

ON SIBEA-BEA HILL,
THERE IS A BEGINNING AND AN END TO ALL-NATURAL SIGHTS

Boras Pati Simbolon is a cheerful child who is always remembered for her colorful vibes. She attended Jezioto Academy, a mixed school between regular and "extraordinary" children.

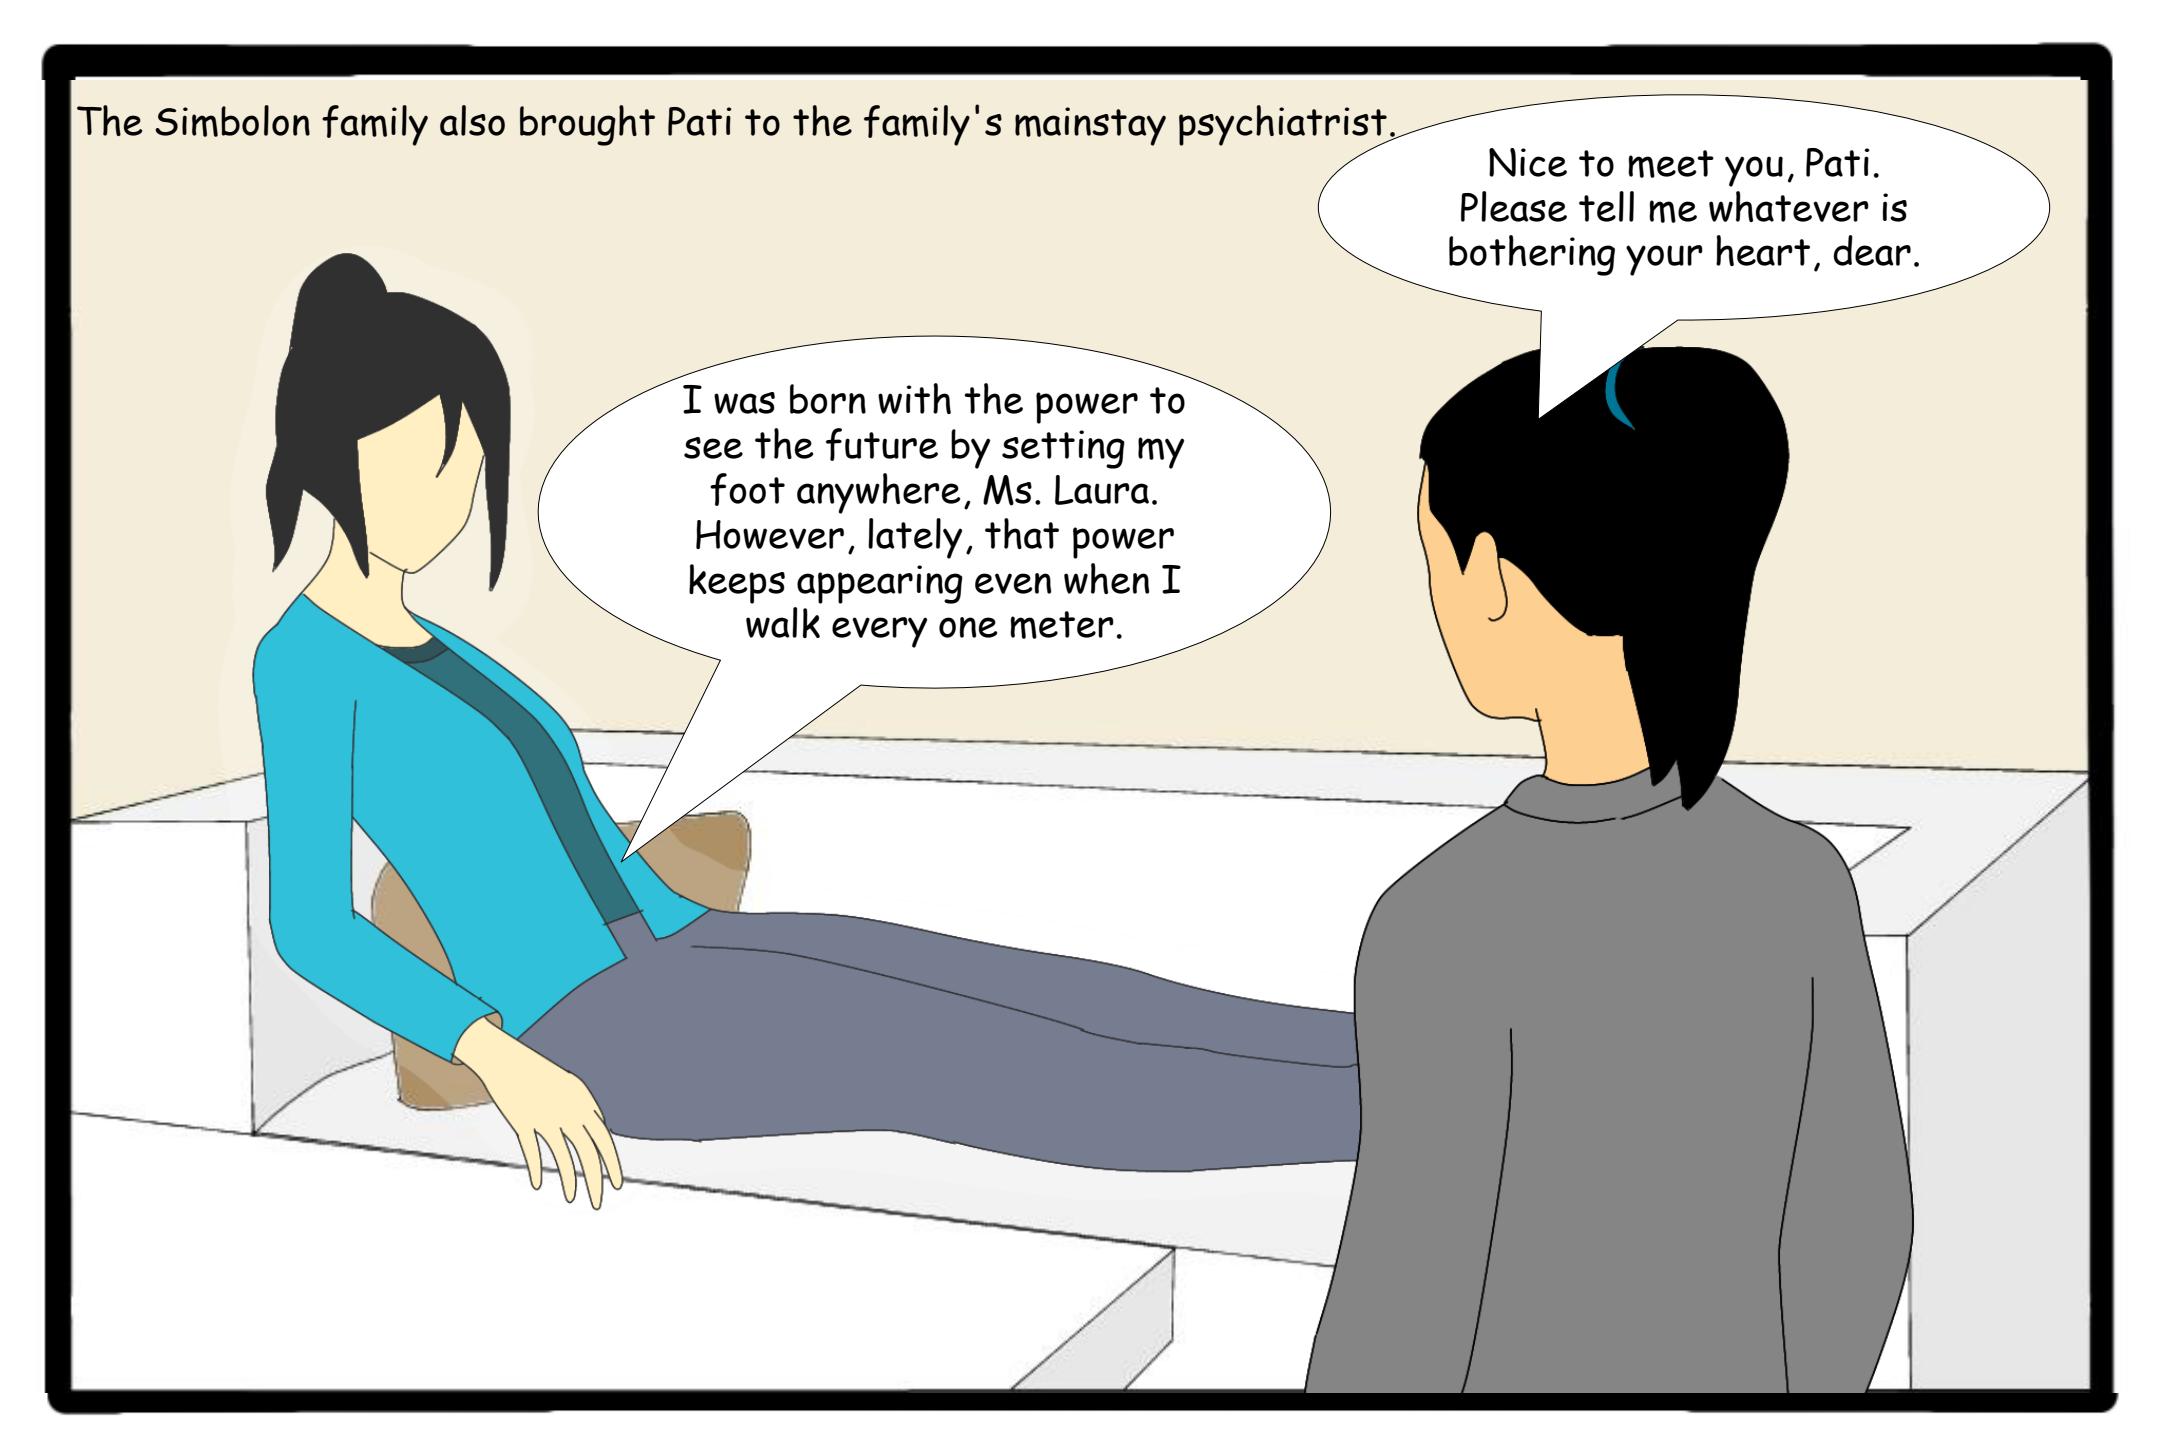

Honey, we have to take Boras Pati to the doctor. Not good, the disease continues to attack her because it will destroy her psyche.

Mom, Dad.
I'm confused because my strength is irregular, and I can't control it.

Which doctor understands the power that our child has? Coincidentally, I have a friend who is a psychiatrist. I'm sure she can help us.

The Simbolon family also brought Pati to the family's mainstay psychiatrist.

Nice to meet you, Pati.
Please tell me whatever is bothering your heart, dear.

I was born with the power to see the future by setting my foot anywhere, Ms. Laura.
However, lately, that power keeps appearing even when I walk every one meter.

I understand what bothers you psychologically. As if there is already a picture that the future will happen precisely as thought, even though there is no data available to predict. Only some people feel comfortable with the abilities they have.

I have a hard time controlling my power. All these visions made me very dizzy and left me in frequent fainting spells and preoccupations.

Boras Pati, in psychology, your illness is known as clairvoyance which describes this phenomenon. It is the part of psychology that investigates paranormal or psychic phenomena.

What solution should I do, Ms. I can't stand all this anymore.

With your complaint.
Do therapy by looking at the winding streets so that your mind can be divided and not fixated on only one problem in your mind. You also have to increase relaxation by looking at wide water, so the mind is calm and controlled.

Yes, Ms. The winding journey that I will experience can provide valuable experiences. The twisted nature I will go through will make me more friendly with nature.

Boras Pati, you have to understand that Ms. Laura does provide an overview of the importance of going through a twisty situation. Life is like a mountain, always farther, higher, and more rugged than it appears. This life is also meandering like a mountain. However, the winding turns out to be healthy for the human mind.

*Simanjojak, I'm asking for your help finding a place that Ms. Laura recommended.

*Simanjojak is the Batak language for "foot."

Simanjojak continues to research all day, night after night but has not found the correct destination for Pati.

Oh no, Simanjojak.
Doesn't seem to have found the right place
yet. What should I do?
I lost my identity. Even my color dimmed.

My dear, you look very different.

Mom, Dad, I'm getting worse.
Please find me a destination as requested by Ms. Laura.
Ms. Laura told me to enjoy the winding natural environment.
She also said a meandering glimpse into nature could be inspiring and enlightening.

How about Sibea-bea Hill?
There you can see a winding road with a vast open Lake Toba. Precisely to the destination you need, dear.

Wilson, please prepare a car and take Pati and Simanjojak to Samosir. Take good care of them.

Okay, Sir, Madam.

Wilson will take you there, Pati.

Then, they were getting ready to go to Sibea-Bea Hill.

Hopefully, when we get to the top, you won't be too gloomy, cold, hard to approach, and full of riddle again.

How about we go up first? I have yet to see the top.

The statue is a landmark on Sibea-bea Hill.

Lord, you have given me the supernatural ability to see the future by setting foot in certain places. However, my strength is getting out of control right now, making me faint frequently. I trust You to be able to heal this psychological problem.

God doesn't give us everything we want, but we believe that You fulfill Your promise. God led us along the road to Sibea-bea Hill. We saw the natural beauty of Lake Toba and the incredible hills in this place. Our journey to Sibea-bea Hill is the first step to purifying Boras Pati's mind.

I want to see the construction of the Cross closer, Pati.

Simanjojak, based on my search. The Cross on the hill of Sibea-bea is proof of God loves humans, which is a sign that God, who is present in Isa Almasih, is willing to sacrifice everything for the love of humans.

Wow, the statue will be huge and monumental.

After I thought about it, the slogan that the right way to travel to this attraction is "Adventure in Sibea-bea Hill, as the best way to learn to enjoy God's greatness". The journey to this Sibea-bea tourist attraction teaches us many things about the purpose of life, no matter how bad the roads and accommodations are.

Finally, the slogan solves. Pati became herself again!
