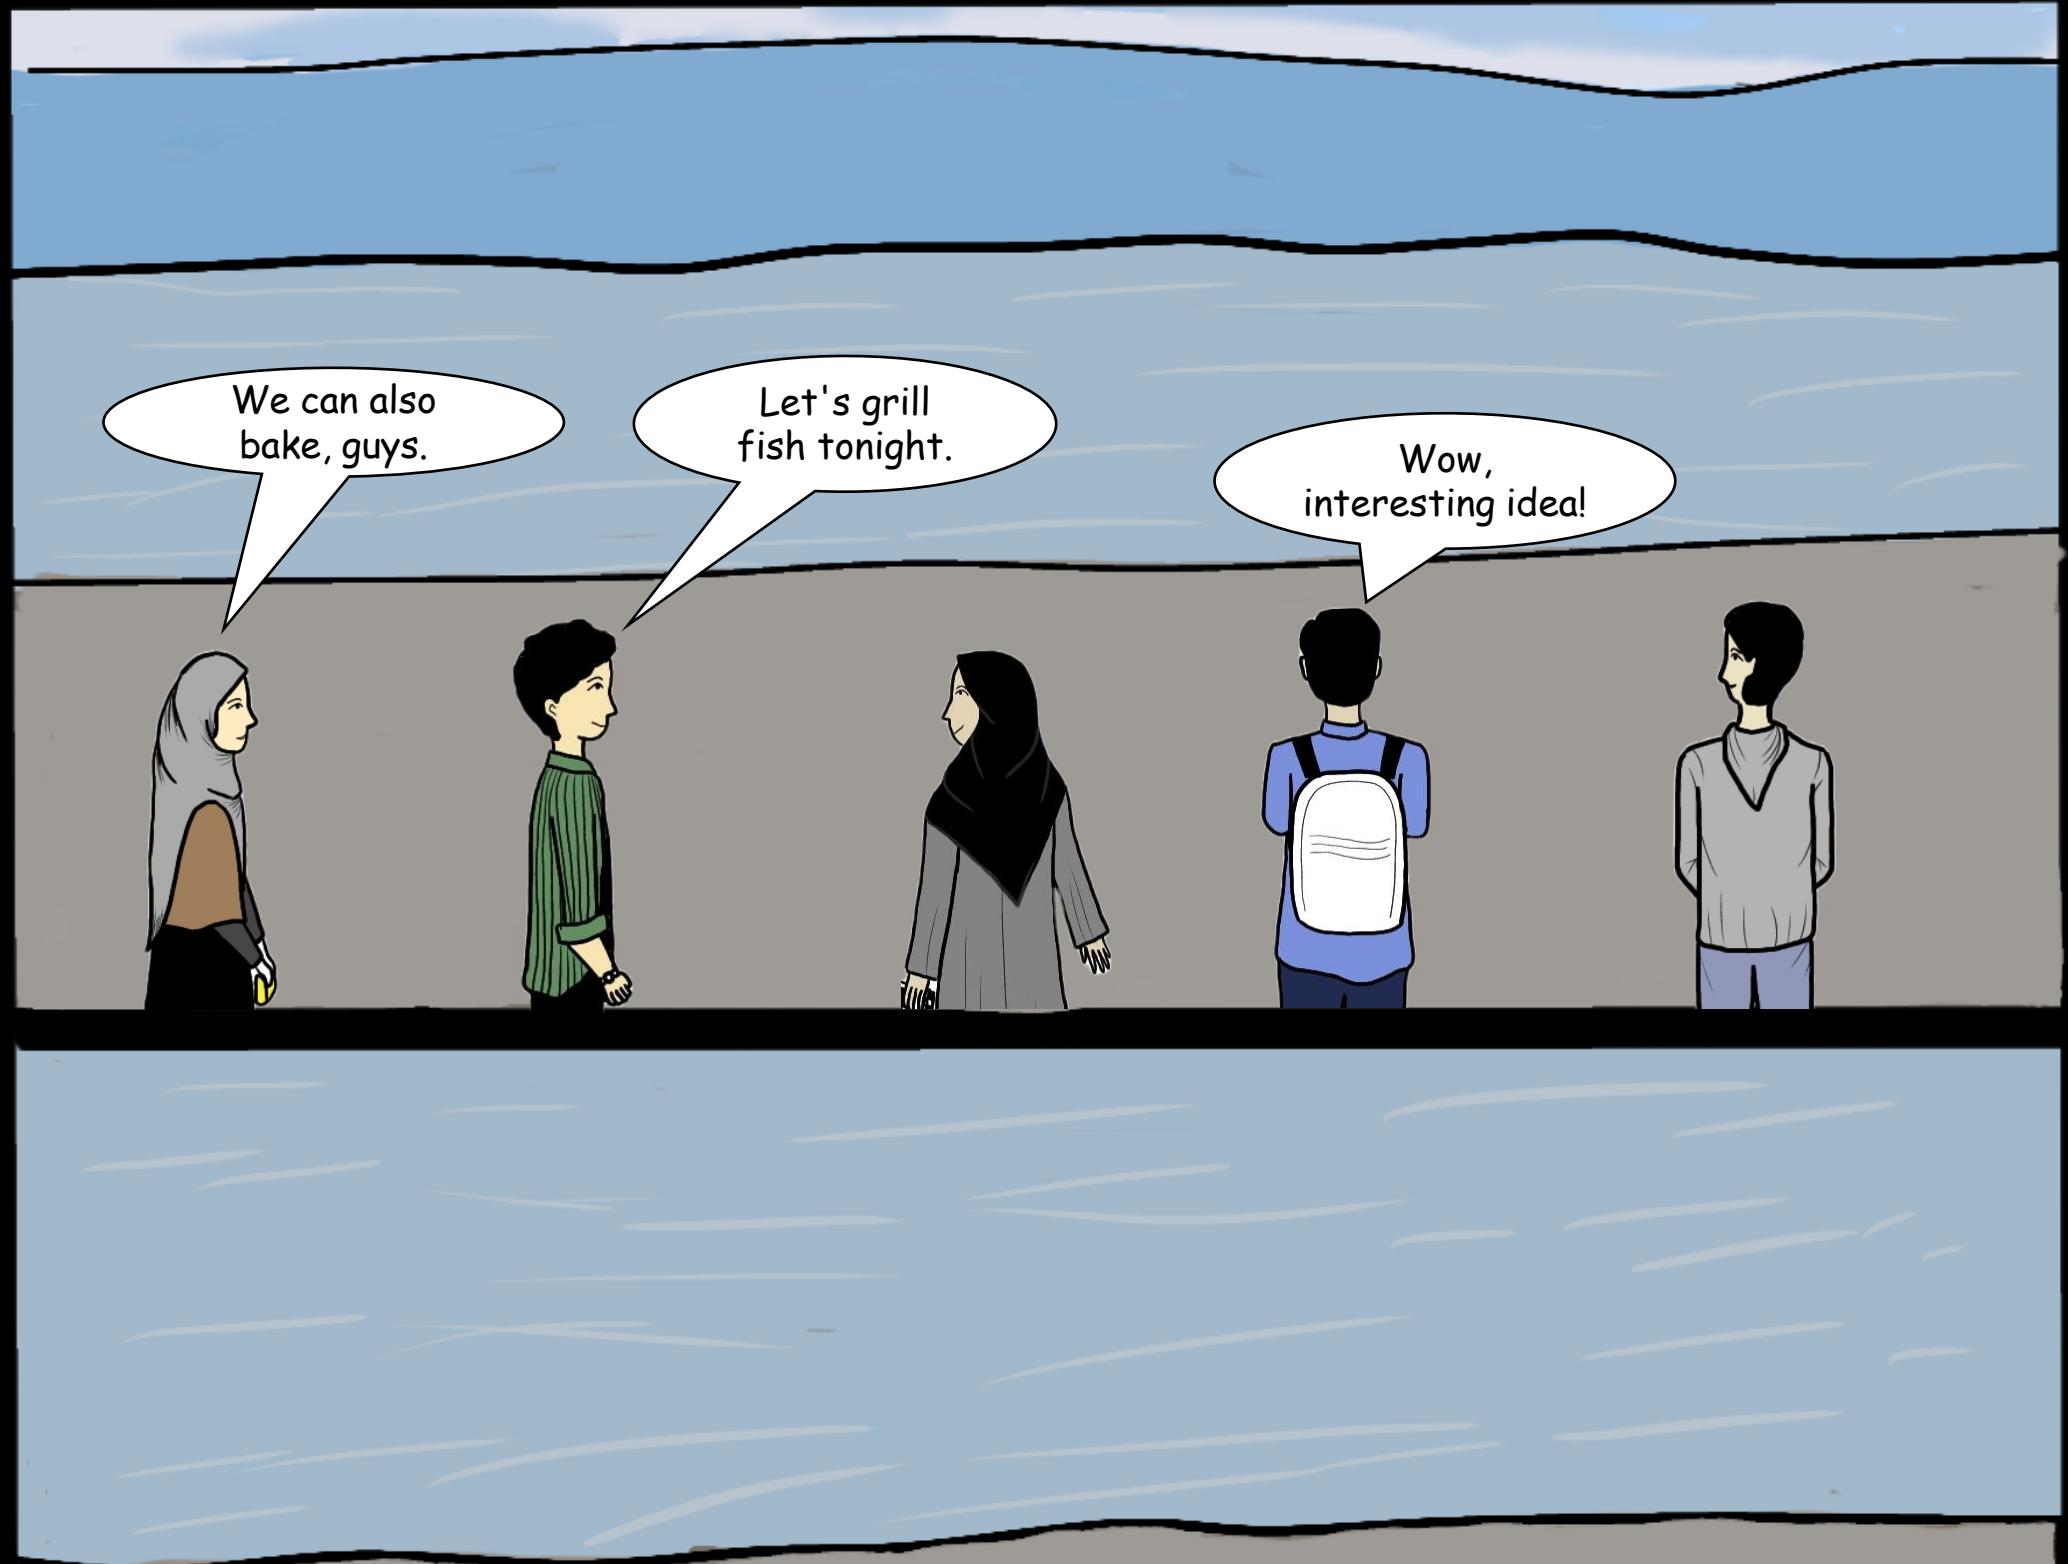

Ok, thank you.

Quite pricey, huh!

BEACH AS BEST ESCAPE ANYONE CAN HAVE BECAUSE THE SAND FOOTPRINTS ON THE BEACH CAN REMOVE STRESS AND BOREDOM
